DEAR ROAMER

Time Marches On! We've had the longest day of the year. Summer is officially here, and we are about to celebrate our Independence of these United States. Let the stars and stripes wave this year, as never before, over the land of the free and the brave.

Entraining next week-end for a tour of the West as far as California, will be Mrs. Claude Truslow and her two older daughters Misses Betty and Peggy Truslow. They will return to Chestertown after a month's trip. The old slogan of "See this Country First" has at last come into its own.

Also leaving for California, July 4th will be Miss Mary Elizabeth Humphreys daughter of Mrs. C. R. Humphreys, who will be sent as the delegate of her sorority, Alpha Chi Omega, at the National convention to be held in Pasadena, Cal., with headquarters at the notably beautiful Huntington Hotel.

An engagement of interest is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gill of their daughter, Harriett Lucinda to Mr. Edward Baxter Hill, son of Mrs. Lella Hill, of Philadelphia, and the late Mr. Hill of Albany, N. Y. Miss Gill is a graduate of the Chestertown High School, while Mr. Hill is a graduate of the Philadelphia School of Horology, and is opening a jewelry store in Smyrna, Del.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Elsie C. Jones, of Kennedyville, Md., announces the marriage of her daughter, Ruth Virginia to Mr. Harold M. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Medford Jones on Saturday evening, June 21, 1941.

The ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage, Chestertown by the Rev. Paul E. Reynolds. Their only attendants were Miss Marianna Comly and Mr. George W. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will live in Wilmington, Del.

Among the out-of-town guests here this week was Mr. Charles Jennings, of Roaring Gap, N. C., and Miami Beach, Fla., who visited Col. and Mrs. Charles Mills Bunker at their home in the Wickes Apartments. Col. and Mrs. Bunker entertained on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mr. Jennings who is the former U. S. Senior Amateur Golf Champion.

Mrs. Harrison Cooke and her two young daughters of Elizabeth, N. J., have spent the past week as guests of Mrs. Cooke's grandmother, Mrs. A. T. H. Harper. Mr. Cooke will join his family in Chestertown for the week-end.

Mrs. Allan B. Harris and her son, Louis, of Beverly Hills, Cal., came to Chestertown on Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Allan A. Harris, who met them in Baltimore. Allan Harris who is visiting en route here, in Chicago, will come on July 14, when he will join his mother and brother at the home of his grandmother.

Miss Harriette Welch, has returned to Chestertown from Sag Harbor, L. I., to spend the summer at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper. Over the 4th and for a period of a fortnight, Miss Welch will go to Atlanta, Ga., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Girault, who are making their home there now.

Miss Elizabeth G. Brown entertained last evening at a picnic supper in honor of her house guest, Miss Betty White. The supper was served at small tables in the yard, by the river at her home on Water Street.

Miss Cornelia Walker accompanied Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Atwater to Ocean City, Md., last Sunday, where they remained until yesterday.

Judge Stephen R. Collins is attending the three day Maryland Bar Association convention which is being held in Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. Philip M. Brooks, Jr., left Sunday for an inspection tour of the Larro Mills in Detroit, Michigan. The inspection tour is expected to last the entire week.

Mr. Rollison Baxter has returned from Denver, Col., where he attend-

I haven't found out all who are going yet, so more of that anon.

This is the season to go—North, East, South or West—if you can. Turn no opportunity down. The Old Man knocks but once. Yours waiting, ed the National Convention of Rotary.

WEDDINGS

Mrs. Harry R. Graham spent several days last week in New York with her daughter and son-in-law.

Mrs. William T. Dixon and her son Mr. William T. Dixon, Jr., will spend the week-end in Baltimore, where they will attend the pre-nuptial festivities and the wedding of Mrs. Dixon's niece, Miss Mary Elizabeth Turner whose marriage to Mr. Daniel Dickey will take place this afternoon at the Church of the Redeemer. Miss Elizabeth Dixon and Miss Josephine Dixon will be two of the bridesmaids. On Monday, Mr. Dixon will go to Philadelphia where he will be an usher in the Huber-Biddle wedding taking place in that city.

Mrs. Geraldine Williams, of Baltimore is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer.

Ensign S. Scott Beck, U. S. N., who is stationed in Norfolk, Va., came on Thursday to remain over the week-end as a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck.

Mrs. Rolph Townshend and her son Rolph Jr., have returned from Baltimore after two weeks following an operation which the latter had performed on his nose.

Mrs. J. S. Kreeger is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Matthews, at Easton, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Knox and son, of Clinton, Md., are spending the summer as guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.

Miss Betty Willis is a guest of Mrs. Alvin E. Coleman in Annapolis, Md.

Mr. Owen Anderson entertained Mr. Eugene Harpold, of Kitzmiller, as a week-end guest.

Mr. George Brice, of Far Hills, N. J., is a guest of his sisters here.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. William Jones are spending the week-end at Atlantic City. Dr. Jones is representing the Alumni Association of Washington College at the 27th National Conference of the American Claridge, Atlantic City.

Mrs. C. R. Humphreys will motor to Boston next week in company with her cousin, Miss Edna Kenly, who is now visiting on the Shore. Mrs. Humphreys will remain with Miss Kenly at her Boston home for a visit of three weeks.

Camping days are here. To-day Jane Kibler and Jane Brooks leave for Camp Red Wing, near Binghamton, N. Y.

On Monday, Anne Wilmer leaves for Camp Quinbee at Ely, Vermont. Camp Wright opens on July 5, but

GIRL SCOUTS TO COLLECT OLD ALUMINIUM

This is in line with the radio appeal made by Mayor Fiorella La Guardia on Tuesday evening, June 24, from Washington. This is civilian service for National Defense. All old aluminum in United States will be turned in on July 25th. So let us all do our part and make Monday, June 30th be known as Old Aluminum Day in Chestertown. This aluminum will be used in the manufacture of airplanes.

Troop No. 1 will be directed by Mrs. Ann Hadaway Scott, captain.
