

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

HAMILTON.

On February 27, Mr. George Goncel, beloved husband of Bertha Goncel, departed this life after a brief illness at his home at Parkville. The funeral services were held in St. Dominick's Catholic Church, Hamilton, on Tuesday morning, March 2, at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Manley conducted the requiem high mass, after which the body was laid to rest in the Immaculate Conception Cemetery at Towson.

Mrs. Julia A. Read, beloved wife of the late William H. Read, fell sweetly asleep Sunday evening after an illness of only a few days, at the ripe old age of 83 years. Mrs. Read spent her entire life in Hamilton and vicinity, where she was well known and greatly respected. While seemingly in perfect health, until a few days ago, she has been falling during the last few years and gradually grew weaker until "translated from earth to heaven." The funeral services were held at the home of her only son, James Read, 31 E. Hamilton avenue, Wednesday afternoon and were conducted by the Minister of Hamilton Presbyterian Church, the Rev. L. S. Reichard. Mrs. Read is survived by the following six children, Mr. James P. Read, Mrs. Emma R. Unverzagt, Mrs. John Lutz, Mrs. Charles J. Raspe, Mrs. David Staudenmayer and Mrs. H. Clifton McHenry. The body was laid to rest in the family burying plot on East Hamilton avenue.

Dr. Garry Long, who was reported ill last week, is still very seriously ill, but hope is now entertained for his recovery. Dr. Long has been continuing looking after his patients in the past 20 years without taking a rest, and is completely exhausted, and his recovery is naturally very slow.

Mr. Royal Phelps, 3 Altona avenue, is again able to be about again after several weeks confinement to the house.

Rev. Lemuel S. Reichard, Minister of the Hamilton Presbyterian Church, will celebrate the fourteenth anniversary of his pastorate this coming Lord's Day. Mr. Reichard came to Hamilton Church on the 4th day of March, 1906.

WHITE HALL.

The farmers who have been unable to do much work during the winter months are now growing impatient to get at their spring work, which will be greater than usual on account of their inability to do certain work during the winter.

Mr. M. F. Swift, rural mail carrier on Route 3, and Mrs. Swift are both ill at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wiley entertained the White Hall Aid Society on Thursday evening.

Miss Eva Burns entertained the White Hall Social Club on last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Owen Lytle were confined to their home with illness the past week.

The annual banquet of the White Hall Farmers' Club and Improvement Association was held on Tuesday night, when one hundred persons, including the members and their wives and invited guests enjoyed the finest repast ever provided by the Committee.

After the dining, speech-making was indulged in by County Agent J. Frank Hudson, John P. Wiley, Rev. W. I. Hardin, John May's Little and W. Carroll Hunter. Rev. and Mrs. Harden sang several selections.

Mrs. Grace R. Miller, of Ekko, was a visitor at White Hall this week.

Illness, which has been prevalent for several weeks appears to be decreasing.

Mrs. Mary S. Stratton died at her home at Pailston, Hartford county, last week, and was buried on Monday at Stewartstown. Mrs. Stratton was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jordan. Her father served as County Commissioner and later for several years as School Commissioner of Baltimore county. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Samuel Smith, of Chocoma, Pa., and four brothers, Messrs. S. B. P. and J. P. Jordan, of White Hall, and John L. Jordan, of Wyoming.

WHITE HOUSE.

Mrs. William C. Morfoot spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Jacob Wilhelm, Jr.

Mrs. Lala Martin spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Royson, of Salem.

Mrs. Frank Perego and Miss Pauline Martin were guests Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joshua T. Halle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ames E. Armacost moved last week to the tenant house of Mr. Charles Halle.

Mr. Thomas W. Merryman is very ill at his home here.

Mrs. Joshua T. Halle spent Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bosson.

Mrs. Daniel W. Wheeler is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Roland Suter, of Towson.

Mr. Clifton B. Halle is improving at this time.

Mrs. J. Best Wheeler is confined to her room by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas P. Lloyd spent Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bosson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell Halle are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, its name is Charles Mitchell.

