ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

Lewis Stone and Mickey Rooney in "The Hardys Ride High"

"The Hardys Ride High", sixth of the famous series dealing with the popular screen family, comes to the New Lyceum on Monday and Tuesday, May 15 and 16.

The new picture is different in every respect from the others, but the beloved Hardys remain the same. Now then inherit $2,000,000 and move to Detroit to claim it. On the plane, their changed status first effects Aunt Milly, played by Sara Haden, and she falls for a business man who is a fellow passenger.

In Detroit, overcome by sudden wealth, Mickey Rooney, in his role as Andy Hardy, steps out to a cabaret and falls desperately in live with a chorus girl, Virginia Grey.

Only the Judge (Lewis Stone) and his wife (Fay Holden) maintain their equilibrium.

The family is on edge, figuratively hanging over the precipice of newfound wealth, when the Judge discovers evidence to prove that he is not the legal heir.

The Hardys are brought back to grim reality. Then return to Carvel, poor as ever but proud of their heritage of honor and none the worse for their interlude in the realms of luxury.

Jeanette MacDonald appears in her first solo starring role in "Broadway Srenade," which comes to the New Lyceum on Wednesday, and Thursday, May 17 and 18. Based upon the struggles of a young singer who progresses from cheap nightclubs to musical comedy stardom, the new picture offers Miss MacDonald an opportunity to sing everything from grand opera to popular seelctions written especially for the production.

Lew Ayres plays his most important role since his re-entry into films as the star's composer husband who, while his wife is winning stage triumphs, hides in the obscurity of playing a piano n a five-and-ten-cent store.

Frank Morgan, who is rapidly becoming famous for his interpretatons of theatrical producers, essays this role once again. Ian Hunter supplies the third point of the love triangle, and Al Shean, of the famous team of Gallagher and Shean, portrays the character of Herman, elderly cellist, who befriends Ayres.

Suporting players chosen for important roles in the drama include Virginia Grey, Rita Johnson, William Gargan, Franklin Pangborn, Kitty McHugh, Esther Dale, and Leon Belasco. The film was produced by Robert Z. Leonard.

In the story of "Broadway Serenade" Jeanette MacDonald, as Mary Hale, and Lew Ayres as her husband Jimmy Seymour, are employed as a song and piano team in the Gay Nineties Club in New York.

When Ayres becomes angered and strikes an influential customer the couple are fired. Arriving home Ayres learns that he has won the Davelli Scholarship, giving him a year's study in Italy. The money, however, is not sufficient to pay for his wife's part of the trip and Ayres tries to sell a composition to Frank Morgan, Broadway producer. Miss MacDonald accompanies her husband to Morgan's office. Through a series of accidents she sings, but not the song her husband has written. As a result she is hired while he is forced to stay at home and continue his work in cheap cafes. She rapidly rises to stardom and her name is linked with that of the "angel" of the show. Ayres msunderstands and a divorce ensues.

Outstanding among the songs heard in the production are "For Every Lonely Heart," "Flyin' High," "Rhapsody," "One Look at You", 'Time Changes Everything," "No Time to Argue" and "Ridin' on a Rainbow." Also a highlight are a medley of oldfashioned songs sung by Miss MacDonald and a chorus, with Lew Ayres at the piano.

LARGEST CIRCUS HAS AIR COOLED BIG TOP

REJUVENATED AND RESTYLED, RINGLING BROS. AND DARNUM & BAILEY COMBINED SHOWS ARE CRAMMED WITH NEW THRILLS

With the world's largest big top air conditioned and restyled in interior decor, the Big Show—Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey combined circus—boasting the finest performance in the finest setting in its impressive history as the foremost amusement institution of all time, will exhibit in Baltimore at Monument and Highland Ave., May 18th, 19th and 20th.

Gargantua the Great, the giant gorilla, the mightiest attraction in this or any other country, in this season displayed, in the world's largest traveling menagerie, where the crowds may gaze close up at him at their leisure. As an adjunct to the menagerie, a horse tent, displaying in decorated stalls the 70 Kentucky equine beauties bought by John Ringling North, president of the circus, in and around Lexington ast fall ,connects with it.

Performances start at 2 and 8 P. M., with the new streamlined inaugural spectacle "The World Comes to the World's Fair," created, costumed and produced by Charles Le Maire, moving in iridescent magnificence under the blue ceiling of the vast tent. Backgrounds of drapes and tasseled curtains, gold and silver center and quarter poles enhance the beauty of the pageantry, in which 2000 people and animals take part.

Terrell Jacobs, mighty mentor of jungle-bred beasts, will present the largest group of performing wild animals ever seen in America —50 lions, tigers and leopards.

Gargantua the Great, the world's largest and most ferocious captive gorilla, has grown since last year, and stands 5 feet, 7 inches when erect, weighs around 500 pounds and has an arm stretch of over 9 feet. His huge air conditioned sage is a sight in itself.

