NE SECTION

TOWSON, MD.
FEBRUARY 9
1924

Baltimore County's Only Sunday Newspaper

NATURE AS A SCULPTOR.—Disaster was clothed in beauty when, in the fire that swept the Sherwin-Williams Paint and Varnish Company plant in Chicago, with the thermometer 15 degrees below zero, the water froze as fast as it touched the building, forming an ice coating of dazzling brilliance.

International

RUSSIA'S DEAD DICTATOR.
Bust of Nikolai Lenin, the autocrat who for the last six years has held Russia in the hollow of his hand and who died recently and was buried in the wall of the Kremlin. The bust was made from life by Mrs. Clare Sheridan on her last visit to Russia.

@Underwood & Underwood

UNCLE SAM'S NEWEST
UNDERSEA TERROR.—The S47, latest and greatest of American submarines, making its first plunge into the water at the Fore River yards of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation. The vessel has a cruising radius of 8,000 miles without replenishing fuel and will have a speed of 14 knots an hour on the surface and 12 knots when submerged.

Kadel & Herbert

RUNS HEAD-ON INTO PRECIPICE—Steamer Felside of Belfast, Ireland, which recently lost her bearings in a fog and ran on the rocks at Three Cliffs Bay. One of the crew was drowned, but thirteen other members saved themselves in a lifeboat. Little hope of salvaging the vessel is entertained.

Wide World Photos