The Bill of Complaint filed in the Court construes the Last Will and Testament of Henry S. Gittings, the estate was to be held in trust for his sisters, Margaret Gittings and Eleanor Gittings, now Eleanor Brogden, and their heirs in equal portions, and in the event of the death of either of said sisters, the descendants of said sister to take the share of his or her parent.

That the said Margaret Gittings departed this life, unmarried and without issue, leaving her husband, a sister, Eleanor Brogden; a niece, Julia Read; a nephew, James S. Gittings; a nephew, Ernest Gittings, all of whom reside in equal portions, and in the event of the death of either of said sisters, the descendants of said sister to take the share of his or her parent.

That the said Margaret Gittings departed this life, unmarried and without issue, leaving her husband, a sister, Eleanor Brogden; a niece, Julia Read; a nephew, James S. Gittings; a nephew, Ernest Gittings, all of whom reside in equal portions, and in the event of the death of either of said sisters, the descendants of said sister to take the share of his or her parent.

That the children of the complainants are: Richard E. Yellott, whose wife is Mamie Yellott, both of whom are of full age and of legal mind; Henry W. That John Charles Gittings, mentioned in said will, is dead, without issue surviving him.

That under the terms of said will the complainant is advised that she, having complied with the terms and conditions of said will, is entitled to a fee simple estate in the real estate devised thereunder, but as the action has arisen as to just what your complainant is entitled to take under the Will, a construction of same is necessary, and it is necessary to determine same, to the end that any cloud may be removed from said title.

That the complainant has been in absolute undisputed possession of the property since becoming of age, some forty years ago.

It is thereupon this 7th day of December, 1920, Ordered by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in Equity, that the plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Baltimore County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 10th day of January, 1921, give notice to said defendants of the substance of this bill, warning them to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor.
