Taxes on Auto
The 206 hidden and direct taxes on a new low-priced car make up nearly 10 per cent of its cost, according to the National Consumers Tax commission. A model selling for $783 carries about $73.60 in taxes.

SOCIAL LIFE IN AND NEAR TOWN OF STILL POND

Dr. Frank and Mrs. Odgen and Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Ford, over the week-end.

Miss Edna Wroth had as her guest Saturday, Miss Maude Deakne. Our church Carnival was quite a success, around $150.00 was realized. And we enjoyed the fellowship mingling with our friends of neighboring towns, who so willingly helped us with our entertainment we were fortunate indeed in having the Men's Chorus of Christ Methodist Church of Chestertown with us on Thursday evening. On Friday evening we had an hour or two of delightful entertainment by home talent "Sparkling Mary Jane" by Marjorie and Howard Harper, made quite a hit with their audience as did also recitations by Mrs. Kay King, Betton; Mrs. Watson, Fairlee. Mr. Grant our guest impersonator, and Mr. Howard Rasin with his several readings, "The Colored Preacher," "Apples," and "My Brother John and I," were tops as always with their audience. The sketch 1891-1941, the several instrumental selections and the duet by the Price sisters, helped to make a pleasant time for all.

Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Flater have returned from a touring trip through Canada, and left this week to visit relatives in Westminster, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, of Colingswood, N. J., spent Monday with her father, Mr. Edward Dittman. The guest speaker at the Sunday morning Worship Hour, Rev. Chas. Field, of Chestertown. Mrs. James Burnes, of Springfield, Pa., favored us with a solo. "Jesus Lover of My Soul," written by McDowell.

Rev. and Mrs. Chas. E. Davis, and children of Queenstown, were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Jones, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Yingling, of Delaware, visited with their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rouse, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Briscoe, of Chesapeake City, spent Wednesday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Briscoe. Mrs. John Atwell, of near Newport, Del., visited with her sister, Mrs. Boulden, for several days this week.

Rev. Chas. Fields and Mrs. Fields of Chestertown, was entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. W. L. Ford. Mr. Elmer Atwell, of Philadelphia, was a week-end visitor with his home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Copper, of near Newport, spent the week-end with her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Money, near here. Mrs. Chas. Schawartz and little daughter, Mary Caroline, of Wilmington, spent sometime with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schofield.

Mrs. Webster Tomb has been the guest of her father, Mr. Charles Hague, the past week.

Reports received from the Pasteur Institute, Baltimore, made there of the brains of the dog which bit two children of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton R. Tweed, and a small child of Mr. and Mrs. John Woolman, all of upper Elk Neck, Cecil County, some days ago, has been received here. It shows that the canine was suffering from hydrophobia.

All three of the children, since being bitten, have been undergoing treatment for prevention of the disease.

Get Set for a Grand Labor Day With Fine Foods at a Savings

What delicious salads and sandwiches you'll make if you buy your foods in your A & P Food Store! Pick the ingredients for your favorite Salad—then double their flavor with Ann Page Salad Dressing. It's so creamy-smooth, so rich-tasting because it's made with more egg yolk and oil. Yet it's a buy of buys, like all "33 Ann Page Foods," because we both make and sell it, thus eliminating many unnecessary in-between expenses from the price. Try all the fine foods we both make and sell such as . . . Marvel Bread, White House Evaporated Milk, Jane Parker Cakes and Donuts, A & P Teas and Coffees!
