INTERS' ADVOCATE AND SOUTHERN MARYLAND ADVERTISER.—DECEMBER 28, 1853.

LANTERS' ADVOCATE.

UPPER MARLBORO' Wednesday Morning, December 28, 1853.

THE NEW YEAR.

the numberless hosts that make up Examiner: Humanity.

pursuits are discarded, and men give ple time to examine and act upon it." few days only does it last-and there a great interest. The first great aim of stitutions. then approaches this other festival, so a Constitutionally-governed common- Believing all this, we thought we had hearts" to be merry too. opposite in its character. New Year's wealth is to have laws, and modes for reason to presume, that there would not Although Turkey abroad has made the "fur dent's tete-a-tete dinners. I think not, howis eminently a season for reflection and their administration: the second, and even be any attempt at a new agitation. By" from the Russian beavers, domestic broils ever, as the champagne and coffee would be posture of European affairs. He proposes sober consideration, just as Christmas is only the second object is, to see that If the Compromise had become the setone for heedless pleasure. The merrythese laws be well-considered and the making hardly dies away, before a more modes of applying them appropriate and the affections, as well as the mere obe- caught "on the wing." Our market at this ance in public on Tuesday morning last at a sedate hue is thrown over communities, effectual for the dispensation of justice. dience of the people—and this was season will attest the truth of this. and all of us, tired of revelry, betake We entertain great reverence for the generally admitted—surely there was It seems a lamentable fact that this "Great who takes but little exercise. stitutions. So short and uncertain is fession devoted to its practice, because with favor, and would only expose them back upon the truth and weep! our physical existence, that it serves as we recognize it as a venerable and learn- to the contempt of all parties. In a I see among the few good moves in Congress ishing him, on the one hand, how much ration for the great lights that have shone would commence agitation, merely for non, the venerable spot where reposes in comof his journey is completed and, on the in it, and which challenges our admirastrained enjoyment, by forcing on every But there can be no doubt that the was newly healed. His speech in the has evinced an inclination to obtain it, and reaone the solemn reflection, how seldom progressive Spirit of the Times has en- House, last week, was an old fashioned, urally have for a son. The Governor of that Nothing of importance will be accomplished teresting in another view: it comes home from the searching, reforming tendency of fort will probably relieve no one but magnanimous. The Home and Grave of of the season will put them in good humor, and to us, not only as individuals, but as the age; and the attachments of the Gerritt himself; although it will fall Washington, always dear to the heart of the cold and sharp weather tend to cool the arpublic journalists. It forces us to think "Profession" to the old forms and dicta dead on the ears of the public, and will profession to the old forms and dicta dead on the ears of the public, and will provide the head of the permitted to dor of any over excitement. of the responsibility attaching to us in will not meet with much consideration, only expose the speaker to additional is to be hoped that some provision will be made war of 1812, who assisted in driving the Britthat capacity, however humble may be when antiquity comes to be opposed to derision: still, we confess, we are sorry for the possession of his Tomb by the State ish from the ruins of the Capitol, on Thursday our pretensions or our standing, in the Utility. great world of periodicals. We are We make no doubt that a simplifica- had been peaceably adjusted, we did not calls him Father. compelled to look back on the year that tion of the forms of legal proceedings desire to see it so much as referred to, ing," now occupied by the Government, are ed, warmed up. The purpose of the call was 92a93c, and Md. and Va. at 78a83c. Supply is just closing upon our labors, and to is a thing desirable in itself, and which, reflect whether or no we have acted with if rightly conducted, must conduce in that spirit that should have animated us; an eminent degree to the one great end affair from the National Intelligencer, mount demanded for the structure. Cannot a Do not the patriotic citizens of Prince George's Va. 38a41c, and Maryland at 40a42c. Receipts whether we have been just to all persons of all Legislation—the meting-out of which breathes the conservative sentiwhose names or acts we have touched equal justice. The Law itself does not ments of that venerable journal, and the coffers of the Treasury be appropriated to to follow our example? upon; whether we have elevated the in- oppose a judicious reform. Indeed, we considerations, in the fearless desence when the reason for it will apply. So of such principles as we honestly believ- Lord Coke, "savage" as he was, laid it the doings of Congress will have apprized our whom were referred the resolution offered to the young friends in your town to pay them a ed essential to the public weal.

that enjoyment may come again.

