Profitless Meanness
There is a meanness that profits not the man who possesses it. That of stubbornly withholding praise where it is deserved. One could understand withholding money.

When in doubt, etiquette is an excellent guide.
Don't ask your friend to do something for you he doesn't want to. Your friendship will cool.

A Success Secret
If you know intimately a successful man, you know one that will not tell you everything. There will yet be a Society for the Encouragement of Courtesy Among Automobileists.

Sometimes a pessimist is a man who backed an optimist.

The discipline of children is now nothing like it was in granddad's day. Today the greatest severity may consist in insisting that they eat spinach.

We're satisfied with any bathtub that has a handle to get out by.

Man hasn't done much with fish, for all his inventiveness. He has eliminated no bones; yet he got the seeds out of oranges.

The Curse of Progress

Suggestion
Jim had spent his vacation with his indulgent uncle and seemed very disconsolate his first evening at home.

"Feeling badly, son?" asked the father.

"I feel so sorry for you, dad. Uncle Jack is so rich. He goes to the picture show every night," was the lad's reply.—Indianapolis News.

The Idea!
Pretty Stenog: "What's the big idea of your working steady 10 hours a day? I wouldn't think of it. You know what the code said."

Equally Pretty Cashier: "I didn't think of it myself. It was the boss who thought of it."—Pathfinder Magazine.

'Triumphal Demonstration'
"The right is always triumphant!" exclaimed the idealist.

"Eventually, perhaps," answered Senator Sorghum. "But it may refuse to be hurried and insist on postponing the big celebration till some subsequent election."

POSTPONING THE DISHES

My Favorite Recipe

By Gloria Swanson
Film Star

Caviar Canape
1 can of caviar
1 egg
1 tablespoonful of lemon juice
1 tablespoonful of onion juice

Bread for toast according to the number to be served.

Spread the caviar on round piece of toast. Then spread on this the yolk of the egg which has been hard-boiled and run through a sieve. Season with the lemon and onion juice, although the latter is a matter of personal taste and should be used at the discretion of the individual. Trim the edges with the grated white of the egg and garnish with small piece of tomato.

Lazy, bored, grumpy

You may feel this way as a result of constipation. Constipation is an enemy of pleasure. It dulls your enjoyment of the best entertainment and the best friends.

To neglect constipation is to invite serious trouble. For your health's sake, take Black-Draught at the first sign of constipation. You'll soon feel better. Here's a laxative that is purely vegetable, prompt, reliable.

The Extremes

There is no worse evil than a bad woman; and nothing has ever been produced better than a good one.—Euripides.

WOMEN WHO ARE WEAK

Mrs. Hattie Zebby of 104 Scott St., Wilmington, Del., said: "At times I suffered from headache and had a pain in my back and thru my sides, all due to my nervous system. I was miserable. I was hardly able to do my housework. Dr. Fiero's Favorite Prescription taken as a tonic certainly made a big improvement in me. The headache and pains disappeared. I had a fine appetite and gained in strength." Buy of your druggist.

"Quotations"

The universities have a greater responsibility now than they have ever had to bear. A large portion of the world is moving without a compass.—Nicholas Murray Butler.

To be sane is to be neither Bolshevik nor Fascist nor Nazi, but to try to preserve the freedom every intelligent man and woman should passionately desire.—Lady Rhoades.

Many years ago I learned that the periods in one's life when one is simply a listener and observer may seem useless, but are in the end very valuable.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

We have only to trust and do our best, and wear as smiling a face as may be for ourselves and others.—R. L. Stevenson.
