—Mr. Elmer J. Cook and Mr. John Mays Little returned this week from a business trip to Cleveland, Ohio.

—There is a movement on foot here to establish an automobile club, which will be known as the "Towson Auto-Club."

The Sunday School of Trinity Church here held its annual Sunday School outing at Gwynn Oak Park on Wednesday last.

—Miss Susine Ruby, daughter of Mr. P. L. Ruby, who has been ill and confined to her bed, is convalescent and able to be up again.

—Miss Ollie Harrison and Miss Addie M. Flayhart are the guests of Miss Ella V. Bowen, on North Virginia avenue, last Wednesday.

—The traffic is getting heavier on the York Road through Towson on Sundays. Automobiles and motorcycles go up and down the York Road with out-lets open, and no officer to stop them. Why the Automobile Commissioner does not station a motorcycle man here is a mystery.

—The funeral of Mrs. Annie V. Richardson, wife of Rev. C. Herbert Richardson, of the M. E. Church, who died last Saturday was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Services were conducted at the home of her son-in-law, Raymond V. Allen, at Terracotta, Towson. Burial was in Loudon Park Cemetery.

—J. Howard Rankin, of Towson, was released Wednesday by Justice Macdonald to await a hearing on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Elizabeth M. Dandy. Rankin and his wife rented an apartment at the Dandy home, and the trouble, it is stated, was the sequel of an argument between him and his landlady.

—Louis Goldstein, by his attorneys, John D. C. Dunne and Samuel F. Sebeloff, filed a suit Wednesday in the Circuit Court against Peter Belloff, claiming $5,000 damages. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant allowed his cow to run at large, and the plaintiff's auto collided with the animal, causing his wife to be injured and the machine damaged.

—Dame Rumor has it that a negro using a Ford touring car makes frequent visits to Towson and carries on a wonderful business in "bootlegging." While the information has come to this paper in an indirect way, it is understood that recently he wended his way to the county-seat and disposed of a load at $15 per quart. Ye Gods! "What fools ye mortals be."

—Ignazy Franciszkowski and Thomas Franciszkowski, Wednesday filed a suit in the Circuit Court here, against the Eastern Milling Rolling Company, claiming $10,000 damages for alleged injury to the plaintiff's property by smoke and vapors claimed to emanate from the defendant's plant near Back River. —While enjoying sweet and peaceful slumber on last Saturday night three residents of Towson were relieved of $30 in cash by a thief who entered their homes. Thirty-five dollars was taken from the trousers pocket of Mr. J. Thomas McCaffrey, and $5 from the pants of Mr. N. Bosley Hoffman, who resides with his brother-in-law opposite the Con. Gas & Electric Company's store. On the same evening the home of Dr. John S. Green, Jr., corner of Allegheny and Washington avenues was entered and $50 taken from Dr. Green's trousers while he slept.

—William D. Wight, as executor of the will of his father, John H. Wight and individually by his attorneys, Keech, Wright & Colman, filed a bill Wednesday in the Circuit Court at Towson, asking that a decree be passed for the sale of the estate of the testator located in the Gre-a-Spring Valley, in order to settle up the affairs of the deceased, and to pay the legacies bequeathed in his will. The other heirs of Mr. Wight are named as defendants in the case. The estate is a very fine one and is improved by a large mansion. The property is said to have cost Mr. Wight about $150,000.

The entertainment this year is to be given entirely by the teachers attending the summer school. Dr. Henry S. West, principal of the school, having arranged the other week-end entertainments given since the school opened. Friday night Dr. West arranged to have shown the educational film which was taken at the Normal School and which later will be exhibited throughout the State. HERGENRATHER'S

Weekly
SNAP SHOTS

This column is published for the benefit of our friends and customers. If you have an unusually large hog or pumpkin, if there's a baby born, etc., let the editor of Hergenrather's "Snap Shots" know.

Headline in a newspaper—
"FINE FOR PROFITEERS."
It has been, indeed!

Everyone in this community knows that the Hergenrather Drug Company is the place to go to have prescriptions filled.

A good speech should be measured the same as a dress. Both should be long enough to cover the subject, and short enough to be interesting.

The People's Modern Pharmacy on the York Road at Towson, just north of Pennsylvania avenue, is a small department store in itself and each department fully stocked with a little bit of everything, and you'll find courteous clerks there. Pay this store a visit and convince yourself.

Speaking of Rest.

A wealthy feminine enjoyer of poor health called upon her doctor. After a lengthy examination by the doctor and a more lengthy enumeration of her ailments, the doctor prescribed rest. He had, however, failed to examine her tongue, and she was reminded of this fact. "Stick it out!" Um-m, yes, that needs a rest too."

