All eyes will now be focussed on the "golden gate" town in the West.

The tremendous expense of lowering prices will have to be paid by some-

Where was Wood, Lowden and Hoover in Chicago "when the light went out?"

The only hope for wetness is to find out the "thirst" of congressional candidates.

Despite the recent decision of the Supreme Court, dandelions will be the favorite flower.

Not until we get rid of the high cost of the present Republican Congress can we solve the high cost of living.

Those women's stockings that a New York department store advertised for 35 cents a pair ought to be darned good.

Speaking of political dark horses, the trouble with them is that they are so dark the convention delegates can't see them.

In the coming Presidential and Congressional election the "league of barrels" will outshine the "League of Nations" as an issue.

Europe is very grateful to America since the war. This fact has been made plain by American tourists who have been "gouged" abroad.

The high cost of living does not seem to decrease the number of signs on rural roads, "Summer Boarders Taken."

If Towson had one or two more clean, wholesome industries like the Black & Decker Mfg. Co. we wouldn't be a bit jealous of New York.

A girl in Nebraska has received nation-wide fame by designing, making and wearing a dress which cost her $2.10. She may be a wonder, but she'll never be stylish.

Harding and Coolidge, the Republican nominees for President and Vice-President will find after the San Francisco convention that they will have opponents who can outdistance them.

The Telephone Company is asking for an increase in rates. If it will give us better service, we say give it to them; if it will not then give them (censored).

The large number of candidates for the Presidency brings to mind the saying of many a mother, that her youngster might some day be the President of the United States.

A visitor at a Pennsylvania Penitentiary lost his pocketbook, which was returned by a prisoner. Lucky he didn't lose it at a convention of the profiteers.

Albert A. Blakeney, the Republican candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District, is as artful in dodging issues as is Villa in dodging capture in Mexico.

It may not be out of order to inquire if Republican leaders in Congress calculate that pruning appropriations to stimulate agriculture, thereby curtailing production, will tend to reduce the cost of living?

Baltimore county boys fought and died to end monarchies in Europe. Are our people going to allow a "one man government" such as the new charter prescribes, to be established here?

Baltimore county is now without one cent of bonded indebtedness. Are its people going to stand for a change in government, which will authorize this rich and prosperous community to be plunged into debt to the extent of $250,000 "right off the bat"?

The old Republican Elephant, with Mr. Blakeney as the rider will have to do a bit more sprinting in November than it has done i nthe past to beat Congressman Benson on the fleet little donkey on the Second Congressional race course.

In making the speech which sounded the keynote of the Republican National Convention in Chicagi, Senator Lodge dwelt at some length upon the legislation which the Republican Congress was instrumental in passing, but he purposely overlooked the Volstead Act.

A Baltimore City newspaper stated recently that many foreigners were seeking homes in America. Yes! So are many Americans.

The Jeffersonian extends to Justice and Mrs. John T. Hopkins in this, their hour of great sorrow, its heartfelt sympathy. The bright light of their lives has been snuffed out, but it is God's will, and His be done. We must remember that "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away."

From a high Republican authority, The Washington Post, the following confession of the complete failure of the present Republican Congress is taken: "If the adjournment is taken in June, the Republican party will have to go into the presidential campaign confronted by the necessity of dodging or apologizing for the sorriest receord ever made by any Congress in recent years."

The Talbot county authorities are inclined to place the blame for Isaiah Fountain's escape on the fact that the papers in the case were not sent to the Governor promptly. "A lame excuse is better than none" Why not cast their indignation upon the Sheriff of Talbot county and the "sleepy" night watchman. Towson, the county seat of Baltimore county, is not a "one horse" town if Easton is, and its officials, when they are lax, do not look around to place the burden upon someone else's shoulders, but "take their medicine" like men.

