

Local Correspondence

(Continued from Page 2.)

FULLERTON.

Representatives of the Canneries are interviewing the farmers to try and induce them to sow peas broadcast for experimental purposes.

There is a rumor on the road that the surveying of the Harford and between Carney and Gunpowder Falls, is for the purpose of an extension of the railway.

Travel from the city was heavy on Sunday. The people seeking fresh air, to shed all the germs of disease, that had been so prevalent all winter.

Wednesday night the 7.30 o'clock bus of the Co-Operation Club did not show up at Overlea and the members were compelled to use the McMahon Transportation to get to their homes.

The Northrup sale was well attended, about 400 people being present looking for bargains. The ladies were well represented. Some of the latter were so eager and excited they were bidding against themselves.

Mr. Frank Stull, son of the late Rev. Stull, a former pastor of Bethel Presbyterian Church, died at a home in Philadelphia last week, from pneumonia.

Mr. Libbourn H. Nelson, of White Hall, is at the Franklin Square Hospital, where he submitted to an operation on Monday.

Mrs. Stanley M. Slade, who is a patient at a Baltimore hospital, where she underwent a slight operation.

Howard Wiley, who has been a patient at the Church Home and Infirmary Hospital, Baltimore, taking treatment for an injured foot, which he received while in France, is very much improved and expects to soon leave the hospital.

Mrs. Clarence M. Hoshall and her daughter, Miss Mildred, both of whom have been ill, are much improved.

Mr. Thomas L. Parrish, who is retiring from farming, held a public auction of personal property on Monday.

Mr. B. Howard Garrett will move to the farm of Mr. Frank Hoen, at Corbett. The heavy truck traffic is very seriously damaging the State and macadam roads.

The family of Mr. D. Owen Lytle, who has been very ill, are very much improved.

A telegram announcing the illness of his brother, Mr. Edwin C. Hunter, at Greensboro, N. C., was received by Mr. W. Carroll Hunter, who left at once for the South.

Mrs. Laura Ward, widow of the late William J. Ward, died at her home near Black Horse, on Tuesday, after a lingering illness. Her funeral was held on Friday at McKendree M. E. Church and burial was in the Church Cemetery.

Besides her daughter, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Thomas J. Ayres and Miss Elizabeth Carlin.

RAYVILLE.

Mrs. Bernice A. Armacost, wife of Mr. Harvey Armacost, of Hereford, was buried last Friday afternoon at Pine Grove U. B. Church. The funeral was held at the home of her father-in-law, and was conducted by Rev. J. H. Lehman. Besides her husband and several small children, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stifer, four sisters and one brother, who have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in their sad bereavement.

The inclement weather last Sunday prevented many people from attending church services. However, this did not daunt our pastor, who as usual, delivered an interesting sermon. The communion service was postponed until a more convenient time.

WOODLAWN.

Mrs. Edward Hahn and daughter, Miss Mildred Hahn, will leave very shortly for Portland, Ore., where they will spend three months.

Mr. John Frizell will have charge of the Epworth League service at Emmart's Church on Sunday, March 21. Decision Day will be observed on Sunday afternoon, March 21. We are expecting to have special music and singing.

Easter services will be held on Easter Sunday, April 4. A good entertainment is in store for you, so arrange to come in the evening, at 8 o'clock, at Emmart's Church.

While playing a game of craps on Sunday afternoon, quite a number of the players were placed under arrest. They were arraigned before the Justice of the Peace and after paying their fines were released. Some few took to their heels and the officer is still on the hunt.

JARRETTSVILLE.

Mr. Edwin B. Jarrett, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jarrett.

Mr. Martin Amoss and family have moved from Baltimore to the Charles Amoss property.

Mrs. Helen Cathcart and son, Charles, are visiting Mrs. Frank Cathcart, of Fawn Grove, Pa.

Quite a number of the young folks of the town attended "Ben Hur" played in Baltimore last week.

Miss Mary E. Spencer is suffering from acute Bright's disease, following an attack of flu.

Quite a number of folks here have heard from Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gross, who are at Saranac Lake, and are glad to learn they are well pleased with the place and surroundings.

GLYNDON.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Towell have returned from New York. While there they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Addison J. Beane.

Miss Lillie Pierce has been quite ill with scarlet fever.

Miss Ve Nina Ellne has returned after spending several weeks in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Frank Campbell was a recent guest of Mrs. Frank Orrick, of Baltimore.

The Glyndon Farmers' Grange met in Red Men's Hall on Friday evening.

SUNNYBROOK.

Miss Irene Meisner spent Sunday with relatives in Harford county.

Miss Ethel Brown, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Enos Brown.

RASPEBURG.

Mr. Charles J. McCormick and Mr. Henry Kadecke spent the week-end in Philadelphia.

On Sunday morning next Rev. John T. Ensor will conduct the services at Gatch M. E. Church at 11 o'clock, at which time the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

The ladies of Gatch M. E. Church will serve a chicken and waffle supper on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 24 and 25, in the Sunday school room. As the ladies of this church have a wide reputation for good home cooking, it is useless to say that this supper will be a success.

Owing to the frost coming from the ground, the roads are in a dreadful condition, and mud is plentiful. One can see many trucks and large machines imbedded on the by-roads. Many a car is being towed these days.

