

Remember when the first automobile came to town

TODAY there are more than 7,000,000 of them in the country. Pretty soon nearly everybody in this section will be traveling around in his own automobile.

The first thing a man wants to know nowadays, when he starts out to buy a car, is how much it is going to cost him to keep it running.

It's all very well to take some dealer's word about a tire—if you know who he is and his object in selling it to you.

Our object in selling U. S. Tires is to have you come back for more—and be glad that we sold them to you.

U. S. Tires have a record behind them.

They are built by the people who perfected the first straight side automobile tire, who produced the first pneumatic truck tire.

Two of the greatest contributions to tire and motor economy ever made.

As representatives of the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world, we have a reputation to live up to. We can't afford to substitute "just as good" tires for tires of standard quality.

EX PARTE IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF TERESA GOLDSBOROUGH WALKER, TO CHANGE THE NAMES OF HER INFANT CHILDREN, MARIE LOUISE HUGHES AND JAMES G. HUGHES.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

The object of the petition in the above is to change the name of Marie Louise Hughes to that of Marie Louise Walker, and the name of James G. Hughes to that of Hamilton Caughy Walker.

The petitioner states that the petitioner resides in Baltimore County; that she has the guardianship and custody of her children; that the children whose name she desires to have changed are infants, and that the reason for changing the names of the said children is on account of the conduct of their father to her, for which conduct she has been divorced a vinculo matrimonii from him, and that she makes this application with the consent of her present husband.

It is, thereupon, this 8th day of April, by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, ordered that the petitioner cause a copy of this order, with the object and substance of the petition to be inserted in some newspaper published in Baltimore County once a week for three successive weeks before the 3rd day of May, 1920, giving notice to whom it may concern to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor On or before the 3rd day of May, 1920, to show cause, if there be any, why a decree shall not be passed as prayed. GO TO THE POLLS
Monday, May 3, 1920, And Vote For

SAMUEL C. APPLEBY

X

"The Enemy of Volsteadism"
Democratic "WET" Candidate FOR CONGRESS.

A VOTE FOR

APPLEBY

IS A VOTE

AGAINST VOLSTEADISM

And Those Who Voted To Bring This Law Upon Us.

READ THIS

I am, and ever shall be a bitter enemy of Volsteadism and all that term implies. I am and ever shall be a political opponent of any man who ever voted in Congress for the rotten Volstead bill. I am in double political enmity with anybody who ever votes on behalf of the bill and I want to say, with General Grant, that I propose to fight it out on that line if it takes all summer.

My simple platform then is Anti-Volsteadism, but that involves much. It involves a defense of the good old United States Constitution. It means a defense of the common people against an entangling alliance of church and state. It means a reassertion of the principle upon which this grand country was founded—the inherent, inalienable, imprescriptible rights of the individual citizen. It demands that every man and woman shall have the broadest field of liberty, bounded only by the liberty of his or her fellow creatures. It involves home rule for the States and a protest against the centralization of government in Washington and it is opposed to giving the Federal Government the police powers that belong to the State.

I must, therefore, oppose every bill or law that would assume to tell you or me what we may eat or drink. I must oppose every vicious act that declares our wives and mothers criminals because they prepare their household wines and cordials. I must oppose every enactment that compels our farmers to get a Government permit before they let the good Lord turn their cider into vinegar. I must oppose any code which takes away from my fellow citizens the right of trial by jury as guaranteed by our sacred Bill of Rights.

All these things and whatever is in consonance with them will I abide by. Whether the Volstead Code is to be torn apart shred by shred and we are to reap liberty by the beer and light wine route, or whether a new and patriotic Congress will wipe it from the books at one blow is a question for the future; but whatever tends to the restoration of our rights would have my fullest sympathy and my constant and unchanging support and vote if I should be elected. These are times, my friends, when you must be sure of your man.

FRIENDS, BEWARE!

Warnings come that an eleven-hour assault will be made upon me and my candidacy when it would be too late for me to defend myself. The attack may come in the form of a false statement that I have withdrawn from the fight. It will be a lie. I shall stick to the end, and be elected.

There may be some false charge against my character, my mode of thought, or what not. Be prepared! Be steered against all such tricks. I may be called a radical, a reactionary, an auto jack or a wife beater. I am none of these. This is what I am: A plain citizen, a respected newspaper writer, a defender of the Constitution and a bitter enemy of Volsteadism.

SAMUEL C. APPLEBY.

MR. BENSON: Would you fire the Farmer's hay rick to convince him that insurance was a good thing for his house?

Unquestionably you would answer, no; but—

In a speech on Thursday evening, April 22, delivered before the Fifteenth Ward Democratic Club of Baltimore City, you declared that you voted for the Volstead Bill, knowing it would take away from the farmer and his wife the right to make innocent cider and wines out of the fruits grown on the farms. You further declared you so voted in order to take away from the "country people" the right to make cider and wines in the future that they would become discontented with prohibition and in the future align themselves with the friends of Freedom. This may be one way to achieve a result, but—

Would you fire the Farmer's hay rick to convince him that insurance was a good thing for his house?

I hereby declare upon oath, that I heard Mr. Carville D. Benson make the above statement at the time and place as quoted.

(Signed) WILLIAM SEIDEL.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23d day of April, 1920.

Cockeysville Station, on the Northern Central Railway, is located almost within a stone's throw from the house, and the York road (now an improved State highway) passes through Cockeysville, within about a square from the property. Schools, churches, stores, etc., are also nearby. An inspection of the premises is invited before the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash upon final ratification, one-third in six months and the balance in twelve months, or all cash at the purchaser's option, the deferred payments, if any, to bear interest at five per cent. and to be secured to the satisfaction of the undersigned Assignee.