vored with. The year '53 has been an tom of Law be formed under, and based cised for a long time to come. This debate eventful one in the history of our paper. on, certain circumstances, and these islative duties of Congress, but which has, have Congressional Dinners next. Questions and occasions have arisen on circumstances in due time cease to op- perhaps with retributive justice, risen up to The senate passed a resolution to authorize which no middling policy was to be purerate, then such maxim or custom is uttical rights of Koszta, the Hungarian. We insued, and which we were bound to dis- terly useless, inapplicable and amounts cuss, on one side or the other. In a to nothing but a stumbling-block. So, word, we have had an opportunity of if any portion of the old Common Law, give at least a speech on each side, and thereshowing the principles we mean to ad- or any part of the forms attendant on it, vocate and the design by which we be found inapplicable to the position Gerrit Smith and Mr. Preston, and also I feel happy to notice a "Bright" and sensi- caped their lips. Before the alarm had reachmean to be guided. That we have hon- and needs of this generation, we say, estly declared them both and defended Away with them! Whenever they bethem both sincerely, a reference to our come useless in themselves or capable night at Indianapolis, Indiana, and of which prayer of all the unfortunate gentlemen is that hands." The safety of the girls and the workfiles will, we think, demonstrate. And, of improvement, the voice of common- we have received the first number, a very good the Senator's shadow may never "grow less." men was soon assured, and before the fury of without self-adulation, we feel justified sense calls out for a Reform. Antiquity looking, well filled sheet. It is in part pub- Mr. Sollers, the M. C. from your district, the plan of operations to be pursued had sketch in expressing our conviction, that a per- and quaintness and "old-establishments" lished by the son of the celebrated "Crow, raised his voice to interrupt the ebullitions of fectly independent journal can be sus- are very fine and very pretty things to tained in this county—a journal which, talk about—but, in this age, we really personage himself as a general correspondent, to do with the President's message. in politics, will invariably go for the best haven't time to discourse on them. We furnished with a roving commission to speak It has been whispered that the Senate's re- of the week. Arrangements for having printmen, and, in all other matters, will main- are now operating on an entirely differ- what, when, and how he will. Kowing the solution, making the office of Assistant Secretain always that side that shall seem to ent principle from that of the "old decided character of Mr. Charman as a Demo- tary of the Treasury, a Presidential appointit to be the sounder. We mean to be sages." We rightly leave everything reader may wonder that thus early in the ca-"independent in everything and neutral like poetical appreciation behind us, reer of an Administration with so much of its of the Secretary an opportunity to overcome in nothing." We believe we shall con- and square every project by the inflexi- time before it Mr. Chapman should have de- the opposition and talk the matter soberly over per Brothers were quietly working out the tinue to be well sustained, and we have ble and progressive standard of general termined to forego the advantages of sailing a bottle of Custom House Port. The object scheme which was formed while the fire was the gratification of assuring our friends UTILITY. everywhere of a steady and continuous As to the probable merits of the paradvancement in the affairs of the An- ticular "simplification" now in progress, his present position and views of his past rela-VOCATE. We avail ourselves of the oc- we know nothing, but take on trust the tions casion to return our thanks for the past, following additional extract from the and to bespeak their co-operation for Examiner: to render our paper more and more worthy of their favor. source of self-congratulation to each that the work will merit and receive the un- conscience is now very sore in this respect, for is nearly $300,000. The two Houses will be on the Monday afternoon after the fire. All aged about 80 years. and every of our readers, and we wish qualified approbation of the people and the little more in the centre of the wings, and lit from above day long, offers of assistance from banks, inthem many returns of the First of Januthe prof sheets as they passed through the last indeed, had I even spoken what truths to throw light upon the members. A steam companies, capitalists, and friends had to throw light upon the members. A steam come pouring in, till it seemed as if the whole ary and all the prosperity they could press, we do not hesitate to declare this opin- I did utter less plainly, my position as a parti-

On Wednesday, 4th of January, the endeavor to keep our readers apprised State to announce the progress that has been tor. I am to be confined by no special stiputo by no special stiputo be confined by no special stiputo by n of what is going on.

