BALTIMORE COUNTY.

(Coitinued rom Page 4)

-The following contrast of batch- sidered "Christmas," young America everything affecting the growth and elorism and matrimony is doubtless wa sout in full strength on that day, the production of some ill-natured powder by the pound was exploded; fellow who has received 'No' for an from early dawn until bed time there answer. It is quite clever in its was one continual roar. Neighbors way, though a little too rough, per- exchanged congratulations with each haps, on the divine institution: "The other. Egg-nogg, appletoddy, &c., poor batchelor, indeed!-Who is flowed like water; adults (some at petted to death by the ladies with least) imbibed right freely; so that marriageable daughters? Invited to taking all together, Christmas Day tea and evening parties, and told to just passed, loses nothing by comdrop in just when it is convenient? The batchelor. Who lives in clover | all his days, and when he dies has flowers strewn on his grave by the girls who could not entrap him? The batchelor. Who strewes flowers! on the married man's grave? His widow? Not a bit of it; she pulls down the tombstone that a six weeks' grief has set up in her heart, and goes and gets married again—she does. Who goes to bed because time hangs heavy on his hands? The married man. Who gets a scolding Anything Made of Canvas for picking out the softest part of the bed, and for waking up the baby when he turns out in the morning? The married man. Who has wood to split. house-hunting and marketing to do, the young ones to wash and the lazy servants to look after? The married man. Who is arrested for whipping his wife? The married man. Who gets divorced The married man. Finally, who has the scriptures in his side? The batchelor. St. Paul knew what he was talking about when he said: 'He that marries does well; but he that marries not does better."

Mrs. Sarah Hutchins, who was convicted of presenting a sword to Col. Harry Gilmore and imprisoned at Fitchburg, Mass., has been released by order of President Lincoln. Christmas in 1864.—This eventful day, occurring this year upon the

| Sunday last in Towsontown as has in Towsontown." GRAND-DAD-been any Sabbath day for years We begin now with January 1st, DIES DID 60 YEARS AGO IN The usual quiet prevailed here, and 1865, and for this entire year we naught except the tinkling of sleigh will take our information from the bells made it appear different from Maryland Journal. This, by the the ordinary Sabbath. Service was way, is the first number of that paper held in the various churches, and all issued and we give as the first item passed off in a manner delightful, the first editorial signed by its edino doubt, to the most devout Chris- tor, the late William H. Ruby, who "Batchelorism Versus Matrimony. tian. - Monday however, being con- until his death was prominent in

