
EASANT, PLEASE."—Pat-y pup in the national capihinks pretty well of him-across a cameraman covering an important assignment and camped before the instrument until the photographer had to take his picture to get rid of him.

International

SPARKY" POPULAR WITH ACIFIC COAST YOUNG-TERS.—A wooden toy proto-pe of the famous "Spark Plug" f Barney Google fame has created a sensation among the kiddies of Los Angeles, a merry crowd of whom are here "giddaping" him along.

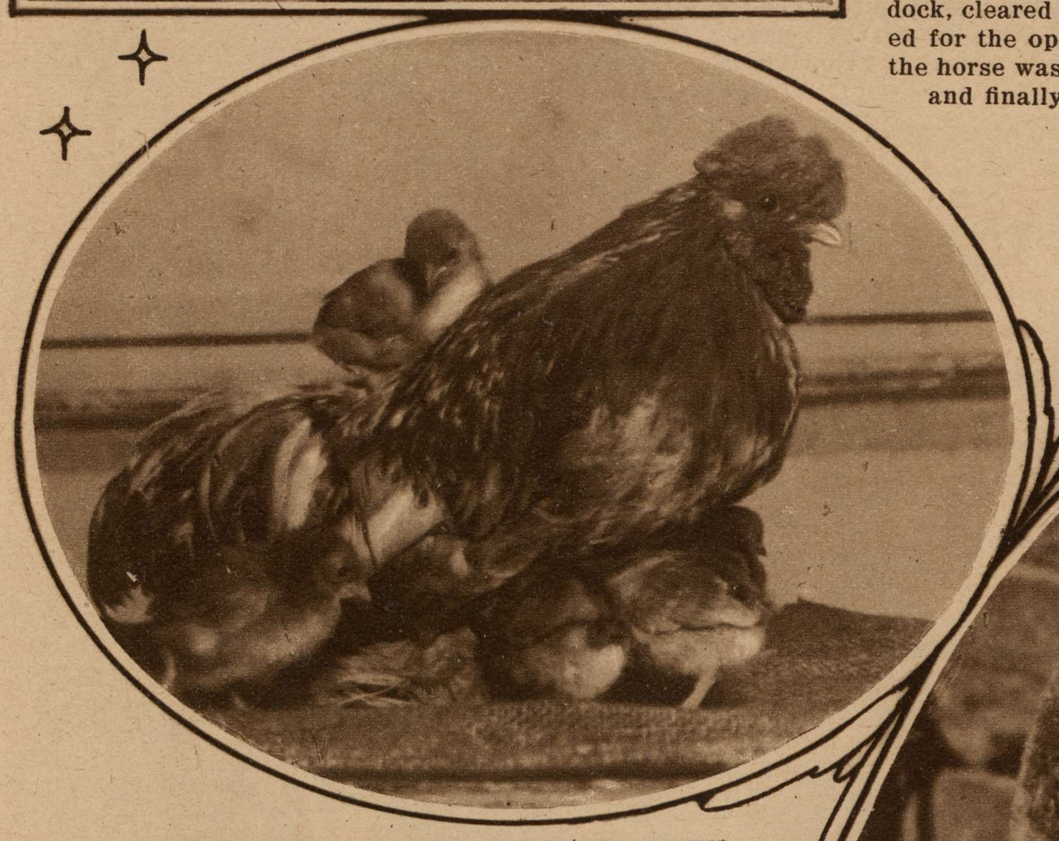
International

BLIND HORSE RESCUED FROM THE WATER.—A sightless horse, hitched to a wagon, recently wandered off a South Boston dock, cleared itself from its harness and headed for the open bay. A police boat followed, the horse was lassoed, towed back to a dredge and finally hoisted to shore and safety.

International



CONSCIENTIOUS FATHER TAKES PLACE OF FAITHLESS MOTHER.—"Charlie Chaplin," a rooster owned by Joseph Sherman of Omaha, Neb., who, when a hen afflicted with the wanderlust abandoned her nest, took her place and hatched out eleven chicks. He has taken care of them since, and, except for the fact that he crows when he tries to cluck, makes a devoted "mother"

International

BABY KANGAROO'S FIRST PEEP AT THE WORLD. For the first time since it was born at Los Angeles four months ago the only little kangaroo ever born on the Pacific Coast stuck its head recently out of its mother's pouch long enough to be photographed.

International

© Maryland State Archives mdsa_sc3410_1_81-0784.jpg