

WITH THE HORSES

BY Paul P. Steel

We have a report this week on the last show of the season as far as we know. That is the Dover Dog and Horse Show. It was a very well managed performance.

Several Kent Counties were there and some of them exhibited. The good saddle horse, "Frank," belonging to Mr. R. Wroth Staveley took first in the 3 gaited saddle horse class while Miss Betty Bonwill was first in the large saddle ponies with "Silver." She also placed second to "King Cole" in the pony jumping.

Her mother, Mrs. Emory Bonwill said during the jump that "Silver" could not jump with the little black jumper from Gunston School. "Bob" owned by Mrs. Staveley was third in the class for saddle horses under five years old.

Miss Ann Mager 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Magee, Jr., of Dover rode her small pony "Polly" to win in her class and then came back to give Miss Bonwill some very close competition in the large pony class. It takes a good mount and good horsemanship to place in a class above your own. We feel sure that Miss Magee will be seen more often in shows now that she has made her first appearance in the ring.

The Salisbury contingent arrived in time for Mr. Vaughn Richardson to place first and third in the open and qualified hunters with "King James" and "The Ghost" respectively while Miss Helen Richardson's "Star News" was second to make it an all Wicomico event. Mr. Danby had a very difficult decision in this class as the first two horses "King James" and "Star News" both had a total point score of 95%. The "King" had 50% on performance and 45% on conformation while "News" lost 5 points on performance for 45% and was given 50% on conformation.

The clean performance of "King James" made him the winner in the tie. Mr. Richardson collected his third championship award in his last four shows with "King James" by winning the Knockdown and Out and placing second to Mr. Lay Phillips' "High Rock" in the working hunters.

We can't stop here because we must mention the performance of the "jumping fool" from Gunston School in Centreville. "King Cole" won the pony jumping class and also negotiated the Open and Qualified Hunter course over four foot jumps to place fourth as the performance. He also went over the working hunter course of eleven jumps. When we left the grounds people were still talking about his performance. His rider was a young lady from Washington, D. C., whose name is Mary Ann Ellington and our hats are off to a grand little horsewoman that has courage as well as skill.

There were three harness races during the afternoon which we glimpsed as they passed us. The results of which we obtained from Eugene Thornton of Annetot Farms.

The fast pace went to "Fielder" in 2:11 1/4 he was followed to the wire by "Sketti" and "Little Pete".

The other pace was won by "Princess Direct" while "Ann Aubrey" and "Barney F. J." finished second and third. The trotters were led by "James R." and "Deluxe." Both of the last two races were timed in 2:18.

After the show we were guests of the committee at the Country Club where by cooking ones own steak over an outdoor grill one had supper. Altogether it made one grand and glorious day.

ON THE RACE TRACK

The main topic of conversation as this is written is "Will 'Alsab' run in the Pimlico Special?" A little bird tells me that the "bargain colt" will not. More power to his owner and trainer! We like to think that there are still some owners who are more thoughtful of their horses than of their pocketbooks. "Alsab," a two year old, would have to meet mature horses in this race and altho he would be given the advantage of a lighter load to carry he would be out of his class even tho he might come home the winner.

"Running Lights" was claimed from Miss Nancy Shakespeare recently at Empire City.

Mr. Emory Bonwill shipped his two year old "Happy Jane" to New England and so far has a fourth place to his credit. Mr. Bonwill expects to go to Florida this winter.

COMING AND GOING

A year or two ago we saw Mr. Eugene Thornton and a Mr. Martz sitting on a trunk in front of a stable at the Harrington Fair. The result of their deliberation resulted in "Roan Aubrey" coming to Kent County. Mr. Thornton sent the colt to the races and with some wins to his credit. We now hear that "Roan Aubrey" has changed hands again, this time the new owner is Mr. Emory Hogans of Rock Hall. The purchase price was private.

Sherbets, water ices and ice creams should be frozen until solid for one inch from the edge of the tray, then beaten smooth with a wooden spoon. When frozen in this way one stirring is sufficient, but do not keep from the refrigerator long enough to allow melting. Ice creams with a thick custard base, and parfais and mousses should not be stirred during freezing.

When there is but one maid in a home, several small dishes, such as olives, celery, and sauces, may be passed at one time on a tray. A meal must be served without long pauses and it is better to compromise with the formal code of serving than to go through the agony of seeing the last relative or guest supplied just as the first one finishes.

"Peanut Belt" Is Extensive The "peanut belt" stretches from Virginia to Florida, across to Texas and Oklahoma. It produced 1,300,000,000 pounds in 1938.

A perfect cake should be golden brown and smooth. Stickiness sometimes results from too much sugar. The inside should be light and have small holes distributed evenly throughout. We sometimes describe this quality as "fine grained." The cake should be fluffed, especially if two layers are to be placed together. "Humps" are due to overmeasurements of flour or improper baking or mixing.
