THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Memorial day which- was- antici pated with a certain degree of pleasure, had certainly a decided crimp put in it by the cold Nor-Easter which decided to descend upon us on a holiday. The sail-boat racers braved the cold wind and rain however, the spectators spectated at the horse races and the golfers trudged the course. How much fun anyone had, I don't know. Yours truly stayed at home getting notes together in order to pen a note to you. So passed the 30th of May.

Dawns to-day June, the month of roses, graduates and brides. Invitations were received this week to the marriage of Miss Helen Moores Los Kamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Donald Los Kamp, and Mr. Gilbert Wilcox Mead, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, which will take place on Saturday, the 15th of June at 3 o'clock in Emmanuel P. E. Church.

Miss Los Kamp will be graduated from Washington College on Monday, June 10th.

Mr. Mead, the second son of Dr. and Mrs. Mead, has a position in Baltimore, where he and his bride will reside on St. Paul St.

The dance at the Country Club this evening promises to have a large crowd. Among those entertaining at suppers, before the dance, will be Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cannon. Several surprise innovatoins will add to the enjoyment of the evening, aside from good music and a general "get together."

To-day, will be one of those days which have been a bit rare of late, when we dash from one party to another. This afternoon, as I told you last week ,the Misses Toulsons and Mrs. John Speicher will entertain at a large tea in honor of Miss Isabelle Toulson of Salisbury, Md., whose marriage to Mr. Harold Porter will take place on Tuesday, June 11th.

To-morrow, Miss Sara Speicher wil be hostess at a tea to about 65 of her young friends, including sorority girls aond fraternity boys of the College.

The color scheme and decorations of red, white and blue which were the motif on Tuesday, made the luncheon-bridge given by Mrs. William Moyer and Mrs. Bonwill Dukes, one of the prettiest affairs of the season. The party was given at the Sophie Fisher Inn.

Mrs. J. Elliott Gilpin, who is a frequent visitor in the County at the home of Mrs. H. Clay Brown and at Piney Grove, the home of Miss Belle Emory, entertained a number of ladies from Chestertown at luncheon on Wednesday in Baltimore at her home on Canterbury Road.

Mrs. Irvin King, of Gwynweed Valley, Pa., is a guest this week of Mrs. H. Clay Brown.

Dr. and Mrs. Douglas L. Hunt and Robert Hunt, of Birmingham, Ala., were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar D. Crothers, of Baltimore, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsley. Mr. and Mrs. Crothers will go to Ocean City to-day, where they have taken an apartment for the summer months.

Mrs. Franklin H. Beck will leave on Monday to visit Mrs. Crothers for a week.

Mrs. George H. Gearhart, wife of Lieut. Gearhart, of Fort Benning, Ga., with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Gehr, of Dundalk, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gehr with their son, Clinton and daughter, Lillian, of Philadelphia, were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Simmons.

Miss Rebecca Kendal, of Ancon, Panama, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil W. Kendall.

Miss Joan Kellogg Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kellogg Smith, of Quaker Neck, will receive her Bachelor of Arts degree at Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida, at the commencement on Monday, June 3rd.

Mrs. Ida Jones was the guest of honor at a surprise birthday party last Saturday, which was given by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Hadaway at their home. The occasion marked the 70th birthday of Mrs. Jones.

Among the out-of-town girls who came home for the week-end were Miss Virginia Jones, Miss Harriette Welch, and Miss Cynthia Clendaniel. Miss Clendaniel was called home due to the illness of her mother, Mrs. John Clendaniel who is now, however, much better.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick moved yesterday to the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Simon Wickes Westcott.

Here ends, be it, as it may, the story of "our week". It behooves us all to remember as we wine and dine, dance and sing, that across the seas, there is shell and shatter. Let's do what we can to aid.

Yours for the cause,

The Wanderer