Mr. Jacob Wilhelm, Jr., has purchased from Mr. Wilson Conell, of Mt. Zion, his store and a half property, and will take possession April 1.

FULLERTON.

Mr. Charles Deckert, of the Joppa road, has sold 15 acres of his land to Mrs. John Peter. Mr. Deckert will erect a concrete block house on his property at an early date.

The block house being erected by Mr. J. Plummer on the line of the church property, is nearing completion.

The funeral of Mrs. Alexander Fuller, who died last Thursday at the age of 79 years, of the infirmities of age, took place on Sunday afternoon. Interment being made in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

The Lenten services at St. Joseph's Church are being well attended. A visiting priest delivered two very excellent sermons last Sunday. The Stations of the Cross are said on Fridays at 3 o'clock and Sundays at 7 o'clock.

There is still a great deal of sickness from gripe and flu in this section.

It looks like the machine cement blocks for building purposes is the coming material to replace lumber. There will be three more plants started in this section as soon as the weather settles. Gravel banks are being opened for that purpose. The Carter property on the Silver Spring avenue is being cleared of the woods for development. Houses are springing up like mushrooms.

BECKLEYVILLE.

A number of people from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. Clinton Alban, who was buried at Grave Run Cemetery on Tuesday. She was a sister of our school teacher, Mr. Jacob Hale.

Mrs. Harry Ensor and Mr. William Kelbaugh, who have been suffering with the flu, each had a relapse this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hare spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Hare.

Mr. John Perego was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Perego on Tuesday.

ARMACOST.

Mr. Charles Royston, having sold his farm, moved to the home of his mother, Mrs. William E. Royston.

All the folks of this vicinity, who have been suffering with gripe and flu, are convalescing.

Mr. Eugene Worthington, of Hampstead, has been quite busy hanging paper near White House.

It will not be long before work is started on the Farmers Supply and Implement Company's building at Hampstead. About 40,000 feet of lumber is being sawed for that purpose.

ROCK CHAPEL.

Mrs. Grace Slade, Mrs. Carrie Heisse have returned home from a three months' visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Houseman, of York, Pa., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Bowman.

Mrs. Bell Wainwright, of Floyd, have been confined to the house the past week with sickness.

Mrs. C. L. V. Brown, who has been confined to the house with sickness for the past month, is now able to be out again.

We were very much pleased to hear that "Uncle Jake" has recovered from his recent illness and able to write again.

There is quite a lot of corn still standing in the shock to be husked in our community.

Mr. Arthur Wantland, of York, Pa., was a caller in our town on last Sunday.

Miss Alma Sampson had the misfortune to slip on the ice and break her arm.

OWINGS MILLS.

Bremen A. Trail and Mary Dall were married at Mt. Paran parsonage on Wednesday last.

The Westminster Circle and the Lehighville, twice Juvenile Missionary Bands, gave an entertainment at the home of Mrs. J. B. Manley.

OUR EMPLOYEES ARE YOUR NEIGHBORS

IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND we have 3100 people on our payroll. Together they make up the telephone company, and all of them are your neighbors. They are regular people, just like you, your friends and family.

THESE EMPLOYEES OF OURS spend their wages right at home. They eat food, wear clothes, live in houses, talk, laugh, sing, cry, get peevish—and get over it—and enjoy the movies, just like you. They are good citizens, and we are proud of them.

THESE FOLKS ARE making every effort to give you good telephone service. They comprise the organization whose business it is to see that always there is some one on hand to keep the service going in spite of accident, flood, epidemic, storm—any one of a hundred emergencies.

THEY TAKE PRIDE in their work and in their company. They deserve your co-operation and your support. And they will be greatly encouraged if they know you are willing to pay a necessary slight increase for telephone service.

NOW THAT WE ARE asking that the company be allowed to make a living, we believe it is timely and appropriate to remind you that the more support you give the telephone company the better it can serve you.
