TOWSON, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1920.

MARYLAND JOURNAL ESTABLISHED 1865 CONSOLIDATED 1915 BALTIMORE CO. DEMOCRAT ESTAB. 1885 WITH THE JEFFERSONIAN.

Lawlessness By "Bootleggers" In Back River Section Very Much Exaggerated—Merely An Effort On The Part Of The Marshal Of Police In Baltimore City To Direct Public Attention From The Lamentable Failure Of His Force To Break Up The Deplorable Conditions In The City

BUILDING UP OUR FIRE FIGHTING FORCES TO MEET FUTURE EMERGENCIES

This is the latest photograph taken of the Towson Fire Engine Company, which shows the modern apparatus installed here a few years ago.

As annexation confiscated the largest part of Baltimore county's fire fighting forces, the authorities are now endeavoring to build up gradually a force of adequate stations to take care of all sections of the county.

In addition to new apparatus, a fire alarm system will be installed, with headquarters on the upper floor of the Towson Engine house.

OPENED WEDNESDAY

Shooting Of Birds Legal Now. Many Gunners' Licenses Issued In County.

As a result of the season for shooting partridges, pheasants, squirrels and wild turkeys, which opened Wednesday, the Clerk's Office at Towson has been extremely busy issuing gunners' licenses, there being a rush every day.

"Rainy Day" Philosophy

"For this information you don't have to pay, it should keep you in fine feather; Lay something by for a rainy day, And you'll always have dry weather."

—Luke McLuke in Cincinnati Enquirer.

There are so many better reasons for saving money that we do not like to urge people to save for the proverbial "rainy day."

However, it is well enough to be prepared for any contingency that may arise, and ready money is usually a great help in time of trouble. If in your own particular case you can find other reasons for saving, then by all means save for a "rainy day." And may you "always have dry weather!"

The Third Judicial Circuit, which comprises Baltimore and Harford counties, will elect two judges at the next election. Chief Judge T. Scott O'Neil was appointed to succeed Judge W. Charles Burke, resigned, until the next general election.

SALARY $7,000

"Doc" Davis Has A "Fat" Job, According To All Accounts.

(From the Annapolis Correspondent of The Jeffersonian.)

Dr. W. W. Davis, Superintendent of the Lord's Day Alliance, has a job equal to that of the Congressman and a judge with regard to salary, according to a report filed on Tuesday with the Secretary of the County Police, for the Reverend gentleman receives a salary of $7,000 per year.

He said that statements required by law have been filed by representatives of associations and organizations. These statements cover the expenditures of the persons registered and those who employed them during the year. Constant efforts were made to secure the statements. He added that the Legislature has failed to enforce the rules which it has laid down regarding the employment of legislative counsel and agents.

MAKES "GET-AWAY"

Negro Who Committed Crime In "Upper End" Of County Still At Large.

Fighting off Dr. F. G. Mitchell, a brawny young negro made his get-away from the Court House at Baltimore after having committed a serious crime upon a 10-year-old white girl. Although Mitchell had been arrested by Marshall Stansbury, arrived upon the scene an hour after the crime occurred, he managed to escape through a back door of the County Police building and hid in a place where he was not searched.

INCREASE IN SALES

Towson Heights Plant Goes Way Beyond Record Made Last Year.

That the Black & Decker Mfg. Co., with a big plant at Towson Heights is growing by "leaps and bounds" is best evidenced by the general activity at the big industrial enterprise.

OCURRED INSIDE CITY

Torture Of Soldiers By "Bootleggers" Took Place Three-fourths Of Mile Over County Line.

That the band of bootlegging gunmen planned the murder of two soldiers from Camp Holabird as an example to other Holabird soldiers who might make up a party to enforce the "dry laws," two soldiers were kidnaped near the camp and tortured inside the city of Baltimore City without a policeman interfering.

FIRST GUNNING VICTIM

Child Of 14 Years Walks Half Mile After Shooting Self In Foot.

The first accident due to the hunting season in Baltimore county was reported on Wednesday when little Marie Heintzen, aged 14 years, who was out hunting with her father, Henry Heintzen, near Catonsville, stumbled and fell from the back of a horse, carrying the bullet entering her foot.

REFUSE AID

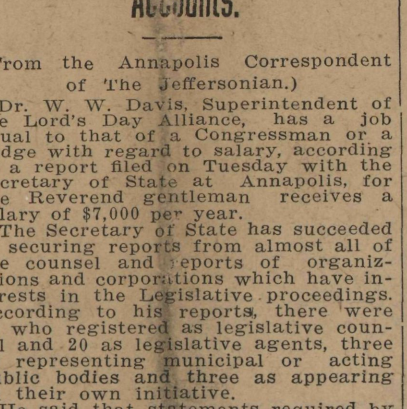

County Authorities Feel Able To Remedy Conditions In "Lower End."

Governor Ritchie's offer to have the police of Baltimore City co-operate in the suppression of bootlegging in the lower end of Baltimore county, was refused by the Board of County Commissioners, as from investigation it was found that the conditions were very much exaggerated.

The offer was turned down because the Board felt that the City police were not coping with crime in the city of Baltimore and that they had their hands full in taking care of the town community. President of the Board Wm. F. Coghlan notified the Governor's office that the Commissioners, after a conference with the Chief of Police for Baltimore county, felt that they were adequately equipped to deal with the situation without outside help.

WILL REORGANIZE PARTY

Governor Cox Undismayed By Defeat At Polls—Plans For The Future.

(Special Correspondence to The Jeffersonian.) Governor James M. Cox, apparently undismayed by the rout of the Democratic forces at the polls last Tuesday, indicated that he will attempt to reorganize the party of which he is the head for political combats of the future.

TURN "DEAF EAR" TO SUGGESTION

THAT CITY POLICE BE SENT TO COUNTY FOR EMERGENCY.

His first step along this line was to make it plain that he does not believe the Democratic party will cease to exist as the result of its overwhelming defeat.
