

Vol. 3.

UPPER MARLBORO' MARYLAND, WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 7, 1853.

No. 15.

Extracts from New Books.

UGLY WOMEN.

the "Gaieties and Gravities," by Horace envy itself must allow that she is "ex- have fallen into the very common error Vermont, which we consider too good SMITH, one of the authors of the far- cessively amiable." famed "Rejected Addresses." It may however men may differ as to the details, not the result, of marriage. Every man, judge and lawyers, were intending to interest some of our lady readers, though they agree as to results, and crowd about like Narcissus, becomes enamoured of participate in a celebration of a society we do not mean to insinuate it is at all ap- an acknowledged beauty, influenced by the reflection of himself, only choosing of which they were members, and were plicable to them.

ed with as many cobwebs as a poor's to moral perfection. box; successive moons rose and set without a single honeymoon, and the himself into the sea. ous, or even cruel, Nature may have upon the upper lip, which is as necessa- dear departed one (he was many years The Court saw in a moment its misadmiration by some solitary tenure that are the thorns and moss to a rose, or claim; and now he's gone they've had with a frown—but it was no go. The redeems them from the unqualified im- the leaves of a cherry. If there be any the audacity to apply again for the mo- crowd burst forth into a horse laugh that putation of unattractiveness. One has old maids still extant, while mysogonists ney! Pray, therefore, ask my dear Au- fairly made the windows rattle, and the an eye that, like Charity, covers a mul- are so rare, the fault must be attributa- gustus what he did with the receipt?" young man left the room, exclaiming as titude of sins; another is a female Sam- ble to themselves, and they must incur Punch. a third holds your affections by her teeth; sedness.

In this emergency, Pygmalion, the tence. most eminent statuary of the place, fall- What a blessing for these unhandsome ing in love with one of his own works, damsels whom we treat still more un- ture wants; but, on the other hand, it is "Stand up!"

