DEAR ROAMER

No matter what else, Home Coming day brought a surprise of no end when Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Turner announced the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Anne, to Mr. Ralph Frederick Emmord, of Perryman, Md., at an intermission party during the Home Coming dance.

The marriage took place a year and a half ago, April 4, 1940 at Warrenton, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmord both attended Washington College. Mrs. Emmord graduated last June. She was a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. At the present time she is a psychiatric aide at the Neuro-psychiatric Institute of the Hartford Retreat, Hartford, Conn. While Mr. Emmord is employed at Prattan Whitney in the same city. They plan to make their home in Hartford, Md. and Mrs. Ralph Emmord of Hartford, Conn., and Miss Janet Pickett, of Concord, New Hampshire, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Turner last week-end.

and carried white chrysanthemums. Little Misses Ann Davis, of Cecilton, and Betty Jean Fellows, of Millington, were flower girls. They wore dresses of white taffeta and carried baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Julian Davis, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man, and Edward Fellows, of Millington, and Willard Andrews, of Wilmington, were ushers.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. F. B. Harper, and Mrs. Howard Toulson, aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride's mother, Mrs. Ralph Geary, wore wine velvet and a corsage of white carnations, while the groom's mother, Mrs. Robert L. Fogwell, chose soldier blue with a corsage of snapdragons.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK

Miss Margaret Ann Turner

And while we are on the subject of weddings, not an unusual topic these days, you will want to hear of one that took place last Saturday evening, before I shift to other news.

A beautiful Autumn wedding took place at Still Point Methodist Church on October 18th, when Miss Lena Beatrice Geary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Geary, of Kennedyville, became the bride of Robert LeRoy Fogwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Fogwell, of Galena.

The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends by the Rev. Henry Caldwell and the Rev. H. B. Flater. The altar and church were decorated with evergreens and lighted candles.

The bride, whose gown was of white satin with a train and finger tip veil, carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath and was given in marriage by her father. Her maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Fogwell, sister of the groom, was carried in a gown of blue taffeta and carried gold chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Gloria Eck and Miss Natalie Goodman, of Chestertown, wore gowns of rose taffeta and carried white chrysanthemums. Little Misses Ann Davis, of Cecilton, and Betty Jean Fellows, of Millington, were flower girls. They wore dresses of white taffeta and carried baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Julian Davis, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man, and Edward Fellows, of Millington, and Willard Andrews, of Wilmington, were ushers.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. F. B. Harper, and Mrs. Howard Toulson, aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love."

On Wednesday, Mrs. M. H. Jacobs entertained at luncheon and bridge at the Sophie Fisher Inn.

Friday, Mrs. Dorsey Hines was hostess at luncheon and bridge at her home, Riverside.

To-morrow, Sunday, there will be two buffet luncheons. One to be given by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Blackhurst at their home King's Grant, and the other by Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis at their apartment in the Riverside on Water St.

Motoring at this season of the year continues to be a pleasant diversion. Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Ure returned last week from a week's tour through West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina and Maryland.

Mrs. George Pennington, Mrs. Pennington, Mrs. Edw. Robinson and Miss Elizabeth Starkey motored through the mountains of West Virginia last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McMahon, Jr., explored the Endless Caverns at

New Market, Va., while on a motor trip through the Shenandoah Valley, of Virginia.

Miss Katharine Smith is spending her vacation as a guest of friends in Baltimore.

President Gilbert W. Mead of Washington College and Mrs. Mead entertained over Homecoming week-end Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mead and Mr. Robert Mead, of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead, Jr., of Baltimore, Mr. John Mead who flew from Louisville, Kentucky, and Miss Evelyn Hulse, of Baltimore.

Dr. and Mrs. Anderson Whitsitt are having as their guests this week-end Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Lowe and their daughter, Betty, from Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Parker Lowe, from Little Rock, Arkansas.

Mr. Melvin Leonard, of the Naval Reserves, 1st division, now stationed at Rhode Island, N. Y., with a friend from Philadelphia, were guests last week-end of the former's par-

Cows On Florida Roads

If your automobile bumps a cow on a Florida highway, you are protected from liability—that is, if you are killed. A statute enacted at the recent session of the Sunshine State legislature provides that when a motor vehicle collide with any animal at large on a public highway and the motor vehicle operator dies as a result of the collision, the owner of such animal shall have no cause of action on account of any injuries to or the death of such animal against the estate of the deceased operator. Otherwise the law provides that owners of Florida livestock have cause for legal action when an automobile wins a bout with livestock on the road.
