ORDER OF PUBLICATION

WILLIAM CONSTANTINE AND MARY E. CONSTANTINE, HIS WIFE, vs.

MARY E. NEEL, SARAH NEEL, MARY BLOME AND HENRY BLOME, HER HUSBAND, AND SUCH UNKNOWN HEIRS AS THE HEIR OF MARTHA J. GORE, WHO IF LIVING, WOULD BE A PROP-ER PARTY, OR THEIR EXECUTORS OR ADMINISTRATORS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

The object of this bill is to obtain a sale of the hereinafter described real estate.

The bill recites that Hugh Neel died intestate seized of a tract of real estate in Baltimore County, Md., leaving surviving him as heirs at law, three sons, Joseph Neel, Samuel Neel, John Neel, and two daughters, Martha J. Gore and Rebecca S. Neel; that John Neel died leaving a widow, Mary E. Neel; that Samuel Neel died, leaving a widow, Sarah Neel, and one daughter, Mary Blome, who intermarried Henry Blome; that Rebecca S. Neel died intestate, leaving as her heirs at law her brothers and sisters, Joseph Neel, John Neel, Martha J. Gore and Samuel Neel; that Martha J. Gore died, leaving heirs unknown to your orators; that no letters of administration have been taken out on the estate of Samuel Neel and Martha J. Gore in this county; that by deed dated January 31st, 1920, Joseph Neel conveyed his interest in said property to William Constantine; that the parties plaintiff and defendants are the owners as tenants in common of said real estate, and that it cannot be divided without loss or injury to the parties interested; that Martha J. Gore, if living, would be a proper party to this suit, and that her heirs are unknown; that Sarah Neel and Mary Blome and Henry Blome and the unknown heirs of Martha J. Gore are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

In the prayers for relief the bill asks for sale of said property, so that the proceeds may be divided among the proper parties according to their respective interest, and that they may have such other and further relief as their case may require.

It is thereupon this 19th day of April, 1920, ordered by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some paper published in Baltimore County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks on or before the 24th day of May, 1920, giving notice to the said absent defendants, Sarah Neel, Mary Blome, Henry Blome, her husband, and the unknown heirs, executors and administrators of Martha J. Gore, deceased, of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to be and appear in this Court in person or by Attorney on or before the 10th day of June, 1920, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not be passed as prayed.
