PORK.

Well, the play "Hezekiah's Country Store," is over, and those who did not attend missed one of the best laughs of their lives. Prof. Chas. Bahn, of Harrisburg, composer-director, took the part of Hezekiah, a country store keeper (of a hundred years ago). Some of the most humorous characters were: Hezekiah's wife, Miss Lida Eck; Pap, a veteran of 80 years, Mr. A. D. Mumma; Constable, Mr. James Burton; Mr. and Mrs. Burdock, Mrs. E. P. Munihuyson and Mr. Theo. Formwalt. Every one acquitted themselves well and although some of the audience were made the object of the jokes everyone took it good naturedly and were ready to laugh at the other fellow. Fifty-two dollars was cleared and if nothing happens Prof. Bahn will give another play some time during the winter.

Fork M. E. Mite Society will hold a meeting this evening at the home of Mrs. Bernard Holland. Every member is requested to be present, as important business is to be transacted.

Fork school opened with three teachers, Miss Mann as principal, and Misses Graw and Hanna as assistants. Only those who have taught under similar circumstances can appreciate the difficulties to be surmounted with three teachers in two rooms, and then crowded to overflowing with children.

GARRISON.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warfel and two daughters, of Govans, motored to Pennsylvania last week to visit Mr. Warfel's sister, Mrs. John Pearl, of Kennel Square, Chester county. They returned on Monday evening.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Warfel, Cording avenue, Govans, on August 30, it being the fifteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Warfel. Mr. Zokel's orchestra furnished the music. The many guests enjoyed the dancing on the porch. After the dance refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Warfel received many beautiful presents.

Quite a big time was had by those who attended the annual carnival at the Old Soldiers' Home on Monday, for it was SOME carnival.