> Telephone CAlvert 4416 Night and Holidays, WOlfe 5734-J

Tents Awnings

Estimates Submitted

208-210 E. Pratt Street

Wagon Covers

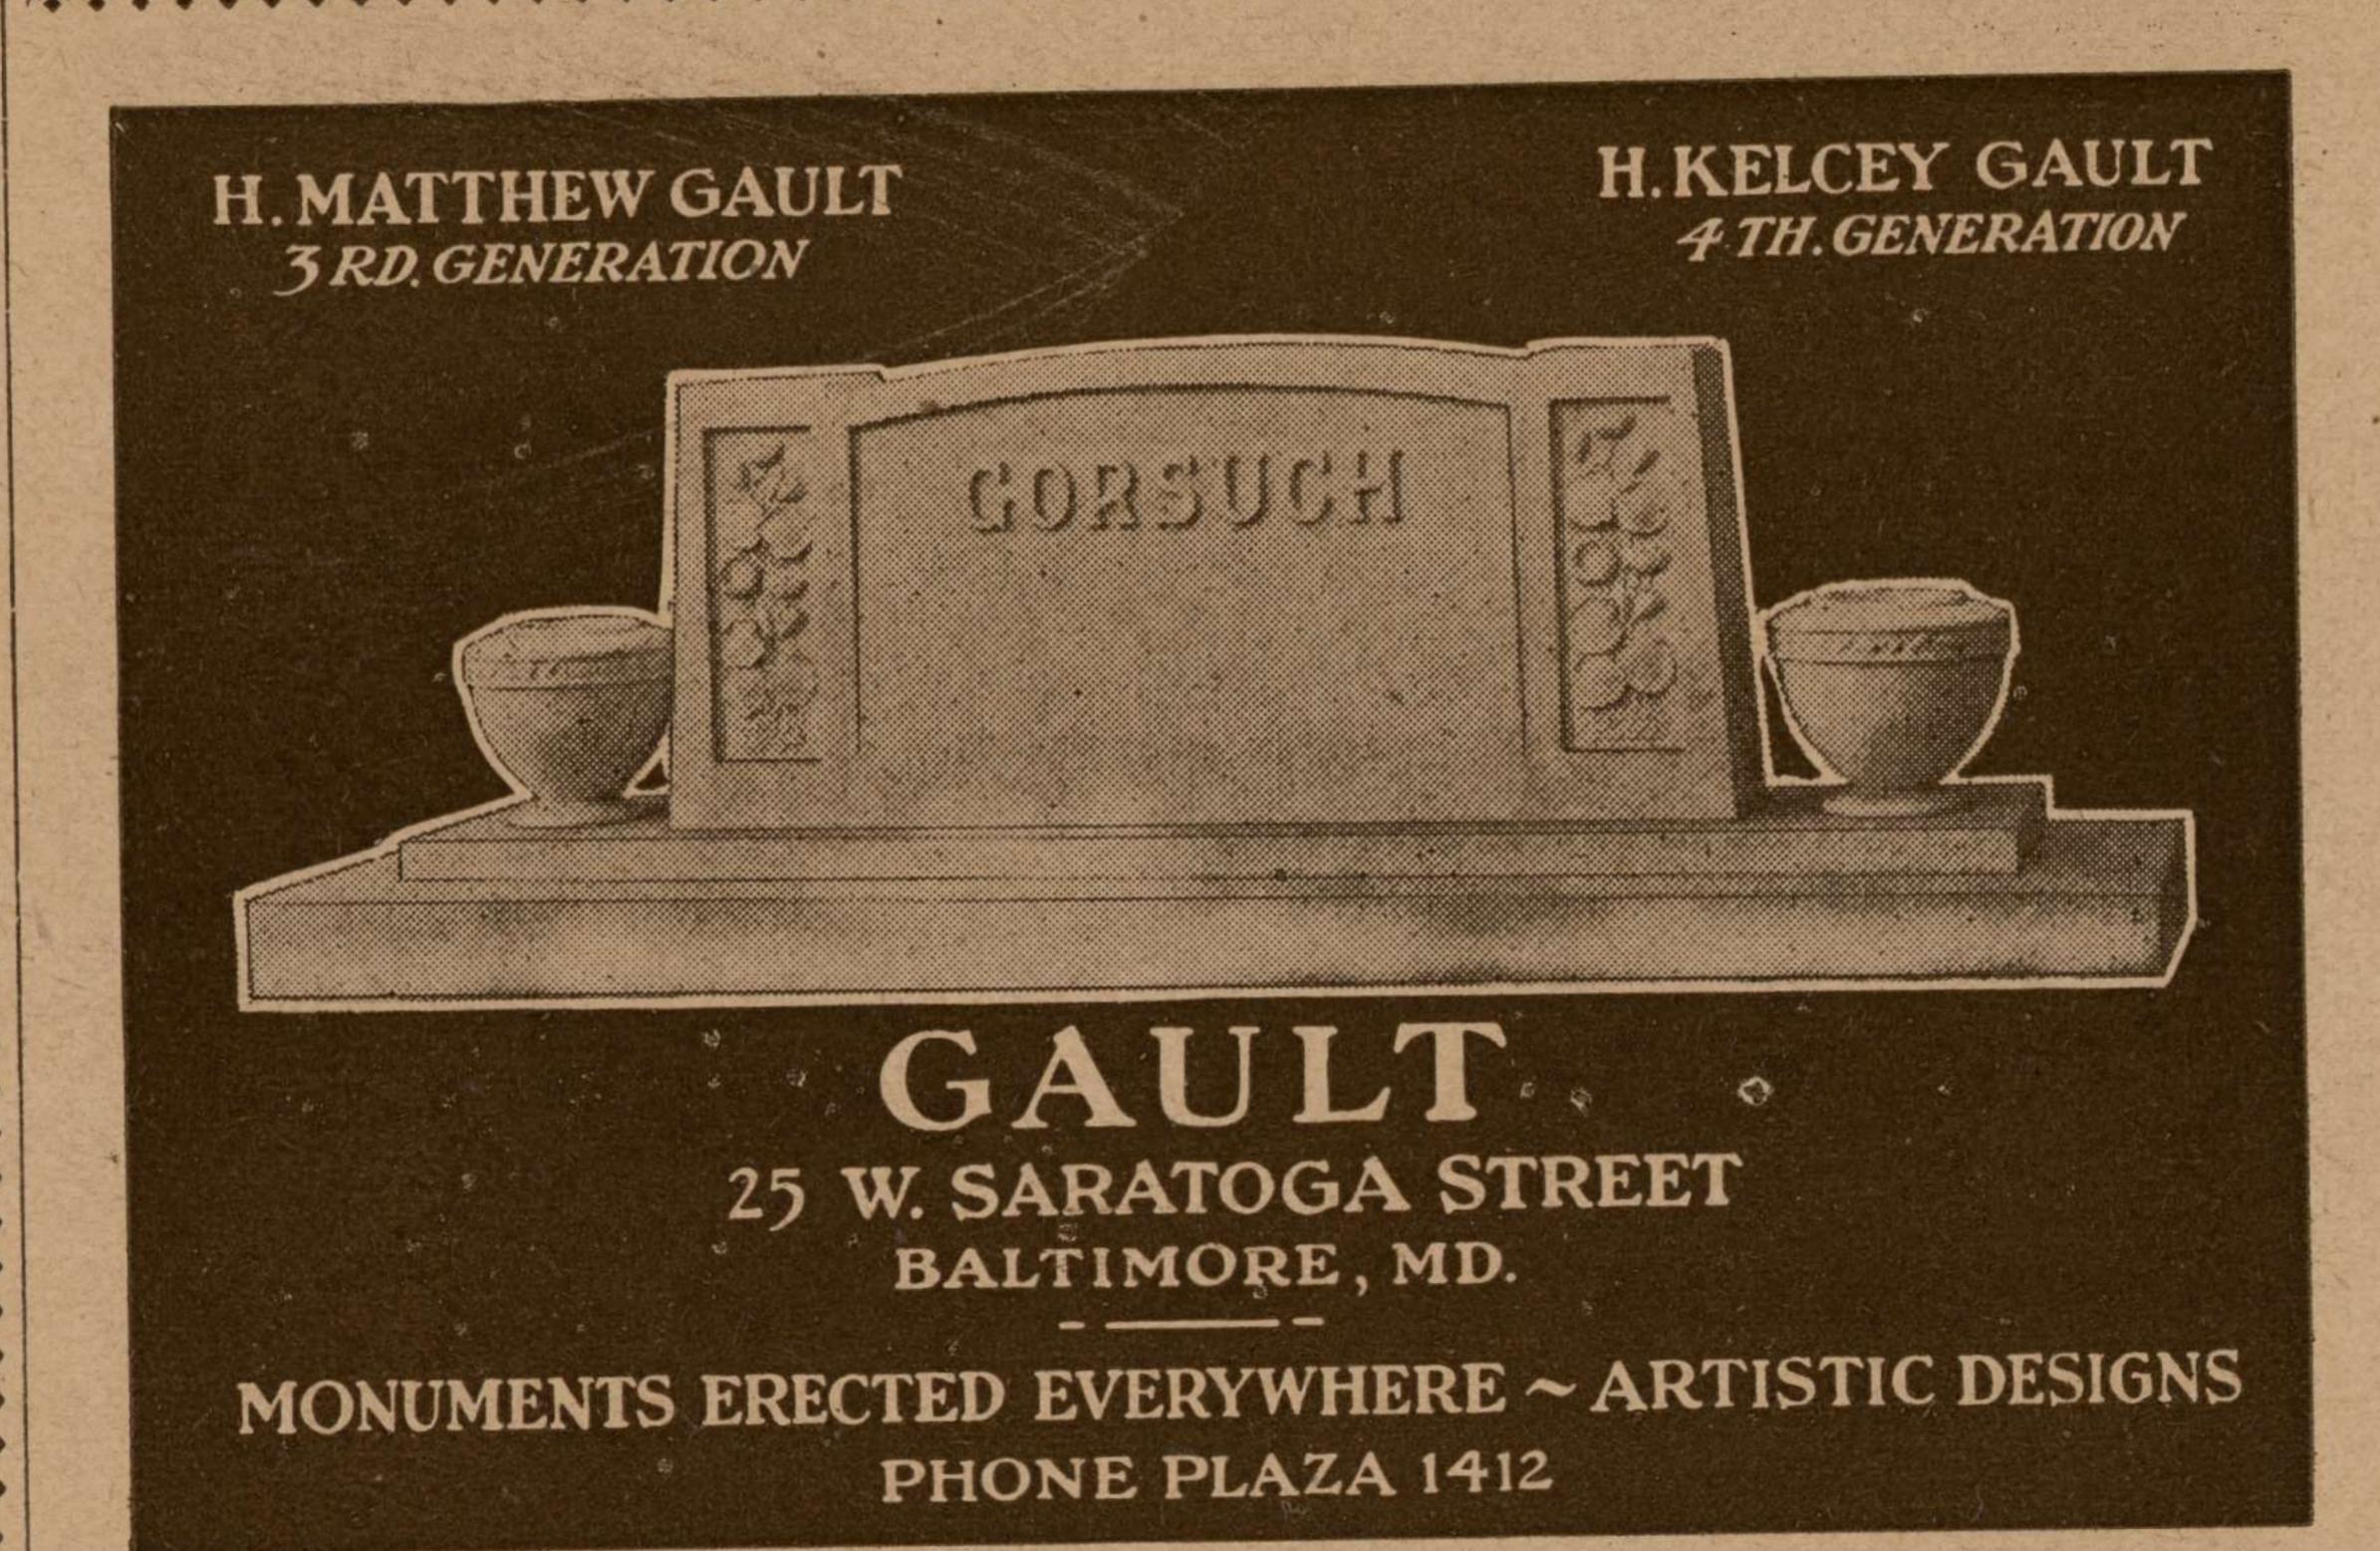

OLD TIME STUFF-WHAT OUR Sabbath, was as religiously kept on parison with other days of the kind

(Continued on Page 8)

EASY TERMS Eden Electric Clothes Washer

Let the Eden wash your clothes. It will save you time, work and expense.

The Gas & Electric Co. Lexington Bldg. BALTIMORE, MD.

OINCIDENT with our Christmas Greetings we wish to express our real appreciation of the interest and fine spirit of co-operation accorded us during the past year by the County and our own community—Towson. This is an asset indispensable in the successful conduct of our business.

THE BLACK & DECKER MFG. CO. TOWSON, MARYLAND

WORKINGMEN!

To give some hustlers a chance to get in touch with us we ask you to buy pants here. The best "inducement" we can give is the value of the cash you spend with us, and if that way is square, and it is, our trade should be double what is. Pants$2up Look for 511 on the Big Electric Sign on the south side of the street. Open until 10 o'clock Saturday.

511 W. Franklin Street Between Paca and Greene NO BRANCH STORES.