MANOR GLEN.

Mr. John A. Reuter has purchased a new Ford automobile.

Mr. Lewis Hannibal and his sons, Theodore and Arthur, are ill with the influenza.

Mr. Lewis Zinkhan has bought an automobile truck.

Continued rain and bad weather make the roads well nigh impassable at some points.

BORING.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bossom and son Albert, spent the week-end with

GRAVE RUN.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Carr, of Manchester, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr.

Mrs. George Martin and daughter, Nellie, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr.

Mr. Basil Gardner, of Baltimore, and a former resident of Beckleysville, was laid to rest in the Lutheran Cemetery at the latter place on Saturday morning. The deceased had been in ill health for a few years past. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and one son. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

Mr. William Miller spent Sunday with Mr. George Alban.

Miss Ada Zeigman spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kemp.

Miss Ada Zeigman spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kemp.

Misses Florence Miller, Mary Carr and Ada Zeigman, and Messrs Leslie Armacost and Charles Martin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Streig on Sunday.

Miss Mabel Stifer has returned to Foreston, after spending the week-end with Miss Mary Carr.

GRAVE RUN.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Carr, of Manchester, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr.

Mrs. George Martin and daughter, Nellie, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr.

Mr. Basil Gardner, of Baltimore, and a former resident of Beckleysville, was laid to rest in the Lutheran Cemetery at the latter place on Saturday morning. The deceased had been in ill health for a few years past. He is survived by his wife, three daughters and one son. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

Mr. William Miller spent Sunday with Mr. George Alban.

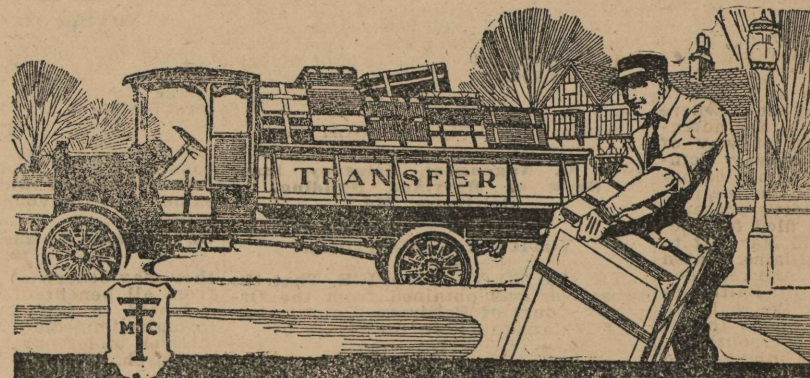

Miss Ada Zeigman spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kemp.

Miss Ada Zeigman spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kemp.

Misses Florence Miller, Mary Carr and Ada Zeigman, and Messrs Leslie Armacost and Charles Martin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Streig on Sunday.

Miss Mabel Stifer has returned to Foreston, after spending the week-end with Miss Mary Carr.

Advertisement for Blue Ribbon Brand Hams Bacon Lard. Features an illustration of a man and a woman in period clothing. Text includes 'The Sign of Quality' and 'Blue Ribbon Brand Hams Bacon Lard'.

$1395 Traffic Truck. Capacity 4,000 lbs. Chassis J. O. B. St. Louis.

Get your live stock to market in good condition. There's no loss in weight from shrinkage when it's hauled in a Traffic, which will deliver it in one-third the time it takes with teams and at half the cost.

Seaboard Sales and Service Company 1109-13 Cathedral St., Baltimore, Md.

Traffic Motor Truck Corporation, St. Louis, Mo., largest exclusive builders of 4,000-lb. capacity trucks in the world.

Advertisement for Aztec Asphalt. Text includes 'AZTEC ASPHALT', 'For Paving Streets, Roads, Private Estates', and 'AZTEC LIQUID ASPHALT'. Features a logo of a face.

Advertisement for The Paul Company. Text includes 'THE PAUL COMPANY', '510 - PENNA. AVE. BALTIMORE', and 'MANUFACTURING STATIONERS - LITHOGRAPHERS - PRINTERS - BANK SUPPLIES - A SPECIALTY'.

Advertisement for Red Seal beverage. Text includes 'Red Seal', 'IT HAS THE SNAP', and 'Red Seal is Not a "sweet drink" - it's a Food Drink.' Features an illustration of a Red Seal bottle.

Advertisement for Citizens Savings Bank of Baltimore City. Text includes 'CITIZENS SAVINGS BANK OF BALTIMORE CITY' and 'Southwest Cor. Baltimore and Eutaw Sts. BALTIMORE, MD'.

Large advertisement for Spring Garden Hog Feed. Text includes 'RAISE MORE HOGS AT LESS COST BY USING THE SPRING GARDEN BRAND HOG FEED'. Features an illustration of a pig.

Large advertisement for Seitz Auto Co. featuring a detailed illustration of a Seitz Truck. Text includes 'Seitz TRUCK', 'SEITZ AUTO CO.', and '4-6-8 E. North Ave. Mt. Vernon 3950'. Lists benefits like 'ECONOMY', 'RELIABILITY', and 'PERFECT DESIGN'.