Fitzpatrick, all of Towson, did on March 10th, 1920, file with the County Commissioners of Baltimore County a Petition in the following words:

"The undersigned being taxable inhabitants of that part of Baltimore County, hereinafter described, and residing therein, do hereby, under and by virtue of the ordinances and regulations adopted by your Honorable Board and approved by the State Board of Health and by the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland relative thereto, represent unto your Honorable Board:

(1) That they all reside in and are taxable inhabitants of that part of Baltimore County, all of which may be included in a single sewerage system, and which is located and described more particularly as follows, that is to say: Being the same territory designated on the plat hereto annexed as the "Towson Area."

(2) That there is an urgent public need for a sewerage system in that part of Baltimore County above described and located, which is very thickly settled, and in which the conditions caused by the want of a sewerage system constitute a menace to the public health.

Your petitioners therefore ask your Honorable Board to establish an adequate and proper sewerage system in the location above specified."

And whereas Norton, Bird & Whitman, Engineers, have been employed by and have filed with the said County Commissioners their report and plats, plans and specifications for the construction of a sewerage system and sewage disposal plant at Towson, and whereas said plans and plats have been approved by the State Board of Health of Maryland; therefore the County Commissioners of Baltimore County have set the

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

CLARENCE S. GORE AND MARIE R. GORE, his wife, et al.

VS.

ALBERT P. GORE, CATHERINE GRAVES, MARY BELL GORE, et al.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY IN EQUITY.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of a tract of land of approximately forty-one acres, situate in the Fourth District of Baltimore County, Maryland.

The bill alleges that by deed dated April 23rd, 1883, and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore County, in Liber W. M. I., No. 134, folio 517, there was conveyed by Andrew W. Gore and others to Annie E. Gore and J. Lizzie Gore, also known as J. Elizabeth Gore, a tract of land situated in the Fourth Election District of Baltimore county, near St. George Station, Maryland. That Annie E. Gore died in 1887, leaving a will duly probated in the Orphans' Court for Baltimore County, by which all of her interest in said tract of land was bequeathed to her sister, J. Elizabeth Gore, and that J. Elizabeth Gore, being the owner of all of the aforedescribed tract of land, died in 1918, leaving a will, duly probated in the Orphans' Court for Baltimore County, devising said tract of land, which is situate near St. George, Baltimore County, Md., to her nephew, Clarence S. Gore, for life, and "upon and after his death unto his child or children, share and share alike, per stirpes absolutely, and in the event of said Clarence leaving no child, children or descendants surviving him my will is that from and after the death of said Clarence all my interest in said home place pass to such person as would take an estate in fee simple in the State of Maryland had I died intestate after the date of the death of the said Clarence."

That Clarence S. Gore married Marie R. Gore, and they have two children, Frances Elizabeth Gore, aged eleven years, and Elizabeth Hyatt Gore, aged three years. That J. Elizabeth Gore at the time of her death left surviving her the following as her heirs at law, all of whom are still living, all of whom are of full legal age:

Albert P. Gore, a brother, a resident of Baltimore City, Maryland, and the following children of A. Washington Gore, a brother of J. Elizabeth Gore, who predeceased her: Catherine Graves, a widow; Mary Bell Gore, unmarried; Albert J. Gore, who married Eleanor A. Gore, all of whom live in the District of Columbia; Charles W. Gore, who married Frances Field Gore, who live in the State of New York; Hugh C. Gore, who married Ada Thompson Gore, who live in the State of California.

That the complainants and defendants are the only persons in, being interested in, or claiming any interest in the property disposed of under said will; that it is to the advantage of all parties concerned that the real estate described in said bill be sold and the proceeds invested under the direction of this Court.

It is thereupon this 5th day of August ORDERED by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in equity, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Baltimore County once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of September, 1920, give notice to the said absent defendants non-residents of the State of Maryland, of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to be and appear in person or by solicitor in this Court to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

On or before the 22d day of September, 1920,

Judge.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY IN EQUITY.

The object of this bill is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintiff, Lillian F. Coombs, from the defendant, Clarence J. Coombs, and the custody of Mildred M. Coombs and Elain Elizabeth Coombs, minor children of the parties to this cause.

The Bill recites that the parties, were married in the City of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, on November 3, 1913, by a Minister of the Gospel, and lived together up to the month of July, 1917, when he deserted her in the city of Washington, D. C.; that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Maryland for more than two years prior to the filing of this Bill of Complaint, while the defendant, Clarence J. Coombs, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, his present whereabout being unknown to the plaintiff; that there have been two children born as the result of said marriage: Mildred M. Coombs, Born January 13, 1915, and Elain Elizabeth Coombs born February 21, 1916, both of whom are now in the custody of the plaintiff; that though the conduct of the plaintiff toward her said husband has been affectionate and above reproach, the defendant, Clarence J. Coombs, her husband, has, without just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and declared his intention to live with her no longer; that said abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

It is therefore ODDERED, by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, this 4th day of August, A. D., 1920, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some weekly newspaper, published in Baltimore County once a week for four successive weeks before the 6th day of September, 1920, give notice to the said non-resident defendant, Clarence J. Coombs, of the object and substance of this suit and warn him to be and appear in this Court either in person or by solicitor, to show cause if any he may have why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

On or before the 22d day of September, 1921,

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

DAISY C. STEAVESON

VS.

OSCAR E. STEAVESON.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY IN EQUITY.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii by the plaintiff, Daisy C. Steaveson, from the defendant, Oscar E. Steaveson, and for the custody of the infant child of the parties.

The Bill recites that the parties were married on May 31, 1919, at Elkton, Cecil County,, Maryland, by Rev. Geo. P. Jones; that one child, Willie Louise Steaveson, aged two months, and of whom the plaintiff asks the custody, was born as a result of said marriage. That the parties lived together until on or about October 1st, 1919, when the plaintiff discovered that the defendant had committed the crime of adultery; that she has not lived or cohabitated with the defendant since said discovery, nor has she at any time condoned said offense. That the plaintiff is a resident and the defendant a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

IT IS THEREUPON ORDERED by the Circuit ourt for Baltimore County in Equity, this 20th day of August, 1920, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some weekly newspaper published in Baltimore County once in each of four successive weeks before the said 20th day of September, 1920, give notice to the absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warn him to be and appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor,

On or before the 6th day of October, 1920, and show cause, if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
