

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE NEWSY LETTERS FROM EVERY SECTION OF THE COUNTY

WHITE HALL.

The White Hall Aid Society will hold an ice cream and strawberry festival on the church lawn on next Tuesday evening, June 22.

The White Hall Farmers' Club and Improvement Association sold to Thos. E. Baker an unimproved lot fronting on the White Hall Road.

Melville Sutton and Joseph Rapelli, both of whom are in the hospital with fractured limbs, are improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Slade entertained the White Hall Social Club on last Saturday night. The members of the club will go on an outing to Loch Raven on Sunday.

Mrs. Marion Cross, of Jarrett's, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Clarence M. Hoshall.

Mrs. Alice Elgin spent the week-end with Mrs. C. M. Hoshall.

The Children's Day service at Vernon M. E. Church, last Sunday night, was largely attended and the program was well rendered.

The White Hall Farmers' Club and Improvement Association is building a new avenue to the fair grounds, the entrance to be from the White Hall State Road. The Association will erect a new exhibition hall 30x50 feet with a basement and an entire building, which will be used for the cattle show. Other improvements to the grounds.

Mr. Jeremiah Six, who has been ill for some time shows but little, if any, improvement.

Andrew J. Anderson has sold to C. Leroy Nelson and wife, the store property, residence, and several acres of land in White Hall.

Messrs. Charles H. and S. Oscar Almon have about completed improvements to the house which they recently purchased at Shawsville.

BORING.

Mr. Clyde Palmer spent Sunday with his father, Mr. Hiram Palmer, of this place.

Mrs. Walter Myers entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wooden, Misses Ethel, Adelaide and Gertrude Wooden, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzer, of Baltimore; Mrs. Lee Andrews, of Reisterstown; Mrs. Kinsey Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Green and children, and entire Marguerite and Elwood Walter are ill with bronchitis and gripe and are under the care of Dr. Miller.

Mrs. Hiram Palmer and children, Carroll and Roland, spent from Saturday to Monday visiting at Zion.

Mrs. William Bosson and little son, Albert, are spending some time visiting relatives at this place.

Mr. Virgil Walter has returned to Baltimore after spending several days with his wife and children, at this place.

The Boring Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Edward Grothe Wednesday. A nice crowd was present.

Boring Sunday School will hold its Children's Day service Sunday, June 27, at 7:30 P. M. It will be held in the Freeman's Hall.

Mrs. George Kebaugh spent last Saturday in Baltimore.

Mr. Albert Gill spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Lawson Gill.

Mr. George Kebaugh had a narrow escape from losing his eye when a piece of stone hit in the eye Monday while working on the pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seary and son, George, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nease.

Mrs. Rebecca Benson is confined to her bed at the home of her niece, Mrs. Dorsey Enzor.

There will be preaching at Boring tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Boite and left a fine little girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Gill and little grandson spent last Saturday in Glyndon.

Quite a few of the people attended Children's Day at Emory last Sunday and had to leave on account of the terrific storm.

SALEM.

Sunday School and Class Meeting Sunday morning as usual.

The Children's Service was held at Salem last Sunday night and was largely attended, and the children did their parts without making a mistake. Miss Vergie McComas had the training of the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Fowble and family spent one day last week in Baltimore.

Messrs. Eddie and Harvey Martin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, of York, Pa.

Master Robert Martin has returned to his home in York after spending some time with his uncle, Mr. Eddie Martin.

RIDERWOOD.

Lightning struck the barn and garage of Mr. Strouthers on last Sunday evening and they were entirely destroyed, causing a loss of $7,000. Town and Lutherville Fire companies kept the fire from spreading to the dwelling and other buildings.

Mr. Chas. Coale is building a new house on Ellenham avenue, near Mr. B. F. Bond's.

Mr. Robert Fussellbaugh has sold to Mr. J. V. Goldsborough 5 acres on Ellenham avenue, on which Mr. Goldsborough will erect a large residence in the near future.

The Men's Bible Class of Hunt's M. E. Church will hold a Rally Day Service on Sunday, June 27, at 3 o'clock. P. M. Rev. Mr. Stone, of Hampden, will address the meeting. Everybody welcome.

UNCLE JAKE GOING

"Jeff" Blizard Buster Will Leave To Attend Democratic National Convention in Frisco

(Continued from Page 1.)

Any is so go durn thin yer could pay Yankee. Doodle on his gol durn ribs, and fellers 'round Timonium calls him skin-nay, and some folks at Towson call him a nigger. Human nigger-plin.

OH! CLEOPATRICK! Yer Uncle Jake done heard that their right reverend, distinguished, honorable, ancient and dilapidated gentlemen, is now trying to stop baseball on Sunday, being that near beer's done taken their place of real beer and k-wiky. Taint no use arguin'. Ole Doc's full of 'pep' and kin rattle off er spell regarding Sunday violations so fast as er high powered automobile kin climb er steep hill. These ancient and honorable "Doc" Kelley ain't been heard of a long time. Wonder what's become of him? If the eminent "Doc" Davis wants ter check Sunday violations yer Uncle Jake'll take him to er place where er crabs games er held on Sunday, right near Towson town, and ther two town guards don't seem ter mind it er bit. When it comes ter ornaments ther brass bustins, blue coat dudes what's put in Towson town evidently ter ornament ther sidewalks is all right when no extortion's necessary, but when it comes ter being Sherlock Homes' ther ain't nothing at all.

