BIG DAY IN BALBOA'S LIFE

Great Spanish Explorer First Sighted the Pacific Ocean on September 25, 1513.

On Sept. 25, 1513, Vasco Nunez de Balboa had his first peep at the blue expanse of the Pacific ocean, remarks the Los Angeles Times. It was gained from the top of the mountain range at the isthmus of Darien. Four days later, on the 29th, he reached the slopes himself and stood waist deep in the waters. He called it the Great South sea and he took formal possession in the name of the king of Spain, after the manner of the old-time explorers. That was the big day in Balboa's life. He came to the New World as a stowaway and he attained the title of admiral of the Pacific and governor of Panama. Yet four years later he was executed in the public square at Acia on a trumped-up charge of treason. Balboa was an adventurer with the passions of the gambler, the drunkard and the spendthrift; yet as he gathered power and authority he exercised prudence, judgment and foresight. He was a regular scout and now California has a delightful beach and a guarded bay named after him. It would be very proper to call the last week in September Balboa week in this section, for from the discovery to the possession of the Pacific four days elapsed.

Its accumulators and electric motors give it a speed of six knots on the surface and nearly five knots under water. It is equipped with portholes recalling those of the famous Nautilus created by Jules Verne. The inventor claims that the vessel can be used for various operations, such as the location of wrecks, the collection of marine specimens, soundings, the study of ocean currents, or sponge fishing. The cost of construction, which was estimated when the plans were first drawn up in 1907 at $38,000, is now placed at $120,000.

Poor Gondolas.

Business had prospered with Mr. Cashtalks. So much so that his wife found herself established in a large house with grounds—nothing so low as a garden! One morning Mrs. Cashtalks sent for the gardener, of whom she was very proud. "I've had a letter this morning from Mr. Cashtalks, John," she informed the man. "He is traveling in Italy, and says that while in Venice he bought two gondolas for the lake, which should arrive this week. So you must go to the store at once and get some food for them and build them a nest or something. I'm sure the poor things will be tired and hungry by the time they get here!"—Houston Post.

Poles Grateful to America.

Polish papers in the United States have recently published a resolution unanimously passed by the Polish diet expressing thanks "for the memory of future generations" to seven American organizations who "in the name of brotherly love have brought relief to the unfortunate without flinching before danger and difficulties." The seven organizations mentioned are the American Red Cross, American Relief Administration, Young Women's Christian association, Young Men's Christian association, Fund for European Children, American Commission for Fighting Typhoid and the Joint Distribution committee.

Nature Leaking In.

I don't know anything sweeter than this leaking in of nature through all the cracks in the walls and floors of our cities. You can heap up a million tons of hewn rock on a square mile or two of earth which was green once. The trees look down from the hill-sides and ask each other, as they stand on tiptoe: "What are those people about?" And the small herbs at their feet look up and whisper back: "We shall go and see." So the small herbs pack themselves up in the least possible bundles and wait until the wind steals them at night and whispers: "Come with me." Then they go softly into the great city—one to a cleft in the pavement, one to a spout on the roof, one to a seam in the marbles or a rich man's bones and one to the grave without a stone, where nothing but the man is buried—and there they grow, looking up from between the less trodden pavements, looking down on the generations of men from moldy roofs, looking out through the cemetery railings. — Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Fake "Josses" for Travelers.

Quantities of hideous idols known in the trade as "josses" are supplied travelers and curio dealers in Canton and Amoy, China. They are fakes pure and simple, and have no relation to any oriental religion. Ingenious designers have produced a great variety of hobgoblins—such, for example, as the "hunger god," with the face of a tiger and ferocious fangs. Most of them are of clay, turned out from wooden or metal molds, dipped in molten glass and allowed to cool. A fairly expert Chinese workman can make 100 in a day at a cost of three cents apiece. The European or American tourist pays $5. Real josses may be worth a lot of money, especially if carved out of jade. This is a material greatly prized in the Orient, and a jade idol 15 inches high and as many centuries old has been known to sell for $10,000 in Canton.

Healthy Folks

Look around at the men and women you meet in a single day. One glance is enough to tell the ones with plenty of rich, red blood, strength and physical energy to back up their mental power and make them a success in whatever they undertake. Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, says that to help make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing so valuable as organic iron. Nuxated Iron, it often increases the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down people in two weeks' time. Iron is now being used by over four million people annually, and it has been used and endorsed by such men as Ignace Jan Paderewski, Ex-Premier of Poland and Master Pianist; United States Judge G. W. Atkinson, of the Court of Claims of Washington; also former Health Commissioner Wm. K. Kerr, of Chicago, and others. Nuxated Iron is dispensed by all good druggists everywhere.

"What!" he said. "You do not read your own religious books? I never heard anything more beautiful than this."

Mrs. Thaxter forthwith began to read the New Testament and became so much interested in it that she went about with a copy in her pocket; whenever she had a chance she would read it. From that time she began to attend Phillips Brooks' church. She was converted to Christianity by a Brahmin theosophist!

In the Superior Class.
It takes more than a name to put things in the superior class. Some names are fit to conjure with. Men are willing to stake their all on what the men who own the name say. Other fellows with the same name are subject to ridicule. Names refer to individuals, but individuals must put personality into what the name stands for if they are to be badges of merit. Plus signs always mean more. It's not enough to be a son of your father in name. You must be a son in deeds if you are to be worthy of him. Learners never create Plus on the things they do. They are too content to pass muster. They must learn to add worth to the name if they are to belong to the Standard Plus class.—Grit.