PUBLIC DINNER TO GEN. WOOL .- Most of the influential citizens of Troy, N. Y., have whom they call the "Old Ranger" in Illinois, the New York Times says: his fellow-citizens, not alone to his acknowlmore the Governor rose early in the morning pieces, sir. Yes, sir, I'll cut him to pieces, of. The public mind seems variable. convenient day. He adds, however that tho' he had resolved to keep everything to himself, MR. James Brown, one of the gallant men has been chosen clerk to the House Committee known among men, and built up an establish- (soft shells,) Mackaroni, Fire Crackers, Spit only be for a season.

that Governor Ligon has tenderer to Nathan- that this was the curiosest country he had ever The latest advices from the Danube state, iel Cox, Esq., of Baltimore the office of Secre- nary drop of rain." tary of State, and that Mr. C. has, at the solicitation of his numerous friends, consented to serve during the term of Gov. Ligon.

LAW REFORM.

Before another number of the Advo- tlemen so appointed have been, for some finally disposed of. We thought we had cate shall reach its readers, a new year time back, steadily engaged on the work. reason to believe that the Compromise will have dawned upon the world, to In reference thereto we find the follow- of 1850 was a fair, constitutional adjustbring its good and ill, joy and sorrows to ing in the last number of the Frederick ment of all difficulties. We believed it

It is a solemn time, this closing of the the Legislature to revise, simplify and abridge ment on the subject; but from the known abilinot how conscientious and fearless a partisan work they went, as though their daily numerable company of deathless spirits around son George Clarke, Samuel Clarke, Ann Denty and cultivated legal acumen of the Commis- editor may be, it is almost impossible for him of the Engineer Corps, has been changed.— bread depended upon the re-construction of His Throne, where "millions of infant souls son, Elizabeth Clarke, and my grand child, Massioner resident in this place, Samuel Tyler, sometimes to avoid veiling or disguising the The House has directed a committee to inquire their business. This is the genuine America compose the family above." We fervently hope that the retrospec- Es.q, and his indefatigable devotion to the execution of the part allotted to him during the and positive misrepresentation. flagitions extion so natural to this season, may be a cution of the part allotted to him during the and positive misrepresentation, flagitious exlast two years, we have the fullest confidence aggeration, or downright untruth. My own short illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Bowie Seith, The bill, after more particularly describing we certainly knew that the accompanying Re- now express, and fully determined in my own bate. Legislature of Maryland will commence port is a most interesting document. The peo- mind that I never, by God's help, would sub- The great land case of Clark and others vs. ing. An old friend of thirty years' standing years been sorely afflicted with scrofulous affection. ple, as well as the members of the bar, being ject myself to such mental shackles again .- the United States and Braden, will soon be came in, took his hand, and said, "Is there in session for sixty days only. We will new and important system of Law Reform, it to aid the "Chanticleer" are quite different from would be well for the press throughout the those which control or influence a partisan edi- volves twelve millions of acres in Florida, this," said James, "it unmans me," and

A Good One.-The following anecdote is told by the Chicago Journal of Gov. Reynolds, addressed the gallant Gen. Wool, asking him when for the first time in his life he visited the A gentleman said to Colonel, there are some to accept a public dinner as a testimonial from seaboard as a representative to Congress from who think Senator in the place of Mr. Pearce verbially is the way of "Heaven," to help I also cheerfully testify to the high standing of the house ed in Prince George's County once in four sucedged bravery and patriotism, but to his social and paid a visit to the shipping at the docks sir: yes, sir, I'll cut him to pieces, sir. virtues and personal worth. The General, in when the tide was full, and again at noon when The Colonel may lack material for a Christa frank, characteristic note, accepts the invita- it was at ebb; and not satisfied with the sud- mas dinner, or he never would cut up a live of his exploits! Our worthy and most accept Harpers, forty years ago, were journeymen den change that had taken place again in the evening, when the tide was in. Heretofore he meat of him.

It was at ebb; and not satisfied with the sudmas dinner, or he never would cut up a five of his exploits: Our worthy and most accept table ex-correspondent (Mr. F. J. Grund) of and good management, they have become the meat of him.

EMONS, Prunes, whole, half and quarter nesday of April next, to answer the premises and good management, they have become the meat of him. tion and fixes upon the 31st of December as a evening, when the tide was in. Heretofore he meat of him. difficulties on his own hook: but now his as- desence of Fort McHenry in 1814, died sudtonishment broke over its bounds. As he re- denly at Annapolis, on the 19th inst. SECRETARY OF STATE.—We are informed turned to the hotel the old Ranger remarked seed in his life-two freshets in one day, and that although the Russians made many demon-

O. M. Lyles has been admitted to bail in the the undertaking. It altogether numbers only sum of $11,000.

SLAVERY AGAIN.

