TOWSON AT A GLANCE

There will be an egg hunt on Trinity Chapel grounds on Easter Monday afternoon at half-past three o'clock. Candy, cake and ice-cream will be for sale.

—Harry T. Campbell & Son, contractors, who recently sold their building at Pennsylvania and Dealware Avenues, have leased offices in the Piper Building here.

—Mr. W. G. Brogan, President of the American Press Association of New York, spent Sunday with his son here, Mr. Graham W. Brogan, who resides on East Joppa Road.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kinkaid and little daughter, of Brunswick, N. J., are spending the Easter holidays with Mrs. Kinkaid's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. David Clarke.

—Mr. Alfred Schmidt, who was recently appointed a member of the Towson Fire Engine Company, moved with his family into the apartment over the A. and P. Tea Store here.

—By her will, probated in the Orphans' Court here on Wednesday, Mrs. Augusta L. Conroy leaves her property to her daughter, Miss Lilla A. Conroy, and names her executrix.

—The Keeper of the Court House and the laborers under him are "kicking" for more money. They like every one else have been "bumped" hard by the high cost of living.

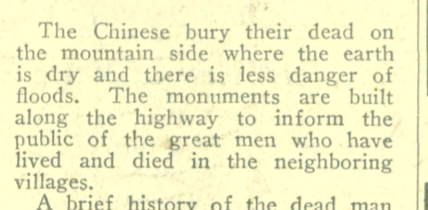

—Special Services will be conducted on Easter Sunday at the County Jail here, under the auspices of Mrs. James E. Green, Mr. William K. Burns and Mr. Philip Meyers will sing.

—In the Circuit Court here on Tuesday, Joseph McKenzie was found not guilty by a jury, he having been charged with a serious crime. He was represented by Attorney Wm. P. Cole, Jr.

—Mr. Paul Cassen and Mr. Walter Cole are spending Easter with their parents here. Mr. Cassen is a student at St. John's College, while Mr. Cole is a student at the Maryland State College.

—Mr. Frank Sames and family moved on Wednesday to Roesburg from their home that was formerly owned by Dr. Jackson Piper. About six months ago Mr. Sames sold the property to Dr. John S. Green, Jr.

It's the High Cost of Dying in China

A Typical Chinese Monument

The Chinese bury their dead on the mountain side where the earth is dry and there is less danger of floods. The monuments are built along the highway to inform the public of the great men who have lived and died in the neighboring villages.

A brief history of the dead man serves as an epitaph, and a tortoise or dragon, carved into the stone, symbolizes eternal life.

Death is an expensive proposition for the Chinaman. Only the leaders of community life are honored by monuments along the highway. But by the time even the average citizen's funeral expenses are paid—with numerous pallbearers and feasts for the mourners—well, it's cheaper to live.

There is an average of one doctor

—The Towson Fire Engine Company responded to an alarm of fire at the Elkridge Hunt Club, Charles Street Avenue, on Tuesday last. Sage grass which caught fire from a spark from the engine on a nearby railroad, for a time threatened the kennels.

—A sage grass fire threatened for a time on Sunday last to damage St. Vincent's Male Orphan Asylum on the York Road, South of Towson. The Fire Engine Company responded quickly and got the blaze under control before it reached near the building.

—Baltimore county's new road law passed at the present session of the legislature will be effective April 1st, at which time the 15 present Road Supervisors will be no more. Under the new measure the county will be divided into 6 road districts and each will be under a Road Foreman, instead of a supervisor.

—We are glad to note that the United Railways and Electric Company, took a tip from the article which appeared in the last issue of The Jeffersonian, concerning the grease nuisance at the car waiting point in front of the Court House and began on Saturday night last sending a truck out with sand to spread over the filthy fluid.

—Owing to the appointment of Mr. T. Scott Offutt as Chief Judge of the Third Judicial Circuit by Governor Ritchie recently, the County Commissioners will in the very near future have to name a counsel to the board. Elmer R. Hall's name as well as as that of Mr. Edward H. Burke is being mentioned for the place.

—The champion ice cream eater wended his way in the confectionery store of James George here, one night this week and devoured half a gallon of "frozen milk" in four minutes. After smacking his lips and cocking his hat on the side of his head he departed. Naturally a man with such a stomach created curiosity as to who he was, but there was nothing doing. He carried off the ice cream with his name.

—The Atlantic & Pacific Tea Store here was the scene of a scuffle on Thursday last, when Edward Henderson, a helper there attacked Frank McDonald, the head of the store, cutting his nose severely with a knife. Henderson was placed under arrest by Patrolman German, and "landed" in jail. At his hearing before Justice Hopkins he was fined $5.00 and costs, which was paid by McDonald.

—Mr. John Tyler, of the Jerry McAuley Mission in New York City will speak in Towson Methodist Episcopal Church at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon. The public is urged to hear this man who has had a wonderful experience. He comes highly recommended, having spoken in many of the leading churches in various sections of the country. He has also worked with Rev. William A. Sunday, and has had marked success in evangelistic work. The general public in a community such as ours does not often have the opportunity to hear such a man. Do not miss it this time. Men and women alike are invited.

—Our genial friend, Mr. H. C. Jenifer, had a thrilling experience on Sunday last when he came home and found little "Herky" perched way up in the top of a tree on the ground of the Jenifer residence here. How little "Herky" managed to climb to almost the tip-top of the tree is rather a mystery, but those who saw the "performance" say that it was trying ordeal for relatives who pleaded with the youngster to stay where he was until his father could climb up and bring him down. As yet no official photographs of the boy's venture or the father's daring rescue have been handed out.