The ancient inhabitants of Amathus, the source has never been clearly ex- love at secondhand, vanity reflected, all the despatch that honor and justice in the island of Cyprus, were the most plained. It would seem impossible that compound egotism. When he sees would permit. celebrated statuaries in the world, which it should originate in any sexual symp- himself in the mirror of a female face. At half-past twelve o'clock, one day, they almost exclusively supplied with toms, since we feel the impulsion with- he exclaims, "How intelligent, how ami- an intermission of half an hour for dingods and goddesses. Every one who out carrying ourselves, even in idea, be- able, how intesesting!—how admirably ner was granted, with a strict injunchad a mind to be in the vogue ordered youd the present pleasure of gazing, and adapated for a wife!" and forthwith tion from the judge that "all hands" his deity from those fashionable artists: are even sensibly affected by the sight makes his proposals to the personage must be back punctually at one, to comeven Jupiter himself was hardly consi- of beautiful children: yet it cannot be so expressly and literally calculated to mence a new case of larceny. dered orthodox and worship-worthy, un- an abstract admiration, for it is incon- heep him in countenance. The uglier The dinners that day were swallowed less emenating from the established Pan- testable that neither men nor women are he is, the more need he has of this con- with greater rapidity than usual, and as theon of the Cypriots; and as to Juno, so vehemently impressed by the contem- solation; he forms a romantic attach- the clock struck one, the officers of the Venus, Minerva and Diana, it was ad- plation of beauty in their own as in the ment to the "fascinating creature with law rushed into Court like chickens inmitted that they had a peculiar knack opposite sex. This injustice towards the snub nose," or the "bewitching girl to a meal-trough. While they were in their manufacture, and it need hardly our own half of humanity might be as- with the roguish leer," (Anglice - eating their dinners, however, a young be added that they drove a thriving trade signed to a latent envy, but that the same squint,) without once suspecting that man from the "kedntry," being somein those popular goddesses. But this remark applies to the pleasure we derive he is paying his addresses to himself, what anxious to see the manner in which monopoly was more favorable to the for- from statues, of the proportions of which and playing the innamorato before a justice was meted out, walked into the tunes than to the happiness of the par- we could hardly be jealous. Ugly sta- looking-glass. Take self-love from love, Court-room, and, as he afterwards exties. By constantly straining above hu- tues may be left to their fate without any and very little remains: it is taking the pressed himself, "took a squint at all manity, and aspiring to the representa- compunctious visitings of nature: but flame from Hymen's torch and leaving the seats, and seein' there wasn't notion of celestial beauty; by fostering the our conduct towards women, whom we the smoke. The same feeling extends body in the nicest one, with a railin' all enthusiasms of their imaginations in the conceive to be in a similar predicament, to his progeny: he would rather see around it, and thought he'd make sure pursuit of the beau ideal,—they acquir- is by no means entitled to the same in- them resemble himself, particularly in on it afore the fellers got back from dined a distaste, or at least an indifference, dulgence. We shuffle away from them his defects, than be modelled after the ner. for mortal attractions, and turned up at parties, and sneak to the other end of chubbiest Cherubs or Cupids that ever In five minutes after the croud entertheir noses at their fair countrywomen the dinner-table, as if their features were emanated from the studio of Canova .- ed the room, the Judge rapped the desk for not being Junos and Minervas. Not catching; and as to their falling in love One sometimes encounters a man of a with the but end of his jack-knife, and one of them equalled the model which and possessing the common feelings of most unqualified hideousness, who ob- with a dignified frown, criedhad been conjured up in their minds, their sex, we laugh at the very idea .- viously considers himself an Adonis; and not one of them, consequently, And yet these Parias of the drawing- and when such a one has to seek a conwould they deign to notice. At the room generally atone, by interior talent, genial Venus, it is evident that her value broad-shouldered constable leaving on public games, the women were all hud- for what they want in exterior charms; will be in the inverse ratio of her charms. the railing in front of his honor, and imdled together, whispering and looking as if the Medusa's head were still des- Upon this principle ugly women will be mediately resumed the occupation grum, while the men congregated as far tined to be carried by Minerva. Nature converted into belles, perfect frights picking his teeth with a pin. from them as possible, discussing the seldom lavishes her gifts upon one sub- will become irresistible, and none need beau ideal. Had they been prosing up- ject: the peacock has no voice: the beau- despair of conquests, if they have but on politics, you might have sworn it tiful Camellia Japonica has no odor; the happiness to be sufficiently plain. was an English party. Dancing was and belles, generally speaking, have no The best part of beauty, says Bacon, extinct, unless the ladies chose to lead great share of intellect. Some visiona- is that which a statute or painting canout one another; the priests waxed lank ries amuse themselves with imagining not express. As to symmetry of form know that he was around!" and woebegone for want of the marri- that the complacency occasioned by the and superficial grace, sculpture is exage-offerings: Hymen's altar was cover- possession of physical charms conduces quisitely perfect, but the countenance is "All ready!" replied the attorney.

> Why doth not beauty, then, refine the wit, And good complexion rectify the will!"

a figure of Diana, which happened to handsomely by our fastidious neglect, possess the beau ideal in perfection, im- that some of us are less squeamish in fidelity of superficial form. Nothing farmer. plored Venus to animate the marble; our tastes, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordwest, next morning, convinced us that hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hopes: May I be ripped from the bordactor, and more impartial in our atto hope actor, and more and she, as is well known to every per- tentions! Solomon proves the antiquison conversant with authentic history, ty of the adage-"De gustibus nil dispuimmediately granted his request. So far tandum," for he compares the hair of far as this couple were concerned, one his beloved to a flock of goats appear- association, have induced us to look on 'em," was the reply. would have imagined that the evil was ing from Mount Gilead, and in a strain down with unmerited contempt upon "STAND UP!" roared the Judge, in a full of your favor, but you have so enremedied; but, alas! the remedy was of chamoured flattery exclaims, "Thy worse than the disease. The model of eyes are like the fish-pools in Heshbon, excellence was now among them, alive by the gate of Bath-rabbim; thy nose of female nature, have attained a per- man, stand up! or the consequences be am stark mad to be your ---. Odsbod- "A most extraordinary fish was caught and breathing; the men were perfectly like the tower of Lebanon looking to- fection that positively amounts to the upon your own head." mad, beleaguering the house from morn wards Damascus." Now I deem it as kissable. That delicacy of tint and The victim came upon his feet as if me. Wherever you go, you are my north, ton, of Dundoran, in the Denegal bay, Pacha, the commander-in chief of the to night to get a peep at her; all other becoming to see a woman standing be- material, which so admirably adapts it- under the influence of a galvanic batte- and my needle follows you; blunt not, last week. It is a beautiful creature; Turkish Army, is said to be much bewomen were treated with positive insult, hind a good roomy nose, as to contem- self to female beauty, forms, however, ry, and looking around the court-room, therefore, the point of my endeavors, the head, shoulders, and waist resemble loved by the soldiers, although he conand of course the whole semale population was possessed by all the Furies.— tio; but it may be questioned whether tion; but it may be questioned whether
tion; but it may be questioned whether
tion; but it may be questioned whether that I may set the tighter to your affection.