Our readers are aware that the sim- In common with all "men of peace" plification of Pleading &c. was, some and Conservative politicians, we had intime since, entrusted to a Committee dulged ourselves with the hope that the "learned in the Law," and that the gen- vexed question of negro slavery was had taken firm hold on the minds of our "We are happy to know from an authentic people; that such an accession had been source, that the Commissioners, appointed by made to its principles, both North and old year and opening of the new-and the Rules of Pleading, Practice and the Forms South, of leading statesmen of both par- home circle of the citizen. of Conveyancing, will be prepared to make ties, that no one would be disposed It may be likened unto an old lady, who with "Hard Shells," (of the New York Oyster-cratheir Reports to the ensuing Logislature tival which immediately precedes it.— The most important part of the Report, em- again to agitate the question it professed a cheerful countenance, a surprise for you, an cy,) who have been sojourning here for some Christmas comes and is ushered in with cing, has already been printed and will be prerevelry and merriment; all labor-making sented at the opening of the session, so that not think that, upon the said questions the members of the Legislature may have am thoro exists enough dissatisfaction in there exists enough dissatisfaction in away spontaneously to an unrestrained This is a movement of which we have the Union to afford a basis for any reg- holidays have arrived. A sight at gaudy shop and Mr. Belmont, as charge to the Hague. course of happiness and good-will. A always approved and in which we take ular fresh crusade against Southern In-at any such movement: fore insert to-day the opening speeches of Mr. vices. that of Mr. WALSH.

under the party banner, and have hoisted, as of the resolution is to get rid of Mr. Washing- raging, and will countinue quietly working it On Saturday, the 17th instant, Virginia testament in due form of law, which has been he has done, the flag of independence. We ton. They say he is obnoxious to some philan- in new and improved buildings, with new and STEWART. quote a paragraph from his pen descriptive of thropists who have consolidated designs upon improved machinery, with their old and tried Scarcely had its eyes been opened upon this "I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, heretofore affected my past course as an Edi- disposed to oust him. lations of any kind, but am to remain free and under the grant from the Spanish Government was strength; and we glory in that, too. independent, as every man ought to be,"

A Washington correspondent, in writing to this case when it has been considered.

force under Gortschakoff, was inadequate for about 18,000 troops.

From our Washington Correspondent. course of the Administration in regard to Kosz-

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 26, 1853. Christmas Times - Turkeys - No Poet - Mount Vernon for Sale-Winder's Building-Captain ing embers of his novel wrath; Ingraham's Sword-Lieut. General-"Bright" "X" Left the Field-A Spark from the Black vs. Redfield and Belmont, &c.

CHRISTMAS, with its "gifts," its joys, its associations, its development of untold expectapeople, the habitations of the millionare and the prance rough-shod over his adversaries.

cheer," and enjoy ourselves.

try." The sum expected by the present owner in the spirit in which Mr. Smith did re- urging upon the attention of Congress the pro- to appoint a committee to attend the Conven- moderate. fer to it. We append a notice of the priety of buying it. $200,000 only is the a- tion which will shortly set in Philadelphia .erect a suitable building for a Department of The Italian Opera, during their stay last Koszta and Slavery.-Our daily notice of The committee on Foreign Relations, to intend remaining this week. I would advise 50a5.75; middling to good $6a7; fine or colored distinctly down, if we remember aright, readers of the Debate which, very unexpect- present a sword to Captain Ingraham, who fig- visit, if they should be here this week. We hope every succeeding year will that the essence of any legal custom is the House of Representatives on Tuesday on ured largely in the Koszta case, have reported discharge us with as clear a conscience the reason of its formaation. In other the subject of negro slavery-a debate which favorably. It is now the settled opinion of incan only produce vexation and mischief, and dividuals, and Congress too, that every public in these particulars as we are now fa- words, if any maxim or dictum or cus- rouse a spirit which we had hoped was exor- servant who does his duty, must be rewarded arose on a question equally foreign to the leg- by some mark of public distinction. We shall > troduce the subject here only to say, that, be given, by brevet, for eminent military ser- human nature. What we admire most, was On the 7th inst. in St. Mary's county, by the much as we regret the discussion of such worse vices. It was intended by Gen. Shields, who the instantaneous energy with which the wor- Rev. R. H. B. Mitchell, the Rve. Rop'r. H. than bootless topics in the Halls of Congress, proposed it, to honor and promote the Head of thy Brothers set about repairing the great dis- Surrow, city missionary in the city of Baltible movement in the Senate on Thursday, to and certainty of the catastrophe. "The cam-"CHAPMAN'S CHANTICLEER" is the title of a increase the salaries of the Cierks in the De- phene on fire?" said one of them, who was new weekly paper commenced within a fort- partments, now receiving $900, to $1200. The nearest the scene, "then we are lost; save the Chapman, crow," so renowned in the cam- Mr. Gerritt Smith, by inquiring whether his ing was completed. The January number paign of 1840, and is to have that veritable explanation of the negro-mania had any thing was engaged for in a neighboring office, and to the Duke of Alegon. I may take notice of The out-and-out abolition speech of Mr. Gerstrations in attempting to cross, &c., the real ritt Smith, of N. Y., on Tuesday, was listened to with marked attention. Mr. S. is cer- izes the sixpenny savings bank, as to the kings tainly a fine speaker. His remarks upon the of the book trade.

