Feed Your Cows "PFO" DAIRY RATION

For More Milk and Better Health Cows in Good Physical Condition
Always Give Best Yearly Yield. "PFO" DAIRY RATION will keep your cows in good physical condition with less attention in feeding.

PALATABILITY

No dairy cow ever did well on a feed she did not like. In selecting the ingredients for "PFO" DAIRY RATION we have paid most particular attention to the palatability of the mixture. Cows eat it eagerly and do not "go off feed" readily.

GUARANTEED ANALYSIS

PROTEIN, 20 per cent.; Fat, 3 per cent.;
Carbohydrates, 50 per cent.; Fibre, 15 per cent.

The above figures are not the real values to the feeder. It is the digestibility that counts and produces and just how much digestible nutrients in a dairy ration is what the feeder who knows his business wants to know. DIGESTIBLE PROTEIN 15½ per cent. FAT AND CARBOHYDRATES 60 per cent.

TOWSON AT A GLANCE

—Justice Wm. P. Butler has been named by Dr. Wm. S. Church, Health Officer of the Ninth district, as deputy registrar of the same district.

—Miss Mildred Schuler, clerk in the Towson National Bank, is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Treadwell, at Norfolk, Va.

—Miss Catherine M. C. is spending some time with Miss Dorothy Parks at Monkton. Miss Anna Frankfield is also a guest at the Sparks' home.

—Mr. Elmer J. Cook, Judge Frank I. Duncan, Mr. W. Gill Smith and Clerk of the Court Wm. P. Cole left Thursday for a business trip to Cleveland, Ohio.

—The interior of the Court Drug Store here is being remodeled and when completed will add much to the general appearance of the establishment.

—Young "Bill" Fuller is wearing the "smile that won't come off," and there's a reason for it. On Monday the stork visited his home and left an 8-pound baby boy.

—Towson has a new squire. On Tuesday Mr. Wm. P. Butler was appointed by Governor Ritchie to fill the vacancy made by the death of the late John T. Hopkins.

—Mr. J. H. Suter, Sr., of Roland Park, has purchased from Dr. Louis Hergenrath a lot at Alburgh Park and will erect a cottage upon same in the near future.

—Dr. Cole, associated with the Animal Husbandry Branch, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, spent a few days in Towson this week on business. He was a guest at the Hotel Towson.

—Mrs. B. F. Ports, wife of one of the proprietors of the York Hotel, is here, is a patient at a city hospital, where she underwent an operation on Thursday for appendicitis.

—The annual Sunday School picnic of the Towson M. P. Church, of which Rev. S. F. Cassen is pastor, will be held on Wednesday next at Clifton Park. The trip will be made by automobiles.

—Miss Lydia May Watkins is substituting at the Towson National Bank while some of the employees are on their vacations and others are carefully scrutinizing the "Summer Board" columns.

—Mr. Milton J. Dance, who conducted an auctioneering business here prior to the war, and who volunteered his services has returned to the county seat and will again open an office in the Piper Building.

—The congregating of negroes on the sidewalks of the county seat, which on Saturday evenings, is beginning to become evident again. Why the patrolmen allow it is too much of a problem for us to make out.

—Mr. Thomas W. Meads, assistant cashier at the Second National Bank here, is spending his vacation on an auto trip through Southern Maryland. He is accompanied by his wife, his son, Mr. T. Wilbur Meads and daughter-in-law.

—"The Life That Lifts" will be the subject for the sermon at 11 o'clock service at Calvary Baptist Church here tomorrow (Sunday) when the ordinance of baptism will be administered by the pastor, Rev. J. David Clark.

—The Sunday School of the Towson M. P. Church wended its way to Druid Hill Park in two special cars on Tuesday last for the annual picnic. "Tiny" Jimmy Dunphy, superintendent, with his white shoes and trousers, was in his glory.

—Sheriff Samuel C. Mahle and Deputy Sheriff W. George Marley were in Easton yesterday (Friday) where they witnessed the execution of Ismael Fountain, the negro of Talbot county, who was tried at Towson and found guilty of a serious offense.

—"Towson's grand old man" Dr. Jas. H. Jarrett, who recently was operated upon, was seen on the streets of the town taking his little walk one day this week. Notwithstanding his 39 years, Dr. Jarrett seems to have recovered fully from the operation.

