Public Health Doctor Addresses P. T. A.

On Tuesday, May 2, Dr. A. F. Whitsett, local health director, addressed 35 members of the Galena P. T. A. at its regular monthly meeting. He told how the Health Department helps the parent to cope with the health problem in children. Health problems are trying to be solved by sanitation, prevention and immunization of communicable diseases, and health education. Some methods used are pre-school clinics, dental clinics and orthopedic clinics. Sunshine and proper food are great aids in good health of the child.

FIRE THREATENS PEOPLE'S BANK MONDAY MORNING

Discovered By John Owens At 6 A. M.

At 6:00 A. M. Monday morning firemen were called to the People's Bank in Chestertown when heat from the furnace ignited beam supports. The fire was discovered by Mr. John Owens, an employee of the bank. When he went to the bank to fix the furnace he found the furnace room filled with smoke. He turned in a fire alarm and firemen made short work of discovering and extinguishing the burning timbers which supported the concrete foundation of the heating plant. The furnace is in a rear room of the bank on the floor level.