ta and the interposition of Ingraham, were full ally a flash of native eloquence illumed the dy-

More—Interruption—Assistant Secretary of the The time and talents of the ex- and lobby frigates, capable of mounting fifty guns each, Prince George's and the adjoining counties and Treasury - Capitol Extension - Land Case - members is taken up with the Pacific Railroad will probably be authorized, and, if skilfully travellers generally, for the liberal and conscheme. This subject will engross much time constructed, they will be twice as efficient in Smith-Pacific R. R. Scheme-The "Hards" in its discussion before the two Houses. It will a naval engagement as so many ships of the prepare themselves for the contest. "Old Bul- in hail of the very great improvements which eager word for me, and a jolly shake of the days. The great object of their well-timed war; for no amount of skill can create a navy if fair, if not, on the next fair day thereafter, hand for each of us, bids us all be of "good visit is partly to look on in our gay town, and in a day, and the best of seamen, without good his entire stock of particularly to defeat the nomination of Mr. ships, will prove but inefficient antagonists Every turn of our head convinces us that the Redfield, as Collector of the Port of N. York, windows, smiling faces, together with the mi- Thefr delegation drop in at the "White House" with the latest improvements. The increase FARMING UTENSILS generally, together with mic artillery and happy children with presents and seem much pleased with the grounds and of war vessels recommended by the Secretary Corn, Tobacco, Fodder and Hay. ready to show us, dispose "old heads and young fine prospect on the river. I have not heard of the Navy in his very able report is the least, Sale to commence at 11 o'clock. a. m. whether they have been invited to the Presi- it seems to us, that the safety of the country reception. She looks in fine health for one ourselves to the more serious thoughts ancient body of the Law, and the an- ground to think that the worst enemies Country" is now without a poet. Out of 101 The lectures at the Smithsonian Institute, natually pertinent to the opening of the tique rules laid down by sages of old for of slavery would rest on their oars, and competitors for the $500 prize, offered by a generate to the opening of the tique rules laid down by sages of old for of slavery would rest on their oars, and year. New Year's day is an epoch in its conduct and administration. We would not embark in an impolitic oppothe lives both of individuals and of in- have likewise great respect for the Pro- sition to it, that could not possibly meet tional ode, poem or epic! Let us turn our andria, has been showing us the plants and heavenly bodies in miniature. Mr. H. is one of the most scientific men in the country. Prof. a milestone in each one's career admon- ed society, that is entitled to our admi- word, we did not imagine that any man a resolution submitted to purchase Mount Ver- Smith lectured upon Chemistry, and interand wonderful experiments.

tered even into these venerable precints. bitter and fanatical tirade against the in- State, in his last message, strongly recommends by the two Houses of Congress until after the To us, this approaching season is in- No kind of bigotry can stand an attack stitution of slavery. Although this ef- the Legislature to take to heart a cause so holidays. It is expected that the "good things" 160c.

> it was made. After the whole matter which gave him birth, or the Country which evening at the City Hall. It was rather an in- 18,000 but teresting affair. Speeches were delivered, and 59c for white to 60a63c for yellow. No old I hear that the owners of "Winder's Build- the old soldier blood, which had been congeal- offered.

