TOWSON AT A GLANCE

—Mr. C. B. Graham, who has been residing on W. Chesapeake avenue, will move into the house on the S. W. corner of Alleghany and Baltimore

-Mr. R. Calvert Steuart has been pointed inspector of weights and easures for the 9th district to fill the acancy made by the death of the late lisha W. Parks.

—The new charter, created by a Charter Board and recently filed with the county Commissioners, and which will be passed on by the voters this fall, is ublished as an advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

—Work is progressing rapidly on the excavation on the property recently acuired by Mr. W. H. Phipps; corner of York Road and Chesapeake avenue, upon which will be erected a modern store.

—That Mr. Elmer R. Haile's "flivvers" are an "easy mark" for auto jacks, there seems no doubt, for Elmer had his little Ford coupe confiscated on Wednesday while he was in the Rennert Hotel, Baltimore.

—Mr. Vernon Price has taken a position at Sparrows Point.

—The Supervisors of Elections met on last Tuesday to pay all bills pertaining to the recent Primary Election. The entire expense was about $2000 less than was anticipated.

—A minstrel show and movies, "Throbs and Thrils," will be given under the auspices of the Black & Decker Mfg. Co. at the Columbia Movie Theatre here on Wednesday evening next, commencing at 8.15 o'clock. Admission will be 25 cents.

—The minstrel show "staged" by the Black & Decker organization and the dance given at the High School here last night was largely attende and a neat sum realized. The affair was gotten up to secure funds to pay the advance incidental expenses of Chautau-oua.

—Mr. Francis A. Smith, at one time "devil" at The Jeffersonian office, took a long leap on last Saturday night, when he became the husband of Miss Erma Swain, of Baltimore. In these times of the H. C. L., Francis had a great deal of grit to promise the preacher all that he did.

—The funeral of Mr Lewis S. Cole, brother of Clerk of the Court Wm. P. Cole, who was Assistant Superintendent of the House of Correction at Jessop, and who died on Sunday last of heart trouble, took place in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Towson, on Tuesday afternoon, services being conducted first at his late home at Jessop, Md.

The new building being erected at the foot of Washington avenue, by the Baltimore City Printing and Binding Co., is nearing completion. It was expected that the concern could move its equipment from Baltimore by May 1, but weather conditions prevented the completion. It is understood an effort will be made to have the building ready by June 1st.