When we saw it, it was alive in a torse-among other things, openly drinktorse-among other things, openly drink-Marmorea (such was the name of the a nose like the tower of Lebanon be not tionate as that of a rabid man toward a tions. I love you beyond measure, but vessel of salt water, and Mr. Hamilton toms—among other things, openly drinkanimated statue) was no Diana in the somewhat too elephantine and bordering as if they had just been bathing in the flesh, whatever she might have been in on the proboscis. The nez retrousse is Salmacian fountain. the marble: if the scandalous chronicles smart and piquant; the button-nose, like Countenance, however, is not within deaf to the words of the indictment, having enough to finish my suit. Pray when touched, become stiff, and the Transylvania. A letter from Shulma of those days may be believed, she had all other diminutives, is endearing; and the reach of any of these substances or but he heard enough of the long, com- put a favorable construction on this, and whole body appeared sensitive to the more than one favored lover; certain it even the snub absolute has its admirers. combinations. It is a species of moral plicated, tangled sentences to know that for the same I shall always sit cross-legg- touch. Many persons considered it a says of him: is that she was the cause of constant Cupid can get over it, though it have no beauty, as superior to more charm of he was charged with stealing, or embez- ed for your sake, being, my dearest little young mermaid." feuds and battles in which many lives bridge, and jumps through a wall-eye surface as mind is to matter. It is, in zling, or cheating, or pilfering some flouncer, yours, &c." were lost, and Pygmalion himself was at like a harlequin. As to the latter fea- fact, visible spirit, legible intellect, dif- house or somebody, and he couldn't tell last found murdered in the neighbor- ture, my taste may be singular, perhaps fusing itself over the features, and ena- exactly which. hood of his own house. The whole is- bad, but I confess that I have a penchant bling minds to commune with each oth- "What does he say to the charge?land was now on the point of a civil for that captivating cast, sometimes in- er by some secret sympathy unconnect- Guilty or not guilty?" inquired the Judge, war on account of this philanthropical vidiously termed a squint. Its advan- ed with the senses. The heart has a peeping over his spectacles with a look Helen, when one of her disappointed tages are neither few nor unimportant. silent echo in the face, which frequently cold enough to freeze a man's blood .wooers, in a fit of jealousy, stabbed her Like a bowl, its very bias makes it sure carries to us a conviction diametrically "Guilty or not guilty?" to the heart, and immediately after threw of hitting the jack, while it seems to be opposite to the audible expressions of .The young man ventured to look up, running out of the course; and it has, the mouth; and we see, through the in hopes to find a sympathising eye, but Such is the tragedy which would pro- moreovor, the invaluable property of do- eyes, into the understanding of the man, all were cold and unfriendly, and he bably be enacting at the present moment, ing execution without exciting suspi- long before it can communicate with us again gazed on the saw-dusted floor and in every country of the world, but for cion, like the Irish guns with crooked by utterance. This emanation of chartrembled with confusion. the fortunate circumstance that we have barrels, made for shooting round a cor- acter is the light of a soul destined to "Guilty or not guilty?" again vocifeno longer any fixed standard of beauty, ner. Common observers admire the the skies, shining through its tegument rated the Judge in a tone that plainly real or imaginary, and by a necessary sun in its common state, but philoso- of clay, and irradiating the countenance, denoted impatience with the case. and happy consequence no determinate phers find it a thousand times more inas the sun illuminates the face of nature