—Miss Christine J. Yingling, National W. C. T. U. organizer and lecturer, who is so favorably known to the members of Towson Union, having delivered addresses in the M. E. Church and at the State Normal School here, sailed March 11 from San Francisco with Miss Frances Willard Wang, the Chinese young woman who has just finished her course at the Northwestern University, on their way to China. They expect to stop in Japan for a month and from there will go direct to China, where Miss Yingling is under appointment as scientific temperance lecturer in schools and colleges.

—Mrs. Augusta L. Conroy, wife of the late John F. Conroy and daughter of the late Joseph and Ann Litsinger, died Friday night, March 26, at 8:30 o'clock, at her home, Baltimore and Allegheny avenues, of a complication of diseases. She had spent a life of usefulness in Towson, and in early life had connected herself with the M. P. Church, in which she was an untiring and earnest worker. She is survived by two daughters, Miss Lilla A. Conroy and Mrs. Martin J. O'Hara, and one son, Dr. Albert F. Conroy; also three sisters, Misses Miranda and Emma Litsinger, and Mrs. William M. Arnall, one brother, Rev. William D. Litsinger, a retired minister of the M. P. Church, of Evergreen, Roland Park. Her funeral took place Monday morning at 11 o'clock at her late home, Rev. S. F. Cassen, pastor of Towson M. P. Church, officiating. Burial was in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Towson.

THE SHADY SORT.

"If you hire the right kind of lawyer you can get out of this scrape."

"But how am I to know who is the right kind of lawyer?"

"Pick out one who has a shabby office, although he could easily afford the best."

"What's the idea?"

"A lawyer of that kind is apt to be very successful in handling the affairs of clients who get fussed when they see mahogany furniture, thick carpets and elegant chandeliers."

HAW-HAW!

"It says here that if you want to develop anything you should exercise it regularly," said the Old Fogey, as he looked up from the newspaper he was reading.

"Tuck out one who has a woman's jaw would be as big as her chest."

DO YOU WANT SEED?

Then Address Congressman Benson At Washington, "First Come First Served."

Those people of Baltimore county desiring vegetable or flower seed, can secure same as long as the supply allotted lasts, by addressing Congressman Carville D. Benson, Room 115, House office Building, Washington, D. C. It will be a case of "the early bird catching the worm" for each Congressman has only a limited portion at his disposal.

MAY COME SOON.

"Is there an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forbidding a man to kiss his wife or anybody else's wife?" asked the man who had just returned from a two-years' cruise in the South Seas.

"Not yet," replied the cynical citizen.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME.

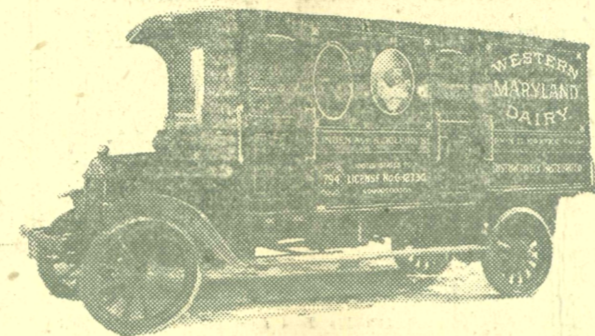

Little Jimmy went with his mother to visit an aunt in the country, and his mother was very worried as to how he would behave.

But to her surprise he was angelic during the whole visit—always did as he was told and never misbehaved.

As soon as she got home, however, he was his natural self again.

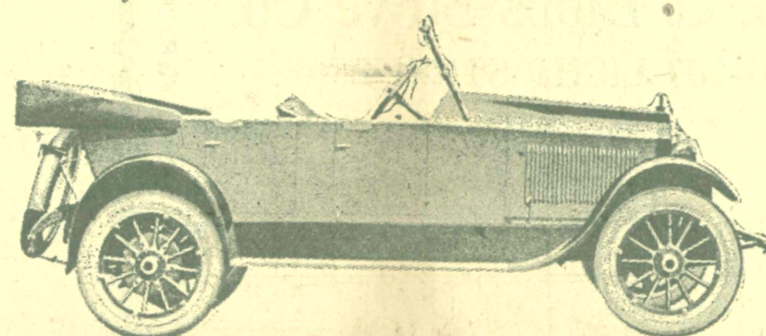

"Oh, Jimmy," she said, "you were so good while you were away. Why do you start behaving badly now?"

"What's home for?" asked Jimmy, in pained surprise.

A WORLD REBUILT

By the Golden Rule not by the rule of Gold

THIRTY denominations of the Church are uniting in a simultaneous campaign in the week of April 25th-May 2nd.

They are uniting because the task before the Church is too great for any one denomination; because there must be no duplication of effort; no waste.

These churches know that the world needs many things; but it needs Faith most of all.

They know that there can be no final solution of our economic problems that is not a spiritual solution, based on the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Golden Rule.

They have had the courage to survey the whole task, and to ask for a budget large enough to sustain (1) the work abroad, (2) the work at home including the church's part in the huge task of Americanization, (3) the colleges and (4) hospitals supported by the Churches, (5) the religious training of the young, and to provide (6) a living wage for the Church's ministers.

The budget is large in the aggregate, yet if each per-
