

Miami Beach, Fla., develops accuracy of aim by compelling the golfer to run the ball through the house and then keep on in the desired direction.

Fotograms

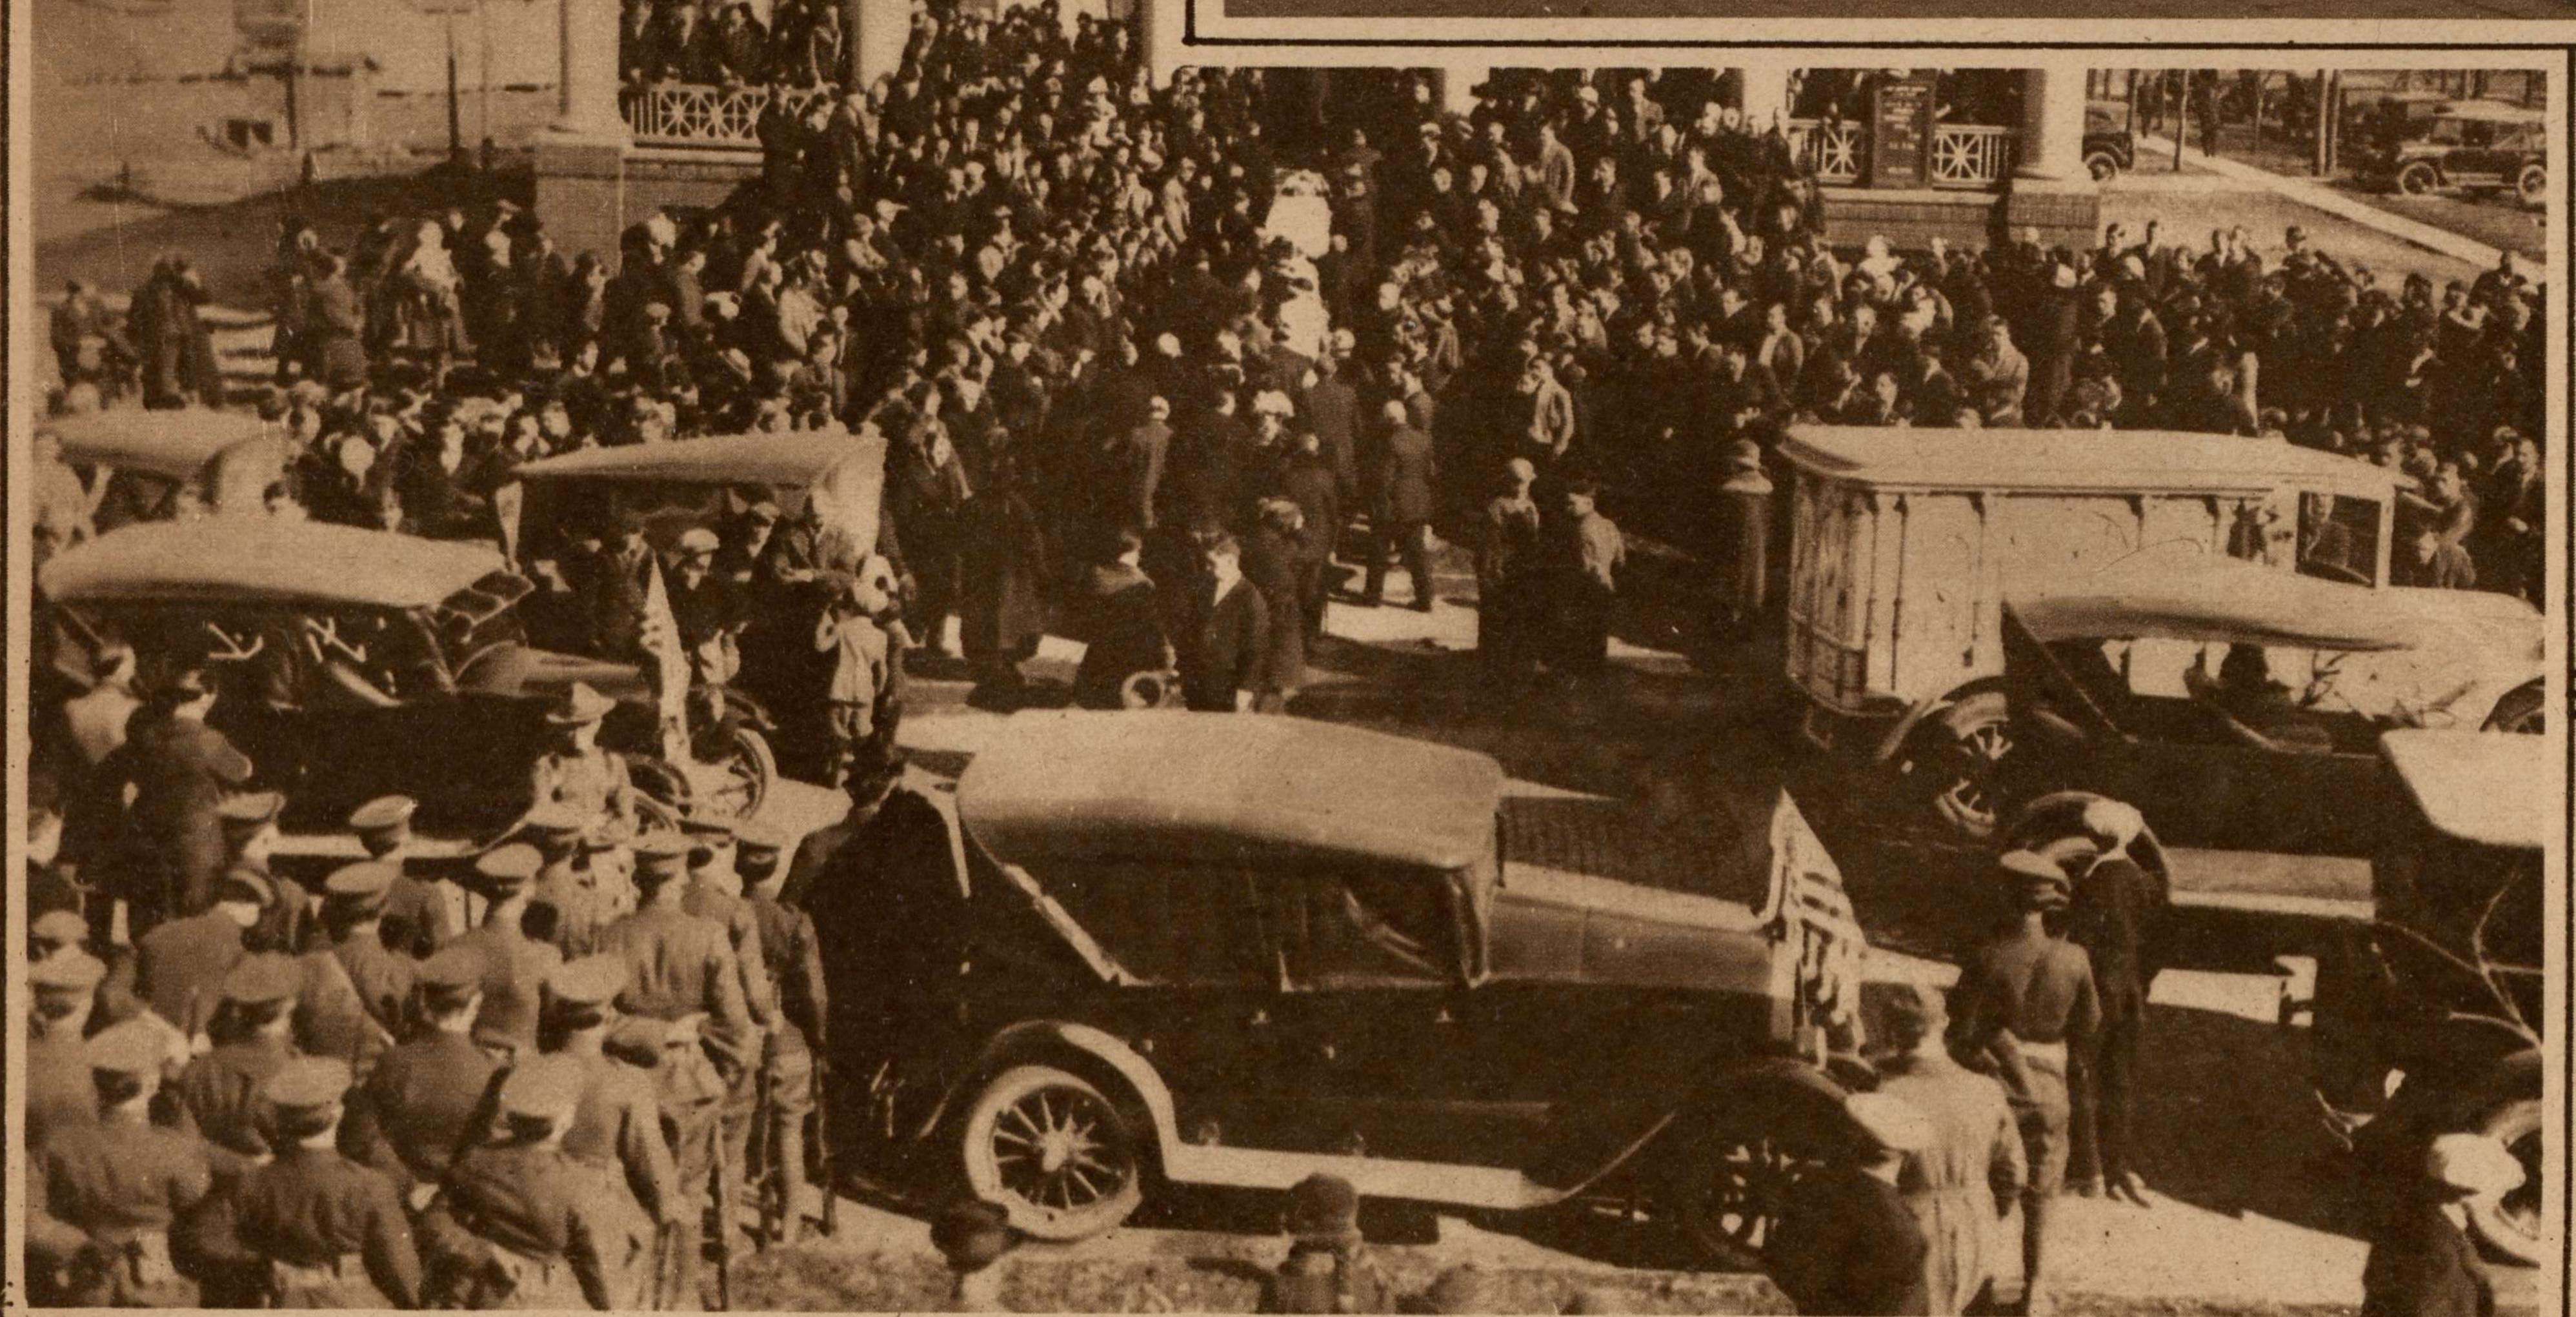

REFUSES TO GROW OLD.

Thomas Alva Edison, who recently celebrated his seventyseventh birthday, but who is as hale and vigorous as ever and so perpetually busy that he had several days' growth on his face when the photographer snapped this picture, not having been able to get time off for shaving.

International

RADIO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MANY THINGS, and among others that of furnishing the music to which these members of the "Sweet Little Devil" company are dancing on the top of the Whitehall building, New York, in the slightest of costumes, though a stiff wintry gale is blowing. Kadel & Herbert

LAST TRIBUTE TO HERRIN "WAR" VICTIM.

Funeral of Caesar I. Cagle, constable of the town of Herrin, Ill., who was killed during one of the outbreaks between members of the Ku Klux Klan and other elements of the town, and which were so violent that companies of the State National Guard had to be called on to subdue the rioters.

International