The broad-shouldered constable being lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose and said—"Peace, we arrive at the sage conclusion that his lee when Jesus arose are leed to the said arose are leed to the same arose arose are leed to the same arose arose arose arose rule of ugliness. In fact there are no teresting when suffering a partial eclipse; before it rises above the earth to comrather a humane man, now stepped up be still," his angry passions subcided, time has come, or, more properly, that such animals as ugly women, though we while the lovers of the picturesque are mence its heavenly career. Of this in- to the prisoner and said still continue to talk of them as we do more smitten with its rising and setting definable charm all women are alike "You had better say not guilty of Harpies, Gorgons, and Chimeras. There than with its splendour. Such men susceptible: it is to them what gunpow- course! If you say 'guilty' you don't is no deformity that does not find ad- must be enchanted with a strabismus or der is to warriors: it levels all distinc- stand no chance this term, that's sure, mirers, and no loveliness that is not or squint, where they may behold the tions, and gives to the plain and the and if you say 'not guilty,' and wish at deemed defective. Anamaboo, the Af- ball of sight emerging from the nasal pretty, to the timid and the brave, an any future state of the case to change s rican prince, received so many atten- East, or setting in its Occidental depths, equal chance of making conquests. It your plea to 'guilty,' you can do it, withtions from a celebrated belle of London, presenting every variety of obscuration. that, in a moment of tenderness, he With regard to teeth, also a very errone- of that system of compensation, both advise you to say not guilty, and stick ex-Senator Tom Corwin remark that, Judge Thompson refused to discharge his present position to his sword, and could not refrain from laying his hand ous taste prevails. Nothing can be physical and moral, by which a Superior to it as long as there's any chance." when "he first entered an office to the prisoner. He said that it was a has been a marshal for several years. on his heart and exclaiming, "Ah! ma- more stiff and barrack-like than that Power is perpetually evincing his be- Jonathan's feelings had been simmer- study law, he was the subject for ridicule matter of taste altogether with regard to He successfully commanded the Turkdam, if Heaven had only made you a uniformity of shape and hue which is negress, you would have been irresisti- so highly vaunted, for the merest tyro in a commensurate chance of happiness, ed over, and with a look of innocence, his homespun dress; but," adds he, "I owner of the dog in question preferred negro." ble!" And the same beauty, when tra- landscape will tell us that castellated velling among the swiss Cretins, heard and jagged outlines, with a pleasing va- turn their faces towards heaven, they arms about his head and exclaimed: times as ragged as I was at that time several of the men ejaculating, "How riety of tints, are infinitely more picto- should reflect the light from above, and "What in all nature are you fellows a and why? I was economical—they its right name, could hardly pass through pump water, and when complete, will handsome she is! what a pity that she rial and pleasing. Patches of bile in be animated by one uniform expression trying to dew? I hain't been stealin' were spendthifts." wants a Goitre!" Plain women were the face are by no means to be depre- of love, resignation, and gratitude. formerly so common, that they were cated; they impart to it a rich mellow termed ordinary, to signify the frequency tone of autumnal colouring, which we of their occurrence; in these happier should in vain seek in less gifted com- "All is now ready-what question do opened, and the sheriff, with the genuine days the phrase extraordinary would be plexions: and I am most happy to vin- you wish to put?" Widow-"Why, prisoner, walked into the room, and promore applicable. However parismoni- dicate the claims of a moderate beard ma'am, I must explain that I gave to my ceeded at once to the box.

son, whose strength consists in her hair; all the responsibility of their single bles- The accepted and betrothed lover has a fourth is a Cinderella, who wins hearts In the connubial lottery ugly women her acceptance of him. She was heavby her pretty little foot; a fifth makes an possess an advantage to which suffi- en whilst he pursued her as a star-she in Oneida county, must have been forci- my lad," she replied, "they may live to At Springfield, Mass., a lady sent the Mock Turtle.—Calling a husband irresistible appeal from her face to her cient importance has not been attached. cannot be heaven if she stoops to such bly impressed with the idea, that "all the ends of their days for me-I've following volunteer toast:- "Spruce old "my dear" in public, and "you brute" in figure, and so on, to the end of the cata- It is a common observation, that hus- a one as he .- Emerson.