You'll find a beautiful assortment of Crepe de Chine and Georgette Crepe Shirt Waists at the People's Modern Pharmacy store.

Cobbles, cobbles, where are thy charms?

Echo answers—"Ask the United Railways. I'll say you must."

When you are real sick, don't you feel better if you know that Hergenrather filled the prescription? I'll say you do.

Toilet paper in rolls; 10, 15 and 25 cents.

Have you a sidewalk in front of your home? If not, ask the Sidewalk Committee. Why not?

Boost! Don't knock.

Senator Kenyon says he will demand repeal of the appropriation granted by the last Congress to the Department of Justice to fight the high cost of living on the ground that it was used primarily to boost Palmer for the Democratic Presidential nomination.

LIVES CHIEFLY IN MEMORIES

Sleepy Little Pennsylvania Community Has But One Really Busy Season in the Year.

Within the limits of the city of Philadelphia, yet separate from the municipality proper, is the little village of Bustleton. Unlike its name, it is a sleepy community, peopled mostly by retired farmers.

Bustleton is replete with historic lore. Old Bill Tyler's Union hotel is a relic of the days when British and colonial troops overran the country. One sleeping chamber in the ancient inn contains a great four-poster bed in which, so the historians of the village say, once slept "Mad Anthony" Wayne.

Stories of midnight raids by British cavalry patrols, duels fought between the young bloods of the Quaker city in a grove in back of the inn, and ghosts of colonial soldiers stalking through the long halls of the structure, are told with great gusto by Bill Tyler. The Union hotel has been handed down from father to son in the Tyler family for nearly two centuries.

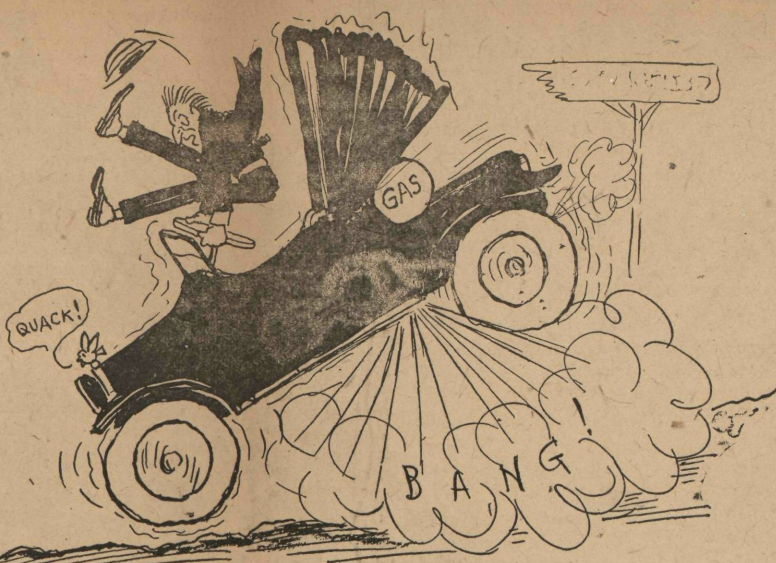

But there is one time in the year when Bustleton really bustles. That is in the month of September, when the mushroom season opens. At sunrise dozens of men and boys may be seen plodding through the dew-laden pasture fields, armed with buckets and baskets. For the fertile fields in and around Bustleton yield many bushels of mushrooms, which are sold at the various markets in Philadelphia.

CAN TAKE PRIDE IN HOUSE

Domicile Expresses Personality That Can Be Pleasing, or the Reverse, as May Be.

But the best of a house is that it has an outside personality as well as an inside one. Nobody, not even himself, could admire a man's flat from the street; nobody could look up and say, "What very delightful people must live behind those third-floor windows." Here it is different. Any of you may find himself some day in our quiet street, and stop a moment to look at our house; at the blue door with its jolly knocker, at the little trees in their blue tubs standing within a ring of blue posts linked by chains, at the bright-colored curtains. You may like it, but we shall be watching you from one of the windows, and telling each other that you do. In any case, we have the pleasure of looking at ourselves, and feeling that we are contributing something to London, whether for better or for worse. We are part of a street now, and can take pride in that street. Before, we were only part of a big unmanageable building—From "Not That It Matters," by A. A. Milne.

WHERE WAS "GENE" GOSNELL WHEN HIS "TIN CHARIOT" BLEW UP—ASK HIM!

This "snapshot" was made by a friend who handed it in to The Jeffersonian.
