—Wedding bells will ring out on W. Pennsylvania avenue in the early fall.

—Miss May Gray, of Philadelphia, spent Decoration Day with her parents here.

—Miss Susie Bayne, of Washington, spent a few days with her mother here.

—Only a small attendance was noted at the Taxpayer's League meeting held Tuesday.

—Mr. John Van Horn, of Alexandria, Va., spent the past week-end with his parents here.

—Mr. James E. Dunphy, of the Union-News staff, has been confined to his home with illness.

—Mr. Geo. Dawson, clerk in the Court Drug Store, is confined to his home in Baltimore with illness.

—While driving the automobile of her father, Miss Mildred Schuler on Tuesday became excited and crashed into a tree, which resulted in the breaking a bone in the middle of her right hand.

—Mr. J. Isaac Holbrook, of Harrisonville, qualified this week as Appraiser of the Orphan's Court here.

—Mr. Sam P. Cassen and others left for Detroit early this week, from which place they will drive motor cars back.

—Miss Muriel Grunwald, of Govans, is substituting at the Towson National Bank in the place of Miss Mildred Schuler.

—Mrs. Earle, who spent some time as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hudson, left for her home in Ohio on Thursday.

—Mr. Youst, who purchased the house at the northeast corner of Pennsylvania and Bosley avenues, moved into same this week.

—The children of the Parochial School of the Church of the Immaculate here, held the annual May procession on Sunday last.

—Mrs. Wm. E. Treadwell, formerly Miss Nellie Schuler, will arrive in Towson on Tuesday to spend a month with her parents here.

—The Farmer's Federation of Baltimore County held a meeting in the Court House on Tuesday, at which a constitution was adopted.

—On the property of Mr. John E. Hurst at Woodbrook, on Sunday last, a fence fire was extinguished by the Towson Fire Engine Company.

—Mr. William and Calvin Van Horn have "shipped" for Jamaica, having assumed new duties with the Merchant's and Miners' Transportation Co.

—A banquet and dance will be given by the Alumni Association of the Towson High School to the graduating class on the evening of June 24th.

—County Commissioner Wm. F. Coghlan, who missed a meeting or two of the Board last week, due to sickness, was back on the job this week.

—Announcement has been made that a professional pianist has been engaged to "tickle the ivories" on the piano at the Columbia Movie Theatre here.

—Dame Rumor has it that J. P. Pagle, who for some time has been the station agent at Towson for the Md. & Pa. R. R. Co., has mysteriously disappeared.

Twenty-four students graduated at Notre Dame College, at which time Rev. Philip H. Sheridan, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate here, delivered an address.

—As has been his custom for a few years past, Mr. Wm. M. Arnall, of The "Jeff" staff, is spending his vacation at the "great lakes," Druid Hill, Patterson and Montebello.

—At Elk's Hall here on Wednesday afternoon a meeting of the Children's Aid Society of Baltimore County was held. Reports of the work since last October were made.
