

TOSSING IT SKYWARD.—Sending the pushball high in the air is a favorite sport of the girls at the Castle School at Tarrytown, N. Y., and the exercise in the wintry air brings a sparkle to the eye and a color to the cheeks that need no aid from cosmetics.

Fotograms

SKATING TO RADIO STRAINS.—Business is said to have doubled at the rink of the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago since the management has installed a radio receiving set that puts new zip and zest into the feet of the skaters.

©Underwood & Underwood

"THE NINETEENTH HOLE" AT LAKE HOPATCONG.—Fred Crater and William Daily yanking a two and a half pound pickerel out of a hole in the ice at the New Jersey resort for a fresh Friday dinner.

Wide World Photos

WHIZZING DOWN THE TOBOGGAN.

Hair-raising leap of Malcolmn Gulden of Wisconsin University on skis at Lake Placid, the American mecca for winter sportsmen.

Kadel & Herbert

SKIMMING OVER THE
CRYSTAL SURFACE
in iceboats on the Mugelsee, in the vicinity of Ber-see, in the vicinity of Berlin, where the sport has taken a firm hold on the fancy of the sporting population of the German capital.

Wide World Photos