DEAR ROAMER

Probably the first invitations for the New Year were received this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Kellogg-Smith have requested the company of their friends to the marriage of their daughter Joan, to Mr. William Baum, Junior on Saturday afternoon, January 3rd. The ceremony will be performed at Rigs O'Marlow, their home in Quaker Neck, at 3 o'clock.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, formerly of Cynwyd, Pa., who have moved into their newly erected home, Tull House, located on the Country Club Estates. Mr. and Mrs. Tull, who celebrated Thanksgiving this week, had as their first house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tull and their young son, of Cynwyd, Pa., who joined the Thanksgiving holiday, from Wednesday until Friday, with them.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick and family moved, yesterday, into their recently purchased home on Washington Ave. The house was formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Newman, who are residing in Dover, Del. Dr. Dick last week-end attended the annual Home Coming celebration at the Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Va., where he was a former student.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Browne Metcalfe entertained at buffet supper on Tuesday evening prior to the Duplicate Bridge Tournament at the Country Club.

Among the out-of-town guests here last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Omar D. Crothers, of Elkton, who were guests of Mrs. Harry Jefferson at her apartment in the Riverside.

Other holiday and week-end visitors included: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Seigenfuss, of Dumont, N. J., who were guests of Mrs. Edward Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Scott, of Baltimore, who were guests of Mrs. Margaret McIntire; Miss Carrie Schreiber, of Port Deposit, who spent the school holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Schreiber; Miss Stephanie Ford, of Denton, who was a week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. H. Klnefelter; and Mrs. O. G. Panetti and Mrs. Blunkford, of Baltimore, who were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb.

Mrs. Karl Melamet has returned from a visit of several days in Baltimore, where she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell will return today from a week's visit in Chevy Chase, Md., where she was a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. H. Stam.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Springer, of Baltimore, are spending the week-end on a motor trip in Virginia en route to Williamsburg.

Mrs. Allan A. Harris will entertain Monday for Beverly Hills, Cal., where she will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Allan B. Harris, Allan and Louis Harris, at their home there. On her return East, Mrs. Harris will visit in Dallas, Texas, and St. Louis, Mo.

And now as we say farewell to November and greet December, let's read again what Longfellow wrote

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Pictured is Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bonwill as they appeared when the Transcript's photographer visited them Thursday which was their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

so long ago:
"Riding upon the Goat, with snow white hair,
I come, the last of all. This crown of mine
Is of the holly; in my hand I bear
The thyrsus, tipped with fragrant cones of pine,
I celebrate the birth of the Divine,
And the return of the Saturnian reign."
My songs are carols sung at every shrine,
Proclaiming "Peace on earth, good will to men"

What is there left to say, but
So be it?
You're in hope,