> which, by the tacit satire contained in the Interior, instead of using rented houses, week with us, have gained many laurels—and of 68 hhds. Ohio at an average of $6. Small t shows the impatience of its aditors to the property of its any such movement:
>
> | Comfortable nor secure from fire? | Comfortable nor sec

The Harpers' Fire.

We copy the following interesting article in 2 hhds. Ky. Total 179 hhds. reference to the late fire in New York, from the "Home Journal." ment of the Messrs. Harper, brought out much and Miss Mary Loveless, all of this county. aster, which had swept away in four hours the more, to Julia, only daughter of the late Langaccumulated resources and appliances of twen- ley Brisco, Esq., of St. Mary's county. ty-five years. No murmuring or repining esed the street, they comprehended the fulness the flames had begun to subside, an outline ed itself in their minds, and by Monday mo the Magazine, which the fire had de was in a state of forwardness before the en were made forthwith. Floods of water were out, till, in a few months, they find themselves Alice, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James duly admitted to probat, and by which he dethe Treasury. The fact is, Mr. Washington assistants about them, going on in the old tri- world of affliction and sorrow, 'ere it was tak- Elizabeth Clarke, my whole estate, both Real understands the whole system of the Depart- umphant way, as though nothing had happen- en to the climes of everlasting bliss. Grieve and Personal, during her single life, and at her ed. They might, if they had chosen, have not, fond parents, that your little one has thus decease, to my seven children and grand child, "This task is assumed by me under different ment, as the Secretary's able report will show, embraced the opportunity to retire from busi- early been transplanted to a fairer and happier Mary Ann Browning, constituting and conditions from any which in some degree and sees through the claims of those who are ness. Their insurance would have sufficed to world. The blessed Redeemer, who said: appointing Dr. Charles Duvall, Trustee for my man of business had become the man of feel-

These offers of help were all the more proper, because they were not needed. This may the names of those who have signed certificates respectseem a hard saying, but it is a true one. It is ing Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and among them I rethe complainants by causing a copy of this or-A disposition is manifested, I understand, to as much the instinct of human nature as it pro
K. Stapleton, Wm. G. Schaeffer, G. Dunn, and others.—

the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper publishthose who help themselves, and to withhold of Messrs, Mortiner & Moweray, who, for the past cessive weeks before the second Wednesday in help from those who do not-need it as they may. And all the instincts of human nature twenty years, have enjoyed the entire confidence and esteem of our merchants and citizens generally. The prince of letter writers has left the field and all the ways of Heaven are right. The the Baltimore Sun and Philadelphia Ledger, leaders in the most difficult branch of business tron, Figs, Cocanuts, Pecan Nuts, Almonds, ought not to pass as prayed. extent, resources, celebrity, or prosperity, -- received and for sale by his position are light, "What will Mrs, Grun- Thus they acquired the right to and certainty of every kind of assistance, by placing them- December 14, 1853. selves at an immense distance from the want of it. The principle and the moral of this apply as well to the apprentice boy who patron- 7,000 for sale by

OUR NAVY AND ARMY.

There is some prospect that under the ac-

try need not be ashamed of. Six propeller not be introduced till after the holidays. In line. They will cost some four or five million the mean time, Messrs. Gwin and Benton will dollars. It is quite necessary to keep at withtions, has fairly descended in the midst of the lion" is an ancient war horse, prepared to are making by our commercial rivals in the construction and working of ships of war .- THE subscriber will offer at public sale, at The hotels are "taken up" by a number of It is not safe to trust to the extempore efforts | L his present residence, to the highest bidof our mechanics and seamen, skilful and On MONDAY, the 16th day of January brave though they are, in case of a sudden against even inferior seamen who are provided with good ships, well appointed, and fitted up HORSES, CATTLE, SHEEP, HOGS and ent stations in case of a visit from an enemy, FRIDAY, the 27th day of January internal or external. Upon the present Con-Journal of Commerce.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

Review of the Baltimore Market for the week ending Dec. 24, 1853.

