

ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

Frances Farmer, Bob Stack and Brod Crawford form the romantic triangle in Universal's "Badlands of Dakota" coming on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Oct. 9, 10 and 11th to the New Lyceum Theatre.

A Talent-Filled cast, discerning direction, and a gay, sophisticated screen play studded with some of the most delightful singing and dancing seen on the screen in some time, combine to make Lady Be Good, which comes on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Oct. 6, 7, 8th to the New Lyceum Theatre, a musical treat which patrons will want to see not once but twice.

M-G-M has gone "all out" in its array of talent for this picture which stars Eleanor Powell, Ann Sothern and Robert Young, with Lionel Barrymore, John Carroll, Red Skelton and Virginia O'Brien adding top-notch talent in featured supporting roles.

tract. Among her songs is the popular "The Last Time I Saw Paris," in which she is superb.

Norman Z. McLeod's direction sustains a fast, lulling pace throughout.

Four of the colorful characters of the old west are principals in the story of Universal's "Badlands of Dakota," epic Western starring Bob Stack and Ann Rutherford, coming on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 9, 10, 11 to the New Lyceum Theatre.

The four are Calamity Jane, Wild Bill Hickok, General Custer and "Buffalo" McCall, and are portrayed by Frances Farmer, Richard Dix, Addison Richards and Lon Chaney, Jr. McCall, least known of the four, became notorious as the killer of Wild Bill Hickok, the West's most famous marshal and gun fighter.

Dix is seen as Wild Bill in this spectacular Western. The colorful role is one of the actor's best since his memorable portrayal in "Cimarron."

When he isn't portraying rough and rugged personalities on the screen, Dix leads a quiet existence. A farmer by nature, he owns and operates a great ranch near Hollywood, on which he raises turkeys and chickens by the thousands. Non-profit by-products of his ranch are thoroughbred Scotty and English setter dogs, which he raises and bestows on friends.

Dix is married to the former Virginia Webster. He is the father of twin six-year-old sons, Richard and Robert who, until they visited their father on the set of "Badlands of Dakota" had never seen a movie in the making.

Richard Arlen and Andy Devine are co-starred as a pair of detectives assigned to clear up a baffling murder case and recover $250,000 in Universal's mystery film, "A Dangerous Game," which comes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 9, 10 and 11 to the New Lyceum Theatre.

Jeanne Kelly, blonde Texas beauty has the romantic lead opposite Arlen in the exciting story and Devine's comedy is given full play in scenes where he is pursued by a marriage-minded widow.

Offering an unusual blend of chills laughter and action, the story is told in an around an isolated rest-home where all of the patients try to confess a double-killing about which they know nothing.

Colored Draftees

Colored draftees who will leave for camp on October 26th are John Wellington Goldsborough, Robert George Smith, James Edward Reese, Robert Sylvester Briscoe, Andrew Henry Derry, all of Chestertown; William Rasin, of Millington and George Warren Hawkins, of Rock Hall.