—The annual meeting of the Towson Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the Towson M. P. Church on Thursday, July 29th, at 2.30 o'clock, at which time the business session will be conducted at 6.30 the annual reunion of the members with their husbands will take place.

—There was a time when the telephone was a convenience—now it's a damned nuisance, especially when one tries to get a city number and is given the wrong one, or is told the line is busy, for half a day. People who endeavor to get county calls from the city get the number 1 time out of 10.

—"Tibby" Wheeler, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wheeler, may some day be the star of one of the big league baseball teams, for "Tibby" is now some twirler. On Monday he will leave for Norfolk where he has signed up with the Virginia Ball League for the season at a handsome salary for a youngster of his years.

—"Grasshopper" the little electric car that plys between Towson and Timonium, "went wild" on Monday afternoon and in rounding the curve on the northbound trip at Washington and

Mr. W. Gill Smith, our well-known lawyer friend, visited Hereford last Sunday. It is rumored that while there he got religion. Ask him!

For that picnic trip—a new White Skirt, $2.25—at the People's Modern Pharmacy.

A young lady asked for "Constipation" Oil. "Castor Oil for Constipation" was offered as a suggestion. The sale was lost; she wanted Consecrated Oil.

Take home a spool of cotton. A "stitch in time saves nine." You can get it at the People's Modern Pharmacy.

Miss Green—Of course, you can't believe everything you hear.
Miss Gadleigh—Oh no, but you can repeat it.

Have you something you want to sell, exchange or give away? Tell us. No charge. This column is free to our friends and patrons.

Professor—Johnny, sit down in front!
Johnny—I can't.

Did everybody get their sample of Armand's Cold Cream Powder? See that your name is on our mailing list and you won't be left next time. Send it to Hergenrath!

Patient—I've just been down to the drug store to get something for the pain in my stomach, and he—
Doctor—Oh, suppose he gave you some diotic advice.

Patient—Well, maybe so; he told me to come up and see you.

Delicious ice cream cones, two big dippers of cream, at either the People's Modern Pharmacy or Hergenrath's.

Boost—don't knock!

Chesapeake avenues gave an ice wagon, the property of Mr. Clayton Seitz, a awful "bump," hence traffic on the little line was delayed for some time.

—The funeral of Mr. Henry German, who died at his home here on Sunday last, one of the oldest residents of the county seat, was held on Tuesday afternoon. Services were conducted at the home by Rev. S. F. Cassen, pastor of the Towson M. P. Church. The burial was in charge of the Towson Lodge of Odd Fellows. Interment was in Prospect Hill Cemetery here.

—On Tuesday last Peter E. Foote, a farmer of Cockeysville, was sentenced to 5 years in the Maryland Penitentiary by Judge Frank I. Duncan, having been found guilty by a jury of having received a stolen automobile from a negro auto-jack. His counsel, C. Gus Grasin, asked that a new trial be granted, but the motion was overruled and sentence passed.

—On Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock an important meeting will be held by the Towson Post, No. 22, American Legion, in the Court House, at which time delegates to the next State convention to be held in Cumberland on September 6 and 7 will be elected. A minstrel has been organized and a report from the committee in charge of this is expected. An outing by the Towson Post on some shore along the water front in Baltimore county has been arranged for, the details of which will be told at the meeting.

—The summer sales conference of the Black & Decker Mfg. Co. here, convened on Monday last and adjourned on Thursday. The various branch managers who attended were G. R. Lundane, New York city; Walter Watson, Buffalo; D. G. Caywood, Boston; R. G. Ames and J. N. Le Belle, Chicago; G. A. Dodge, Cleveland; J. E. Colley and Wm. Minnich, Atlanta; W. P. Allen, Philadelphia; C. G. O'Dell, Detroit; and M. E. Lilly, Baltimore. Tuesday evening the branch managers and department heads were served dinner on the lawn of the Black & Decker community house.

—Deputy Game Warden Harry Dawes had the misfortune to fracture his right arm at the wrist while cracking his "dinner" Mr. Dawes was in Towson on Tuesday enroute from the game propaganda farm at Gwynnbrook to Loch Raven with 100 young pheasants, which he turned loose on the city property, this vast area being now used for breeding purposes.
