RED COMB CHICK MASH PREVENTS DIARRHOEA

Why take chances in raising chicks? Be safe from the very start. Adopt safe methods and feel secure. That is a wise business policy. Wise men learn from the mistakes of others and make as few themselves as seems to be necessary during the experimental or uncertain period. It is not necessary for you to suffer unnecessary losses. Red Comb Chick Mash is Built for the Chick. It is not a simple mixture of ground grains. It is scientifically compounded to meet three requirements. First, to grow chicks rapidly at the rate of 1 lb. a month; second, to protect the chicks from disease germs which produce white Diarrhoea; third, to insure the health of your chicks throughout their growth and ultimately the delivery of a finished product, in numbers very closely approximating, if not exactly the same number as at the start. Red Comb Chick Mash is a Good Insurance Policy for Your Chicks.
