

The Social Wanderer

DEAR ROAMER

How gay the stores with their red and green holiday decorations, and how festive the streets with their colored lights! All agog, shoppers dart hither and yon with that set determined air of gifts to be checked off their lists, and we are now fully aware that the approaching Yuletide is not far off. At home, the fruit cakes are in the process of baking, cookie jars are being filled, Christmas cards ready to be addressed, and between times perhaps a trip or two to the city—for kiddies must see Santa, or some rare gift for Cousin Sue, Uncle John or Aunt Liza needs be purchased there.

Amidst all the fan fare, two of our "young" members of society celebrated their 80th birthday on Wednesday. In the evening, Mrs. Karl Melamet and her brother, Mr. James Bacchus entertained at a surprise party in honor of their father, Mr. J. D. Bacchus and their friend, Mrs. Chas. W. Whaland.

Another party was given this week, when Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Strong entertained at dinner, prior to the bridge tournament at the Country Club, on Tuesday evening.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend entertained at dinner at their home on High St.

Last Saturday night, a surprise house-warming was given Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull by their many friends. Laden with trays and bowls of supper, some 50 or more had supper with the Tulls at Tull House, their new home on Quaker Neck Road.

Invitations have been issued by Doctor and Mrs. Walter Lindsay Niles of New York, to the marriage of their daughter Harriet Lindsay to Mr. Edward Augustus Hurd, Jr., on Saturday, December 20th at 4 o'clock in St. James Church, New York. Mr. Hurd is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Hurd, of "The Reward," in Quaker Neck.

Mrs. Catharine Beck Jones has taken an apartment in the Wickes Apartments for the Winter and Spring season.

Mrs. J. W. Stenger and her young daughter, Henrietta, will spend the week-end in Haddonfield, N. J., where they will be guests of Mrs. Stenger's sister.

Mrs. Dorsey Hines will leave on Monday for New York, where she will visit Miss Alice Stewart until Thursday.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown was a guest of Mrs. Leonard De Merritt in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. James G. Beck has returned from a visit to Baltimore where she was a guest of Miss Sadie Burgess and Miss Margaret Smith.

Mrs. H. S. Brown, Sr., returned last Sunday, with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Childs, to New York, where she will spend the remainder of the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins will spend the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Dandridge at their home in Baltimore.

Mrs. H. G. Simpser is taking a rest cure at Dr. Beck's Sanatorium, in Baltimore, for a period of six weeks.

Mr. Maurice Hecksher, of New York, has moved to Fairlee Manor which he recently purchased and is now making it a part time residence.

Miss Margaret Bell is recuperating from pneumonia at the Kent and Queen Anne's hospital. Her many friends will be glad to hear of her steady and fast improvement.

But Christmas thoughts beset me and it's hard to write or think of aught else.

Yours in the spirit,
The Wanderer

Even when the skin of your hands is shrunken, red and wrinkled from long contact with strong soaps of washing powders, salt will help make it satin smooth again. Simply pour salt into a basin of warm water (2 1/2 teaspoons of salt to every quart of water.) Keep your hands in this healing solution for five minutes. Then note how much smoother they feel. Make this five minutes hand-bath a daily habit and you will never feel ashamed of your hands.

Diced roast pork, combined with celery, pickles and mayonnaise makes an excellent hearty salad. For added piquance, marinate the diced pork in French dressing before combining in the salad.

As a decorative note for a cold meat platter fold round meat slices in half and then in quarters. Fasten slivers of carrot into centers with toothpicks to resemble flowers.

Foreign Auto Ownership
Of all the countries in the world, only two—Ethiopia and Liberia—have as few cars per person as America did in 1900. They have one auto to 12,000 inhabitants.
