

tacular falls in English steeplechases that have become so frequent of late as to lead for a demand that the sport be prohibited occurred when two jockeys were catapulted from their seats at the Lingfield meet, though fortunately without serious injury.

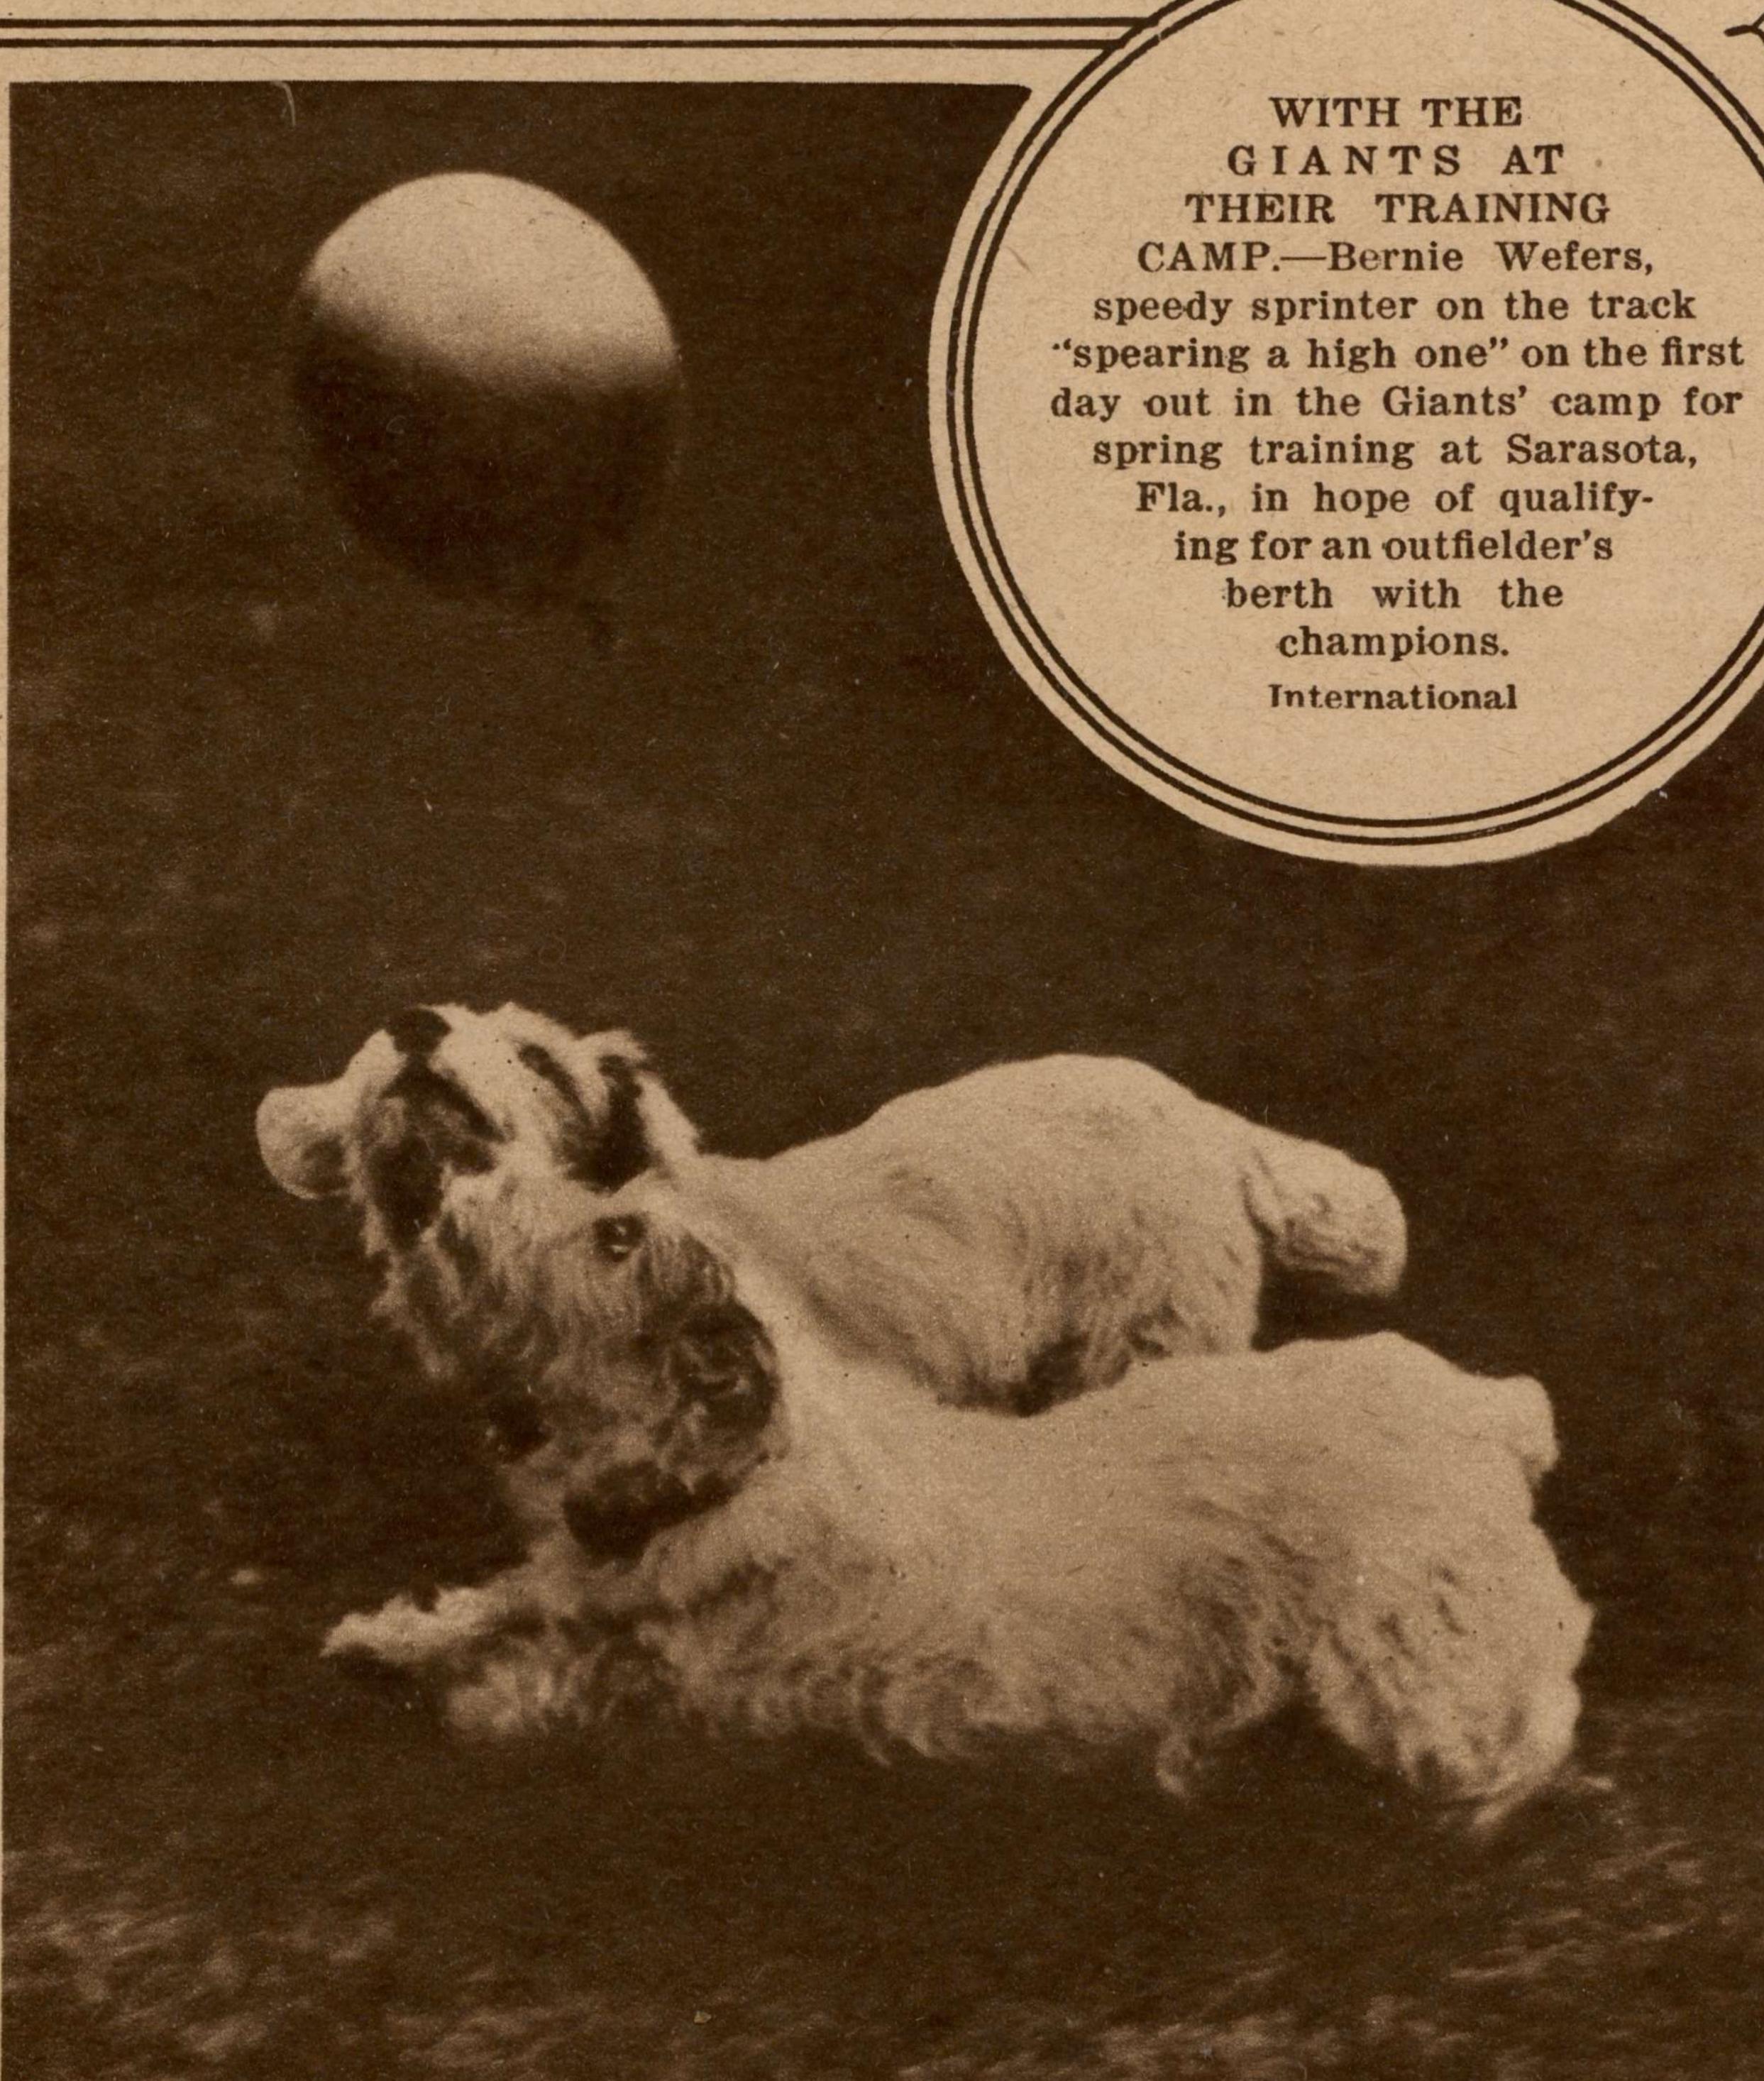

International

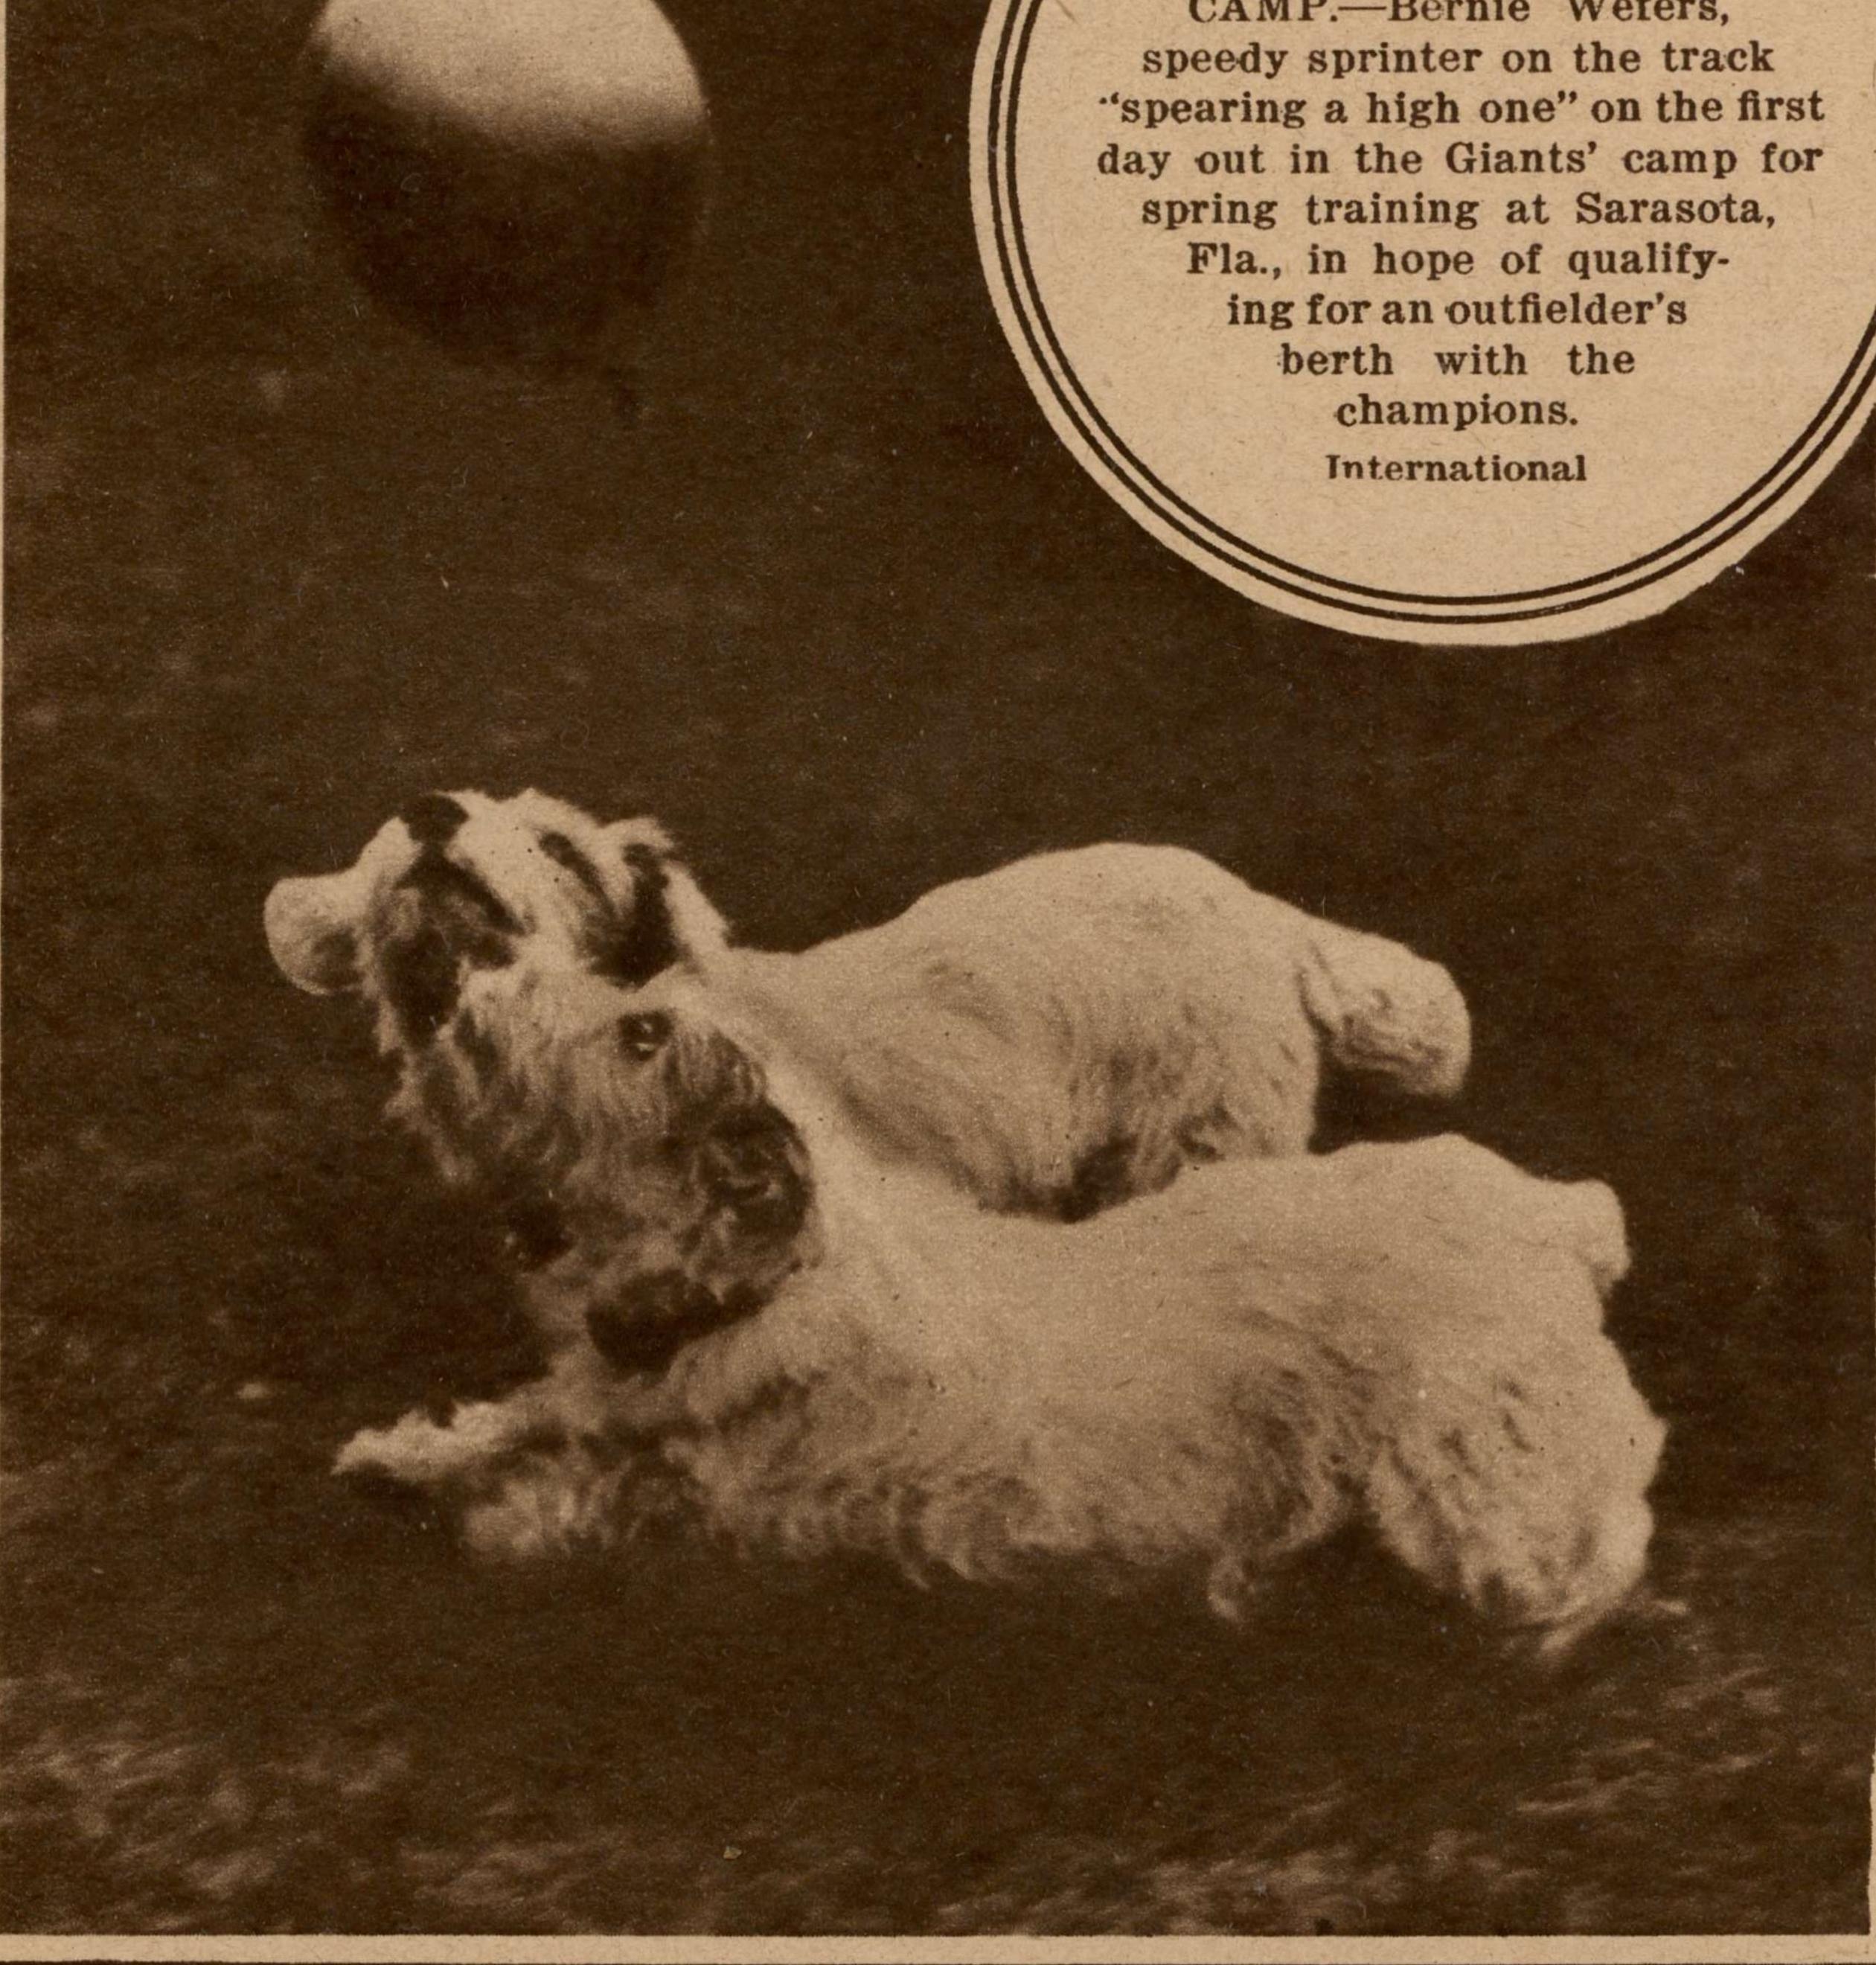

STAGING A KNOCK-OUT. — Little Maurice Murphy of Los Angeles, Cal., though only eight years old, has an ambition to emulate Dempsey, and is here trying his 'prentice hand on his brother Jack, three years older. Apart from his fistic prowess, Maurice is a mental prodigy, already having reached High School.

International

"HEADING" A TOY BALLOON.—Pedigreed Sealyham dogs belonging to Lady Mahon of England, who were recently snapped in their favorite sport of seeing how long they could keep a balloon in the air without once touching the ground, a pastime in which they have become expert from long practice. International LINED UP FOR THE WORD.—Horses and jockeys gathered before the barrier at the Tia Juana race course in the regular practice to which all have to submit in order to insure a fair start when the actual race begins.

International