

THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER

Were you Queen of the May? Who ever was, had a rather chilly day to reign. However, old Sol has been doing better by the month of flow-

The week has been a gay one with an unusual number of parties for this time of the year. Wednesday held the record—three in one day. Mrs. Browne Metcalfe entertained at luncheon-bridge for her bridge club and their guests. Later in the afternoon Mrs. A. C. Dick was hostess at a tea, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cannon entertained at dinner.

Mrs. Louis Skinner was the guest of honor on Thursday at a luncheon-bridge given by her sister, Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler, on Friday at a luncheon given by Mrs. Ebon Perkins and on given by Mrs. Ebon Perkins and on Saturday night. Saturday night will be hosts at a buffet supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Skinner.

So you see it's been a busy week socially. On Tuesday of the coming week, Our Garden Club will hold its May meeting at the home of Mrs. Earle Nicholson, at which time Mrs. Clara Stacy Solandt will give a talk on the types of paneling throughout the country. This should prove intensely interesting and it is hoped that all members will be present.

Mrs. William T. Dixon accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Dixon, has reopened her home, Green Point Farm, having spent the winter in Savannah, Ga. Mrs. Dixon had as a house guest last week-end, Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones. Mrs. Jones is spending this week in Wilmington, visiting Miss Mary Rogers Hynson.

Miss Elizabeth Dixon will attend a house party at Princeton this week-end. Her sister, Miss Josephine Dixon, who graduates from Garrison Forest School in June will make her debut this coming season in Baltimore.

A number from here attended the Bankers Convention in Atlantic City, this week, which was held at the Hotel Traymore on Thursday and Friday. Among those who were included: Messrs. Allan A. Harris, Simon W. Westcott, Stephen R. Collins, W. Robert Huey, Thomas D. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield. They certainly had perfect weather, and I know they'll have some fine tales to tell on their return.

Mrs. Henry Catlin has been a guest this week of Mrs. Charles B. Whaland.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Wayne, Pa., will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown at their new apartment on Queen St.

World's Queerest Chimney What must be the world's longest and queerest chimney is to be seen in South Wales. It is two miles long, and was constructed up the side of a mountain from a nearby copper mine. The reason for its length is that, with the former chimney, of ordinary size, the poisonous fumes issuing from the "smelting" were harmful to crops. The chimney also has a full-sized stream running through part of it.

Mrs. Lewis Gordon is a guest of her parents who live in Chicago. She will be away during the month of May.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Turner and Miss Betty Lewis, of Washington, D. C., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lewis last week-end.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hall, daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hall, of Church Hill, and Mr. W. Frank Jarrell, Jr., son of Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell, of Galena, and the late Mr. W. Frank Jarrell took place at 4 P. M. Thursday, April 20th at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of blue and pink marquisette, with a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Martha Hall, was maid of honor and was dressed in blue lace with a corsage of roses and sweet peas.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Beckwith, of Chester town, and Mr. Joe W. Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Harper, Sr., were married at 8 o'clock Saturday evening by Rev. Charles E. Davis at the M. E. Parsonage. The bride had as her attendant her sister, Miss Elva Savington, Mr. Baynard Harper, Jr., was best man. A reception followed at the groom's parents for the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Harper will make their new home in Salisbury, Md.

Miss Doris Savington daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Savington, of Chester town, and Mr. Joe W. Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Harper, Sr., were married at 8 o'clock Saturday evening by Rev. Charles E. Davis at the M. E. Parsonage. The bride had as her attendant her sister, Miss Elva Savington, Mr. Baynard Harper, Jr., was best man. A reception followed at the groom's parents for the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Harper will make their new home in Salisbury, Md.

So wishing you a week-end full of sun shine and a very happy time I'm Yours, calling it a day,