Now that prohibition is a certainty the Rev. W. W. Davis, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, has jumped off the "water wagon" and with his big blacksnake whip is trying to thrash Sunday basaball in Baltimore county. The Jeffersonian would far rather see Sunday baseball indulged in, providing it is not done under a church window, than to have the young men of any community sneak off into a woods or an old barn and indulge in a game of craps. This is done, and we cannot understand why the eminent W. W. Davis does not exert his attention to the greater of the two evils.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

The Baltimore County School Board, in naming Mr. Clarence G. Cooper as Superintendent of County Schools, has chosen a worthy successor to Mr. A. S. Cook, who recently resigned to become State Superintendent.

For several years past Mr. Cooper has served as Superintendent of Rural Schools, under Mr. Cook, and his work has been so eminently satisfactory, and he has become so familiar with the county school system, that it is believed he will have little difficulty in carrying out the excellent administration of schools which Mr. Cook has given the county for the last twenty years.

Mr. Cooper is well equipped, from the standpoints of both learning and experience, to maintain the schools of the county upon a high level of efficiency, and The Jeffersonian extends to him its congratulations and best wishes.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

In nominating Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio for President, the "Old Guard" or reactionary element in the Republican party has achieved a wonderful coup d'etat, but what will the voters of the country say on November 2 when they assemble to elect their Chief Magistrate?

One of the singular features of the Republican Convention is that no one of the leading candidates for President was nominated. Senator Johnson, Governor Lowden and General Wood each had a number of delegates pledged, but it seems that they advertised each other so well in the pre-convention fight as to render them all unavailable ac candidates in the general election. So it became necessary to trot out a "dark horse." This was done, according to the statement of Colonel Harvey, at a little round-table conference of the "Old Gaurd," and the convention promptly puts its O. K. on their choice.

The Republican platform, while ingeniously drawn, is not a very inspiring document, and is calculated to hinder rather than help the party's cause in the coming fight. The plank concerning the League of Nations is one of the finest "straddling" feats ever pulled off by a political convention. If the "Irreconcilables," headed by Hiram Johnson, and the "Reservationists," headed by Senator Lodge, can stand upon it until the race is over without bumping into each other—well, it will be a miracle.

If the Democrats at San Francisco take advantage of their opportunities and adopt a progressive platform, with a real statesman to run upon it, they should have no difficulty in sweeping the country.

The Bill states that James Curtain and Henry Curtain, late of Baltimore County, deceased, were in their life time seized and possessed of a certain farm consisting of two hundred and forty acres, more or less, situated on the Old Harford Turnpike and described in the following deeds: From William G. H. Dorsey, Trustee to James Curtain and Henry Curtan, dated December 5th, 1855, and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore County, in Liber E. M. F., No. 13, folio 439, from John H. Curtain, who in turn conveyed his interest back to James Curtain and Catherine Curtain, his wife, for and during the term of their natural life and after their death to Henry G. Curtain, Margaret A. Buckman, Anna A. Gibson, Frances Kate Diffenderfer and Molly E. Gluck, by deeds dated January 25th, 1881 and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore County, in Liber J. W. That the said Henry Curtain, the other owner of the property, died December 28th, 1889, intestate, leaving surviving him four children, namely: Anna A. Curtain, unmarried, who died December 5th, 1914; Sarah E. Curtain, who intermarried with Edward L. Coulson, both of whom have since died leaving surviving them one child, A. Elizabeth Coulson, who is unmarried and now of full legal age, and is a resident of the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland. Florence E. Curtain, who intermarried with a Mr. Gressley, who has since departed this life; the said Florence E. Gressley being a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and now resides in the City of York, State of Pennsylvania. Samuel M. Curtain, unmarried, who died intestate October 23rd, 1894, and Emma E. Curtain, who intermarried with George E. Riefle, both of whom are now living and reside in the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland.

That said fee-simple property and improvements are not susceptible of partition without loss or injury to the said parties hereto entitled to interest therein; that in order to make partition of the interests herein it will be necessary that the said property and improvements be sold and all proceeds of same be divided amongst the said parties hereto as their said interest might appear, under the jurisdiction of this Honorable Court.
