YOUR OLD FRIEND AND WELL WISHER

MOSES KAHN

"THERE ARE NO TIMES LIKE THE GOOD OLD TIMES"

THESE long winter nights take "Mose" back to the good old times on the farm—when he baked his shins before a big open fire and took a hot brick with him to bed to keep his feet warm. Yes—and such "eat-in's!" Hominny and hog-scrapple, sausage, chittlings' and scrapple—and johnnycake and buckwheat—and a whole pantry full of sweet things. There was sure good "eat-in's"—eh, boys! And then the corn huskings and the wood chopings and the quilting parties! They all come back very vividly to "Mose"—and he wishes that he were a boy again—and that he could be back on the farm and live his life over with his old friends and be happy.

Some of the cloth in these Suits and Pants "Mose" has carried since 1917, when the market wasn't half as high as it is now. And just as "Mose" bought this cloth just so is he going to sell it—at about half what you would have to pay for it in the regular way at present prices.