logue. An expressive countenance may band and wife frequently resemble one always be claimed in the absence of any another; and many ingenious theorists, definite charm: if even this be ques- attempting to solve the problem by attionable, the party generally contrives tributing it to sympathy, contemplation to get a reputation for great cleverness; of one another's feautures, congeniali-[The following piquant sketch is from and if that too be inhumanly disputed, ty of habits and modes of life, &c., since, in one of the County Courts in of substituting the cause for the effect. to be lost. Still it must be acknowledged, that This mutual likeness is the occasion, some secret attraction, of which they are a substance instead of a shadow. His consequently—in their anxiety to close themselves unconscious, and of which love for any particular woman is self- the term-rushing cases through with of too subtile and intangible a character to be arrested by any modification of says the judge, "while the indictment is marble. Busts, especially where the being read!" whole island threateded to become an antinuptial colony of bachelors and old by earthly test, though destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer, thinking that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer, thinking that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer, thinking that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer, thinking that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer, thinking that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer, thinking that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer, thinking that he would destined perhaps to be realized in a happier state of existing the lawyer and the lawyer deficient in what its rival possesses- "Wat fur?" said the astonised young round a picture, and choose various the constable. meanness of material, and vulgarity of on, without standin' as well as the rest am strongly seemed to the hem of your deton News. shops, which, as simple representations tongue while picking his teeth; "young with that pretty outside of yours that I icle of a late date:

A SPIRIT PERPLEXED .- Medium- Just at this moment the front door lost the wildest charms of his maiden in stole nothin'!"-Literary Museum.

Selected Miscellang.

"I Hain't been Stealin' Nothin'!"

A rich incident occurred a short time

Many of the jury, together with the

"Silence'n the Court!" "Silence'n the Court," repeated the

"Silence'n the Court!" echoed the squeaking tones of a small, red head constable near the door; and the latter speaker immediately commenced elbowing the crowd, right and left, to let them

"All ready?" says the judge. "Command the prisoner to stand up to be realized in a happier state of exis- presentations of little more than blind- the apparent momentary abscence of the ness and death. Painting supplies by sheriff, placed his hands on the shouldcolouring and shade much that sculp- or of the young man, and exclaimednothin'! I hean't sure!"

been in other respects, they all cling to ry to the perfect beauty of the mouth as younger than myself) £200 to pay off a take, and tried to choke off its effect

he passed the door-"I knowed all the time that I hadn't

A PARODY.

"Tis the last cake of supper, Left steaming alone, All its light-brown companions

Are buttered and gone: No cake of its kindred, No cookie is nigh,

To steam on the platter,

Or near its mate lie. "I'll not leave thee, thou lone one! To meet a cold fate; Since thy mates are all eaten, Come lie on my plate.

Thus kindly I'll butter

Thy steaming sides o'er, And think on thy sweetness When thou art no more! Thus all cakes must follow,

Three times every day; When the meal-times approach They must vanish away. When hunger is mighty, And sickness has flown,

A Log Fighting Captain!

What cake can inhabit

The table alone !"

whites, and have received Bounty Land it thou shalt tell nothing. one of the wrong side puts in his claim, threatening letters to the editor. most ignorantly, but with great faith of warrant, in the event of it being obtain- serve to "fill up the paper."

"Don't know talk 'like,' " said the

"Well, who did you fight under," th lawyer asked. "Me fight under log," said Hajo.

"No, but who was your captain?" the lawver enquired. "Me big man, me captain too," auswered the Indian.

"I want to know where you fought, said the lawyer, "at what battle?" "Me fight heap, me shoot hind tree, me shoot under bank river, shoot gun heap," said the Indian.

"Well, what did you shoot at," asked

"Me shoot at General Jackson, tree, four times;" replied the Warrant wanter .- Fayettville Independent.