SMOKING PIG'S FEET! Them gol durn cobbles is still down on the road, and in Towson town, and ther United Railroad 'dicals ain't made er move yet ter pull them out. If this yer condition 'xisted at Gobbler's Knob ther citizens 'ud get out of bed some dark night and stormy night and with ther aid er pick and shovel git them out themselves, and it would be er case of ter Hell with ther United Railways, ther 'dicals, ther car tracks, and conductors, no more n' an' all. Yes, gol durn it, even ther trouble wagon. Being that yer Uncle Jake's got ter pack up his ole carpet bag ter git out fer ther west, he's suiner quit talking and get on the job, so's he kin tell yer all 'bout ther Demmykrat convention. If Pike's Peak is in ther way, he'll Mame'll just jump over ther gol durn obstacle.

DAVIS ON JOB

Secretary of Lord's Day Alliance Heads Delegation Regarding Sunday Baseball.

(Continued from Page 1.)

There were no violations of the law on Sunday and that he would again be cautioned regarding this subject.

Dr. Davis said that complaint had been made some time ago regarding a noisy baseball game near a church, and that he wished to thank Marshal Stansbury for immediately stopping it.

PRIVATE BODIES AND CORPORATIONS FIND THE LARGER THE EXECUTIVE, THE LESS EFFICIENCY.

(Continued from Page 1.)

denation such property as may be required for public purposes, and to dispose of property no longer needed for public use; to grant franchises and to fix the compensation to be received therefor; to erect, establish, maintain and control hospitals, almshouses, pest houses and other similar institutions within the county, and to regulate and control the same; to provide for advertising and printing; to audit the accounts of all county officers and to provide for proof of all claims against the county before they are paid; to provide for competitive bidding for any county work and the making and awarding of contracts; to provide for the draining of swamp and low lands; to arrange and create election districts and precincts; to provide for the recording and indexing of all public records, not provided for by general law; to designate Justices of the Peace who may constitute a county court, and to fix their compensation; to provide measures for the protection of the public health and to abate nuisances; to construct, maintain and control highways, bridges and streets; to regulate the conditions under which live stock may pass over the public roads or streets; to pass fish and game laws; and regulate the making and maintenance of fences; to fix tax assessments and regulate the levy and collection of taxes; to provide for borrowing money on bonds; to provide for the appointment and removal of all county officers and to establish a merit system; to prevent the creation of credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

While the exercise of some of the foregoing powers is merely a matter of legislation, there are nevertheless many other powers in the exercise of which the council will be required to meet from time to time throughout the year. It may be said, in answer to this, that the council will delegate these powers to the County Manager. It is deemed desirable to prevent the credit of the county being given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation; and change the charter from time to time, when deemed expedient.

representative government of local affairs. But experience has shown that three commissioners can administer the affairs of the county as well, if not better than five, and it was as a result of this experience that the last legislature passed a law reducing the number of Commissioners from five to three. And not a voice was raised in protest against the enactment of this law.

The more one studies the framework of the governments established in the nation, state and county, the more one is disposed to admire the wisdom and foresight of the statesmen and lawmakers of former generations. So well did they accomplish their difficult tasks that it would seem that Providence must have guided them in their deliberations. There were no beaten paths to follow. The commission form of government, established by the framers of the State Constitution for the counties of Maryland, has stood the test of years of trial and experience. It has proven to be simple, efficient and sufficient. It is difficult to see how it can well be improved upon. So why displace such a form of government with an entirely new form, when there is no assurance whatsoever that the new form will be an improvement over the old?

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

STATE OF MARYLAND
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
Notice is hereby given that application has been made to the Governor of Maryland for the pardon or parole of Carroll Simmons, James Foster, Charles Foster, Edwin Kennedy, James L. Simmons, Wm. Doran, John Mox and Wm. I. Arnold, who were convicted at the April Term, 1920, of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, of Carnal Knowledge, and sentenced each to three months in the House of Correction.

The Governor will take up the said cases for final decision
On or after Saturday, June 19, 1920, until which time protests against such pardons or paroles will be heard and the papers filed will be open to inspection at the discretion of the Governor.

By order of the Governor,
PHILIP B. PERLMAN,
Secretary of State.

Ernest C. Hatch, Attorney-at-Law,
Towson, Md.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE, That the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court of Baltimore County, letters of Administration on the estate of JACOB P. KELLER, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said estate are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber.

On or before the 22d day of December, 1920, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Those indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said county, this 18th day of June, 1920.

THEODORE F. SHEARER,
Administrator
Millers, Md.

6-19-20

TIMONIUM FAIR
Entries Close August 21, 1920
Write TODAY for Free Premium Book, giving classes and awards.
ADDRESS THE SECRETARY
350 Equitable Bldg., Baltimore, Md.
6-19-20

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

STATE OF MARYLAND
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
Notice is hereby given that application has been made to the Governor of Maryland for the pardon or parole of Henry Gray, who was convicted at the May Term, 1918, in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, of Assault, and sentenced on 6th day of August, 1918, to the Baltimore County Jail for term of one year.

The Governor will take up the said case for final decision
On or after June 19, 1920, until which time protests against such pardon will be heard and the papers filed will be open to inspection at the discretion of the Governor.

By order of the Governor,
PHILIP B. PERLMAN,
Secretary of State.

6-19-20

FOR SALE!---One of the Most Complete

Gentleman's Country Estates In Baltimore County
RIDERWOOD

Consisting of 22 Acres, with all modern improvements. 1/2 mile to station. Attractive price. Further information supplied by