Large financing seems to be in the air at present. All sorts of schemes are being proposed to take the money of the unwary.

GUARD

your Liberty Bonds. Because they are very much reduced in value, do not on that account sell them. They are a Government security and if the Government is not good for them, no other security here is of much value.

Every little while we are approached by persons desiring to dispose of their bonds, and our unfailing advice is to keep them; that the present is the worst time to sell them.

YOUR SAVINGS HERE

are earning you four per cent, and you are sure also of your principal whereas in some wildcat investment you are sure of neither.

MOSES KAHN OF OLD TOWN

"The Good Maker of Kahn's Good Klothes."

COR. GAY and EAST STREETS

Just One Short Block South of Belair Market

"MOSE" HAS GOT 'EM ALL BEAT TO A "FRAZZLE"

THE "Big Fellows"—the silk-stockinged aristocrats of the clothing business—affect to be "moved" by the "Quaker Spirit," and announce a reduction of 20% on their prices. It's about time that these poor sinners had a change of heart. Their announcements sound very well and, indeed, they read very well, but do they mean anything? If they really are converted and want to do the right thing, "Mose" gives them right-hand of Christian fellowship. But it seems to "Mose" that if it's the right kind of "spirit" that is "moving" them they ought to "lop off" another 20%, and still another, to get down to fair and reasonable prices.

WITH all the reductions that are going on, "Mose's" prices are still 20 to 40 per cent. under others, and he backs them up the best clothing that can be made and a guarantee that they shall be as represented—or your money back. And "Mose" goes further and gives the most liberal prices ever offered by any clothing house in the city.

A Man Who Works For The Best Interests Of The Masses

"Charity Covereth a Multitude of Sins"

BUT if some of these high-priced clothiers are really penitent and want their old sins of extortion washed out, they'll have to come better than 20 per cent, and then "Mose's" doubts if they'll be washed clean.

By buying his cloth by the bolt from the best woolen mills in the country and making his garments up right here on his own premises, "Mose" has a big advantage over other clothing houses that buy their goods, and that's the reason he undersells
them.

Take the suits and trousers that "Mose" advertises today, and he'll give you the best in his stock if you can match them in any other store, big or little, in the city for less than a third to a half more money.

MOSES KAHN

"Proof of the Pudding
Is In the Eating"

YOU can't eat clothes, of course, but you can prove them by wearing them, and there is no better way to prove values than by comparison.
"Kahn's Good Klothes" have stood the test for nearly 30 years.
"Mose" was "moved" by the right spirit when he went into the clothing business, this long time ago, and he's put the best of himself—his best years, his talents, his energy, his honesty and integrity—into his work—woven them into every garment that he's made—and he's proud and happy in the thought that he's able to stand up and testify that his labors have been awarded.

Over a half million of satisfied customers can testify to "Kahn's Good Klothes."
And these same good clothes—same quality—honest materials and honest workmanship—"Mose" gives you today—the same as he always did—at the lowest prices.