LOVE LETTER FRUM A TAILOR TO A but it ain't quite done in the middle." beauty. May I never loose a thimble ped up to him, and gently laying his the old jug stay. hand upon his shoulder, said softly and and he quietly retired without another he has "stopped."

is, in fine, one among a thousand proofs out any injury to yourself. Therefore I A Western editor says he once heard dog's tail, and cutting a piece of it off. risen to the highest posts. He owes nignity; affording to every human being ing some time, but now they fairly boil- for every student in town on account of the length of the len and inculcating upon all, that when they but determined resolution, he swung his have lived to see every one of them ten a long one.

One day, as Judge Parson was jogging as a common enemy. along on horseback, over a desolate road, plate the too evident poverty of the scene. A poor, half-starved fellow, with the autumn of 2147.

"Jones, uncombed hair and unshaven beard. I don't own this 'ere land!"

"Will you take the life of Pierce or Scott, this morning, madame?" said nothin' agin 'em."

The Printer's Commandments.

I. Thou shalt love the printer-for he is the standard of the country.

the news in due season.

he may not hold thee guilty. for he will hold thee blameful.

before it is printed-for he will give it libitum. Upon one side, reaching from to you in due season.

A short time since a renowned Hajo courtesy, and do not intend to hurt any costly materials and workmanship; book of the Creek nation, requested the ser- body's feelings, by putting in print the cases in gold of Gothic beauty; books, vices of one of our attorneys while following little anecdote. We have told of all ages, nations and tongues-each traveling in the Indian country, in pro- it a number of times, and suppose it may and all forcibly impress the beholder, curing his Land Warrants from the Department. The lawyer was delighted at the prospect of a good fee; the Indian old acquaintance, but that won't make westments of this poor world. Upon all promising him half the worth of the much difference. At all events, it will this scene of intellect, taste and beauty, > of this village, we had occasion to preside at a sort of municipal supper, or on, and as luck would have it, a specimen of that nice affair known as "Charlotte Russe," was put before us. It was rather a novelty in this region, and therefore, after helping "the doctor" to a pretty good portion, and observing his

"Well," said the doctor, sputtering out the words between two mouthfuls, "it's a pretty good cake, considerin,"

MANTUA MAKER .- "Remnant of my The absence of two buttons from our ers of your esteem, and never be button- we must have had a hearty laugh at acter, and genius of Webster; it is here points of view. Facility of production, "Wall, I guess I can hear what's goin' ed to the loop of your kindness, but I something the previous evening.—Mid-

CANT BE BEAT .- The following fish those waxen busts in the perfumers' burst of passion-he had just bit his tangled the thread of my understanding story is from the Halifax Morning Chronkins! I am surely yours, every stich of in the salmon net of Mr. Aazet Hamil-

Watchman spare that jug. Touch land of which he has become a subject, A WELL-TIMED ADMONITION .- "On not a single drop. It served me many and to the army which he commands, a certain occasion," says the Rev. D. a tug, and I will be its prop. 'Twas my and which he has brought to a state of P. Willis, "I saw a man in a rage with forefather's hand that placed it in his great perfection. His personal appeara person who had treated him badly, and cot. There, watchman, let it stand- ance is handsome, and he possesses very was giving vent to his feelings of recent thy club shall harm it not. The old fa- great personal courage. His age may ment and indignation in terms very un- miliar jug, whose credit and renown are be about fifty-two. To this you must becoming a Christian. In the midst of known to many a mug, and would'st add great military instruction and expehis excitement, and while wicked and thou smash it down? Watchman, for- rience, and a natural instinct for military sinful words were on his lips, one of bear thy blow-break not its earth-brown affairs. his neighbors who knew him well, step- clay; nor make the liquor flow, but let "With such qualities, he has, as you kindly, "Brother, be sober and watch un- We "wind up" a watch in order to to prayer." It was enough. Suddenly set it going, but when we hear a mer- sessing their full confidence. By origin, as calmness came over the sea of Galli- chant speak of "winding up" his affairs, a Croat, he was educated in the milita-word, to repent of his sins, and seek Curtailing.—Much merriment was language. He was appointed to a situforgiveness from God. He "admonish- occasioned in the Philadelphia Court of ation in the War Department. The Suled him as a brother." "A word fitly Sessions last week in the trial in which tan Mahmond created him major to the spoken is like apples of gold in pictures the defendant was charged with mali- army as a recompense for his services cious mischief in throwing a chair on a whilst thus engaged. He has since the street without being knocked down milk cow, get tea, and whip the chil-

