THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

And so it came to pass, that while the Spring brides are busy announcing dates for their weddings, a marriage took place right under our noses this week, before we even had time to think about it.

Commander and Mrs. Hugh M. Branham, of Charlestown, S. C., announce the marriage of their daughter, Jocelyn Margaret to Mr. Charles O. Vandervoort, of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, March 13, at Emmanuel Episcopal Church by the Rev. Charles L .Atwater, D. D., rector of Emmanuel Church.

The bride, who was a popular member of the younger set here, before moving to South Carolina, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Philip van der Goes, and had as her only attendant her sister, Mrs. Charles Chester Atwater, of Baltimore Mr. Erety Grieb served as best man for Mr. Vandervoort.

Mrs. Vandervoort wore a becoming suit of gray, with aqua blouse and fawn hat. Her flowers were a corsage of spring flowers.

On Tuesday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Atwater, entertained a few of the young friends of the bride and groom; a miscellaneous shower concluding the evening.

The inter-sorority dance at Washington College this evening is one of the highlights of the season for the younger crowd. Many of the former graduates will return among whom, will be Miss Hilda Ott and Miss Polly Fay Taylor both of Baltimore. They will be guests of Miss Helen Strong while Miss Bissett Frazier will visit Miss Eleanor White.

Philadelphia, seems to have been the place to go this week, and why not, with a perfectly swell flower show going on.

Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer were guests there this week of Mrs. Carlton Kelsey, while Mrs. S. Scott Beck was a guest of Mrs. E. W. Elliott.

Mrs. Dorsey Hines returned yesterday, having been a guest since Tuesday, in Cynwyd, the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph Tull.

Mrs. Harry Deringer and her little son, Hurtt, returned yesterday, Friday, from Jacksonville, Fla., where they have been visiting Mrs. Deringer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hawkins, since January. Lieut. Deringer will be home from Washington for the week-end.

Two birthday parties for the little folks have been celebrated this past week—one by David Massey on Saturday, and later in the week, one by Betty Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Malin have returned home after an extended visit with relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. Harry Wilkinson, of Baltimore, was the weke-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Barnes. With other members of the family they visited their father, Mr. John W. Barnes at the Homeopathic Hospital in Wilmington.

Miss Margaret Bell is recuperating from burns received last week, when she was scalded by hot water from an overturned kettle.

Miss Ella Wilkins is visiting in Darby, Pa., at the home of Mrs. Paul Anderson.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes, of Riverton, N. J., spent several days of the past week in Chestertown.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler entertained the basketball squad of Washington College at dinner.

On Saturday, March 30, the Spring dance will be held at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. This will be preceeded by a cocktail hour, at which time, the Club will be host to the members. Well it's nice to think of something connected with Spring, at the moment when we sit and shiver. To-morrow is Palm Sunday and St. Patrick's Day all in one. Could it be true that next Sunday is Easter? Will daffodils ever bloom? Must Spring be far behind?

Yours waiting impatiently,

The Wanderer

NEWS GATHERED ON THE PENINSULA

Protest Water System For North East

Harry L. Harvey, Jesse Crouch, James Armour, Charles C. Bayard and Walter Hall, all residents and taxpayers of the town of North East, have filed a petition in the Circuit Court for Cecil county for an injunction to prevent the Board of Town Commissioners from installing a town water system.

The work was to have started this week.

The petition is based on the failure of the town board to recognize a petition to submit to a referendum under the local law passed in 1935. A referendum was held in 1938 and, although the sponsors for a water system won the election, it was declared illegal because of a defect in the town's election law. It was expected the Circuit Court here will hand down a decision on the petition shortly.

Dredging Project For Crisfield

A $75,000 dredging project in Crisfield harbor will be started "at an early date", the War Department has advised Representative David J. Ward.

The program calls for a channel sixty feet wide and seven feet deep from the Little Annemessex river by way of Cedar creek, a land cut and Daugherty creek to the Big Annemessex river.

Delaware To Whip Thieves

Two men convicted of robbing a filling station operator, then hurling him from their automobile, were sentenced today to 10 years each and 10 lashes at the Delaware whipping post.

They are James Stewart, 21, and Walter Latham, 28, both of New Castle Hundred. The filling station operator was robbed of $47 and a watch.