Heading the roster of features newly imported from Europe are Fritzi Bartoni, Europe's queen of the flying trapeze; the Pilades, who do the leaps from the long ramp and spring-board over elephants, camels and horses, standing side by side; the Zerbinis, foremost teeterboard acrobatic act of the Continent and cousins of the famous Riding Cristianis, who again head the bareback riding numbers; the Great Arturo, fearless tumbler and comic of the high wire; Hubert Castle, acrobatic comedian of the tight wire; the Aicardis, amazing novelty jugglers of fire torches; the Filudys, springboard somersaulting marvels; the Iwanows, stars of the aerial bars; Albert Powell, contortionistic thriller of the flying trapeze; Albertino of London, Europe's favorite clown, and Lulu, the greatest woman clown of the age.

W. C. T. U. HOLDS CONVENTION AT ROCK HALL, MD.

The Kent County W. C. T. U. held its annual convention at Rock Hall M. E. Church, with the President, Mrs. J. L. Price presiding. The reports of officers and of those in charge of the various branches of work were very interesting.

Mrs. Hannah Moore gave an especially good talk on her work with the children in her group, and the possible influence for good upon the life of a child. "Even if the life of one child is touched it is time well spent." Mrs. Moore was appointed Director of Sunday School work for the county.

In the absence of Mrs. Baxter, the report on Flower Mission work was read by Mrs. R. C. Young showing a good total of many cards, fruits, and flowers sent to the sick and suffering.

Mrs. C. S. Church gave a good report on L. T. L. work.

Mrs. Livingood reported the W. C. T. U. Room at the Hospital would soon be renewed with paint and new linen.

The Publicity Directors reported the Editors of our three county papers as always being glad to publish any W. C. T. U. news. This information was much appreciated by the convention.

Miss Sheppard, of Rising Sun, who has her degree from Columbia University, and who has just completed a course in Alcohol Education under Miss Palmer of Evanston, Illinois, was present and responded when called upon as the new State Director of Scientific Temperance Instruction or Alcohol Education as it is now called. Miss Sheppard is prepared to give out methods of teaching Alcohol Education in the public schools where this subject is required to be taught.

In the absence of Mrs. Haslup the noontide prayer service was in charge of State President Miss Bertha M. Tyson, who also made her address in the afternoon.

The short talks by several ministers of the county added much to the enjoyment of the program, a much looked for feature annually.

The officers were re-elected as follows: Mrs. J. L. Price, president; Mrs. F. B. Harper, vice-president; Miss Laura Thomas, corresponding Secretary; Mrs. R. C. Young, recording secretary; Mrs. E. R. Pennington, Treasurer. Mrs. Ida R. Willis, of Betterton has consented to be Acting Corresponding Secretary until Miss Laura Thomas is able to take up her duties again.

Millington Union received a certificate for being a Gold Star Union, which means dues and other obligations all paid up and their quota of the Willard Centenary Fund paid in full. Twenty new members have joined Millington Union recently.

The music during the day and evening was much enjoyed. The double male quartette of Chestertown gave two selections. Other singers were the Church Choir, Misses Rodney and Donnelly, Mrsfl Toulson and Mrs. Garey, and others.

The address of the evening was made by the Rev. Dr. E. L. Bunce of St. John's M. P. Church, Baltimore. He is a forceful speaker, giving his attentive audience much information.

The Essay Contest was reported by Mrs. Church, as followse: First, Betty Lussier, of Rock Hall; Second, Robert Hill, a Kennedyville boy attending Galena High; Third, Phyllis Bennett, of Millington. Twenty - one essays were sent in. It was requested that the first prize essay be sent to the White Ribbon Herald for publication.

The Poster Contest in charge of Mrs. R. C. Young resulted in first prize of $1.00 to Henry Higman of Millington, Second prize 50 cents each to Elsie Groves and Betty Fowler. Dorothy Groves receives a subscription to the "Young Crusader." Four others, two of Betterton and two of Millington received honorable mention.

Several new members joined the Union. Invitation to meet in Chestertown next year was gratefully accepted.

We, the members of the Woman's Chrstian Temperance Union of Kent County, Maryland, assembled in Rock Hall M. E. Church, April 27, 1939, for our Annual Convention, consecrate our-selves anew to work and pray for the kingdom of God on earth.

We as Christians, realize that we have a great responsibility, therefore be it resolved,

1. That we continue to fight the liquor traffic, as long as the evil prevails.
2. We protest the commercializing of the Sabbath, and urge all Christians to work unceasingly to have the Local Option Law replaced upon our statue books.
3. We desire to go on record as disapproving the so called popular habit, because so many men and women from all walks of life are hereby acquiring the taste for alcohol which impairs clear thinking, steady nerves, and quick action of its users.
4. We urge co-operaton with all organizations working for peace.
5. We protest the advertizing of alcoholic liquors on High Ways and in News Papers.
6. We thank the Pastor and other officials of this church for their hospitality, the ladies for the splendid meals served, those who have given us good music, and to all who have helped make this convention a success.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. J. W. Crouch,
Mrs. F. Livingood,
Mrs. C. F. Wheatley,
Mrs. Paul Reynolds,
Miss Laura Thomas.