GRAIN .- Wheat .- The Grain market has been tolerably well supplied this week, and prices are uniform. On Saturday about 5000 bushels Wheat offered and mostly sold at 142a 145c. for good to prime white. Inferior lots to any land in the same vicinity. It would be well to remind visitors to our 2 to 15 cts below the above figures. On Monof his journey is completed and, on the other, how terribly contingent is that other, how terribly contingent is that of the other, how terrible the other terrible ter which is to follow. It comes with a which, as a body, it has rendered to- GERRITY SMITH, of New York, has again property being about $20,000. The "Old Ma- professions, have taken rooms for the season. 147 cts. for red to 152a156c, for good to prime singular significance just when it does come—to succeed the season of unre singular significance just when it does come—to succeed the season of unre singular significance just when it does commenced the warfare, and has endeavored to rip open the old wound that patch-work of its former existence. Virginia charms. Careless nocturnal walking should be deavored to rip open the old wound that patch-work of its former existence. Virginia charms. Careless nocturnal walking should be deavored to rip open the old wound that patch-work of its former existence. Virginia charms. ly sold at 145a149c. for red to 153a157c. for could be advantageously divided into two good to prime white. To-day the market was farms. firmer, and prices a shade better. About 8000 bushels offered and mostly sold at 154a158c for good to fair white. Prime lots held firmly at the balance of the purchase money to be paid

Corn .- The receipts of Corn have been good, amounting to about 150,000 bushels, viz: on Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday 128,000 bushels at prices ranging from 52a57e pass into the hands of private speculators. It We had a meeting of the old soldiers of the for white, and 55a56c for yellow. Since then at 54a57c for white, and 50a63c for yellow-an advance. The narket is firmer to-day.

Rye .- Sales of Penna. have been made at

Oats .- The sales of Penna. were at 44a45c;

Beans .- Sales at $1.25a1.40 per bushel. Peas .- Sales at $2.87a3. TOBACCO .- The market is quiet, with sales sales Maryland at the quotations. As there $7.50a8; ground leaf inferior $4.50a5; mid- On WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of Deto fine yellow $10a15; do. do. Spangled $7a9; all the PERSONAL ESTATE of said deceasmedium do. $6a6,80; common do. $5.50a6; fine ed (except regroes) consisting of a Crop of reds $7a8; good do. $5,75a7; medium do. $5.25a Tobacco in the House, a large quantity of 5.50; common do. $5; green and nondescript Corn, Oals, and Provender, consisting of Wheat 85. Inspections 147 hhds. Md., 30 hhds. Ohio, Straw, Clover Hay, Fodder, Corn-Shucks, &c .-

OBITUARY. Departed this life on Monday, the 19th inst., Mrs. MARTHA ANN LOVELESS, wife of Mr. John Loveless, in the 28th year of her age. In all the relations of life, she fulfilled the duties pertaing to her station with fidelity and honor. During an illness of several weeks. she maintained a patient resignation to the Di- CHARLES DUVALL, TRUSTEE OF vine will, sustained by the power of grace .-That Saviour whom she had faithfully served in life, did not forsake her in the final conflict; MARY ANN BROWNING AND but in the dark "valley of the shadow of death, cheered and illumined her pathway through its gloomy precints, and enabled her to "fear no In the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, evil." When on the very confines of the eternal world, she earnestly besought her companion to meet her in Heaven. May the power of religion so comfort the bereaved, that in life's Prince George's County, of which the late last hour, the same supporting grace, shall enable them to triumph in death, and gain a title and possessed. The bill states that on or about to that "inheritance which is incorruptible and the Sixteenth day of April, eighteen hundred that fadeth not away."

pay every outstanding note. The stereotype "Suffer little children to come unto me and son, George Clarke, namely: Abraham Clarke, the future. We shall spare no efforts to the first to the first to the first to the future will not undertake to pass judg
"We are not ourselves learned in the Law, and Dr. The plan of the extension of the Capitol, million; their private fortunes are large; but to the first t On Monday, the 19th inst., at the residence more of them dying without lawful issue, then ion; and while we believe we shall have the san editor, and one of some good fame too, below, and be continually pumping fresh air nothing else to do or desire, than to help the frame. The letter which we publish to day, will be Court may think proper to allow her, in the simplesi, and at the same time the most systematic pleadings ever used in Courts of law, noying that I left it with more joy than I can hate

Hampton's Vegetable Tincture.

Brothers Harper is their time of calamity.— read with great interest by the afflicted. We tately had a premises. It is further charged, that it would be to the interest and advantage of all the par-The heart of James Harper was full. The conversation with a venerable clergyman of this city, who be to the interest and advantage of all the pareffected by this medicine upon a woman who had for deeply interested in the completion of this new and important system of Law Reform, it would be well for the press throughout the would be well for the press throughout the work of the such mental snackles again.—

the United States and Braden, will soon be deeply interested in the completion of this brought to such mental snackles again.—

The conditions under which I shall endeavor beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that there is a virtue in Hampton's beyond all doubt, that made the cup overflow, "I can't stand distributed among the parties as they may sev-

> "I take great pleasure in stating that I have examined the State of Maryland, "JOHN H. T. JEROME."

