Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging headache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, giddiness, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

WHAT PEOPLE ARE DOING AT MASSEY

Package Receiver
A package receiver, installed in the wall of the kitchen, is a useful but not costly feature which adds considerably to the comfort of the family and to efficiency in the home. It has a self-locking door which opens outside and is insulated and ventilated. Another useful feature in the home is a laundry chute, particularly for homes with basement laundries and second-floor sleeping quarters. They are installed in the walls and have vertical shafts which permit soiled clothes and linen to be dropped directly to the laundry.

ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

Rudy Vallee and some of the glamorous blonde beauties who surround him in Universal's romantic comedy musical, "Too Many Blondes," coming to the New Lyceum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, June 23, 24, and 25th.

"Too Many Blondes," a new Universal comedy romance, coming on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 23, 24 and 25th to the New Lyceum theatre, marks a definite screen achievement for Rudy Vallee, one of the foremost figures of the entertainment world.

Vallee stars in "Too Many Blondes" in the role of a young radio singer whose bride, portrayed by Helen Parrish, becomes jealous over his friendship with a series of blondes. The ensuing complications lead the newlyweds on a wild trip to Hollywood and then to a sumptuous Mexican resort.

Supporting Vallee and Miss Parrish is a cast of well known players that include Lon Chaney, Jr., Eddie Quillan, Jerome Cowan, Iris Adrian, Jeanne Kelly and Dorothy Lee.

"Too Many Blondes" was directed by Thornton Freeland, who won fame for such hit pictures as "Whoopee," "Flying Down to Rio" and "Three Live Ghosts." Freeland has spent several years directing important pictures in England, and "Too Many Blondes" is his first assignment since returning from abroad.

Musical interludes are supplied by several new hit tunes, among them: "Whistle Your Blues to a Bluebird," "Let's Love Again" and "Don't Mind If I Do," all by Milton Rosen and Everett Carter. In addition, Vallee revives his perennial hit novelty song "The Man On the Flying Trapeze," by Walter O'Keefe.

Abbott and Costello and the Andrews Sisters, who scored such a sensational hit in Universal's "Buck Privates," have been reunited by the same company in Bud Abbott and Lou Costello and Dick Powell "In The Navy." The picture comes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 26, 27, and 28th to the New Lyceum Theatre.

Sharing stellar position with Abbott and Costello is Powell, who plays his first singing role in several seasons. Members of the supporting cast, in addition to the Andrews trio, include such outstanding artists as Claire Dodd, Dick Foran, Butch and Buddy and Shemp Howard.