It is announced for the benefit of An old lady died recently in Newhe came to a log house, dirty, smoky those persons who did not get a sight at buryport, Mass., who was a belle in her and miserable. He stooped to contem- the comet, that it will again appear be- youth, and refused to marry John Quin-thrust his head through a square, which The mind is like a trunk-if well mony into your head!" "Well, the fact served for a window, with-"I say, Judge, packed, it holds almost everything; if is, Joe, I was getting short of shirts." I aint as poor as you take me to be; for ill packed, next to nothing. So true is it that "order is Heaven's first law."

bachelors, the evergreens of society." private. - Diogenes.

Edward Everett's Library.

The library of the Hon. Edward Everett, in Summer street, is probably the II. Thou shalt subscribe for his pa- most extensive and best arranged of any per-for he laboreth much to obtain the private library in the country. It is a news, that you may not remain igno- complete model. The visitor, on entering, feels that he is in a rare place; and III. Thou shalt pay him for his pa- he feels so because the eloquent eviper-for he laboreth hard to give you dence are so magnificently spread around him. Shelves upon shelves of variegat-IV. Thou shalt advertise—that he ed books greet the eye, unmistakeably may be able to give you the paper. bespeaking the taste, the mind, and the V. Thou shalt not visit him regard- liberality of their distinguished owner. less of his office rules-deranging the A work of sculpture of unrivaled delicacy and beauty is seen in one place; VI. Thou shalt not touch anything a grand painting, of the ancient school, that will give the printer trouble—that gorgeous in color and exquisite in conception, in another; here are the me-VII. Thou shalt not read the manu- chanism of science, the obedient illusscript in the hands of the compositor- trators of astronomy, of navigation, of electricity, of the mathematics; and VIII. Thou shalt not seek the news there are globes and maps, diagrams ad floor to lofty ceiling, are huge mirrors, During the Creek war a portion of IX. Thou shalt ask him but few bordered in gold, throwing back the those Indians was friendly with the questions of things in the office-from rich stores of intellect and taste before them. Furniture of unique and antique Warrants for services, but occasionally X. Thou shalt not send abusive and patterns; chairs of the Elizabethan age; lounges and sofas "rages" in the volup-We shall not violate any particular thous reign of Louis XIV.; tables and desks of curious shapes and rare and there bends gently down the soft, twied. The lawyer wished to know of his Some years ago, when we enjoyed the lightish ray, making still more picturemployer the services he had perform- honor and dignity of the chief magistracy esque and attractive by the mingling shades of a parti-colored sky-light. The effect is beautiful—it is more than beautea-drinking, as the ladies would say. tiful. The room, large and long, seems Seated near us, was a well-known, good an almost unearthly presence. It is of natured jolly individual who bears by all places that of a man imbued with courtesy the title of doctor. After am- genius; inspired by a love of wisdom ple justice had been done to the solid seeking the depths and truths of a great and substantial part of the viands, the philosophy, struggling with the huge lighter articles, as usual, were brought opinions and great minds of the past and present; it is such a place that he would resort to, and there hold communion with his theme, away from and out of the world, as it were. It is here, pacing back and forth, that Mr. Everett has composed and rehearsdisposal of it, as appeared to us, with cd those masterly and beautiful producalready one of the pillars of the classics. which was pronounced with so electric an effect upon the battle plains of Lexington; it is here that were written those innumerable brilliants of literature, closto the most distant posterity.

It is a rare and beautiful place, is this library of the illustrious Everett. It is eminently worthy and characteristic of its owner. - Boston Dispatch.

THE TURKISH GENERALISSIMO .-- Omar

"He is a most frank, disinterested. and loyal man-a zealous friend to the may easily imagine, an irresistible influence over the forces he commands, posand repaired to Constantinople, where he made himself master of the Turkish

A Yankee has invented a machine A man that would call every thing by which will churn, pound clothes, and

"Jones, what in the world put matri-

Naomi, the daughter of Enoch, was no chicken when she entered the holy

Woman-The last and best of the estate of matrimony-being five hunseries. If we may have her for a toast, dred and eighty years old! Conrage