

The stripped hulk of the U.S.S. Washington is shown ready for its doom—to be fired at and sunk in accordance with the disarmament pact.

Automobile traffic has wrought such changes that it is believed a wing of the famous St. Bernard Pass Hospice will be converted into a modern hotel. Decrease in revenues and increase in tourists are cited as reasons.

"Europe's best dres has arrived in

Grrr! There isn't any bow-wow business about this bulldog mascot of the U.S. Marin football tes