Christmas Goods.

on Public Lands. We opine that the duties of ment unapproached by any in the world, for Devils, Roman Candles and Torpedoes-just HALL & GREENWELL.

HALL & GRENNWELL.

of satire and fanatical warmth, and occasiontion of the present Congress a beginning will per, I have determined to retire from the busiat last be made of a steam navy that the coun- ness of "Hotel Keeping," in this village. doing so, I beg leave to return my warmest and tinued patronage bestowed upon my house for the last twenty-one years, and to them my ardent wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year, and many returns of the season.

FIELDER SUIT. December 28, 1853-tf

some additions to the sailing vessels in the A Desirable Estate for Sale. navy as well as to our steam marine. We TOY VIRTUE of a decree of the Circuit. also require some increase of our little army; D Court for Prince George's County, sitting sufficient, at least, to fire salutes at the differ- in Equity, the subscriber, as Trustee, will offer gress it devolves to look into these matters- if fair, if not on the next fair day thereafter, the REAL ESTATE of the late Thomas Parker. This is a valuable place, as well on account of its natural fertility as on account of its proximity to the Baltimore and Washington Rail Road, which will afford the purchaser the advantage of the Baltimore and Washington markets. It is about twelve miles from Washington. Contains 420 Acres; abounds in Wood and Timber, and produces Tobacco, Wheat, Corn and other grain, equal

The improvements are a good

The Terms of Sale, under the deeree, are: -A cash payment of Five Hundred Dollars, and in three equal annual instalments of one, two and three years, the whole to bear interest from the day of sale, and to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser with security to be approved by the Trustee. Upon the payment of the purchase money and interest, the Trustee is empowered to convey the premises in fee simple to the purchaser, free, clear and discharged of all claim of the parties to the cause and of any person or persons claiming by, for or under them. Possession will be given immediately upon his complying with the terms of sale. C. C. MAGRUDER, Trustee. December 28, 1853-ts

[The National Intelligencer will publish in country paper until day of sale.]

PUBLIC SALE Of Valuable Personal Pro-Perty.

THE subscribers, under an order of the ty, will offer at public sale at the residence

the late Jane M. Carroll.

Those in want of provender will have at this sale an unusual quantity offered them. There will also be sold some Household ant

On Tuesday evening, the 27th instant, by Kitchen Furniture, six or seven yoke of OXEN, The destruction of the publishing establish- the Rev. David Kerr, Mr. John Smith, Jr., MILCH COWS, and a MILCH COWS, and young Plough HORSE, Don Carts, Corn Sheller, and some Farming Utensils. The Terms of Sale, as Prescribed by the Court, are:- The cash for all sums of and under ten dollars, and a credit of six months upon all sums above ten dollars, the purchaser to give bond and security, to be approved by the un-

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. WM. H. TUCK, C. C. MAGRUDER, Adm'rs. of J. M. Carroll. December 21, 1853-ts

GEORGE CLARKE, et al.,

SAMUEL CLARKE. Sitting as a Court of Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a de-I cree for a sale of the Real Estate in William Clarke, of said County, died, seized and forty-five, the said William Clarke, departed this life at the County aforesaid, having previously made and executed his last will and vised and bequeathed as follows:

ry Ann Browning. But in the event of one op Only once, and only for a moment, did the of her son-in-law, in Calvert county, after a the survivor or survivors take the whole, the said Real Estate, further charges that the said Elizabeth Clarke, the widow of the said teststor, is desirous that said land shall be sold and that she receive such proportion of the ties to the suit, all of whom are of full age, excepting Mary Ann Browning, one of the deses should be sold and the proceeds of sale be distributed among the parties as they may severally be entitled thereto. It is further charg-

> Clarke, one of the defendants, resides out of January next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of the bill, and warn him to appear in this Court in person or hy solicitor, on or before the third Wed-

ed and avowed in the said hill, that Samuel

OWEN NORFOLK, Clerk of the C. C. for P. G. County. True copy -test, OWEN NORFOLK, Clerk of the December 14, 1853-4w LEW YORK BUTTER—a prime article just received and fo sale by HALL & GREENWELL.