The Report of the SECRETARY OF THE NAVY is a very interesting paper, full of place, an increase of our naval force, which is, at present, altogether disproportionate to our commerce and extended, open coast. Then follows a plan for which cannot be too highly recommended. A retired list is suggested, and a system of promotions on the score of merit. Much space is allotted to the Naval School at Annapolis, the utility of which is strongly insisted on, and several improvements recommended.

Billing as a Court of Equity. THE object of this suit is to procure a de-L cree for a sale of the Real Estate in vised and bequeathed as follows:

"I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife. Elizabeth Clarke, my whole estate, both Real and Personal, during her single life, and at her decease, to my seven children and grand child. appointing Dr. Charles Duvall, Tristee for my son, George Clarke, namely: Abraham Clarke. Henry Clarke, William T. Clarke, and Dr. Charles Duvall, for the use and benefit of my son George Clarke, Samuel Clarke, Ann Denson, Elizabeth Clarke, and my grand child, Mary Ann Browning. But in the event of one or more of them dying without lawful issue, then the survivor or survivors take the whole." The bill, after more particularly describing the said Real Estate, further charges that the said Elizabeth Clarke, the widow of the said teststor, is desirous that said land shall be sold and that she receive such proportion of the proceeds of sale thereof, as the Honorable Court may think proper to allow her, in the be to the interest and advantage of all the parties to the suit, all of whom are of full age, fendants, that the said Real Estate and premises should be sold and the proceeds of sale be distributed among the parties as they may severally be entitled thereto. It is further charg-Clarke, one of the defendants, resides out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Prince George's County once in four successive weeks before the second Wednesday in January next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of the bill, and warn him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the third Wednesday of April next, to answer the premises and show cause if any he has, why a decree
