YOUTH AND AGE.

BY COLERIDGE. VERSE, a breeze 'mid blossoms straying, Where Hope, clung feeling, like a bee-Both were mine! Life went a maying

With Nature, Hope, and Poesy.

When I was young! When I was young !- Ah, woful when! Ah for the change 'twixt now and then! This breathing house not built with hands, This body that does me grievous wrong, O'er airy cliffs and glittering sands, How lightly then it flash'd along : -Like those trim skiffs, anknown of yore, On winding takes and rivers wide, That ask no aid of sail or oar, That fear no spite of wind or tide! Nought cared this body for wind or weather,

Flowers are lovely; Love is flower-like, Friendship is a sheltering tree; O the joys, that came down shower-like, Of Friendship, Love, and Liberty. Exe I was old!

When Youth and I lived in't together.

Ere I was old? An woful Ere, Which tells me, Youth's no langer here! () Youth! for years so many and so sweet, Tis known, that then and I were one, I'll think it but a fond concert-It cannot be that thou art gone! The veeper bell hack not yet toll'd: -And thou wert aye a masker bold! What strange disguise hast now put on. To make believe that thed art gone? I see these locks in silvery slips, This drooping gait, this after'd size: But springtide thossoms on thy lips, And tears take sunshine from thine eyes! Life is but thought: so think I will That youth and I are house-mates still.
