PILOT REFLECTIONS

Gospel of St. Matthew, 25th chapter, verses 14-30. For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his servants and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two and to another one; to every man according to his several ability and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same and made them other five talents. I will make these ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

17 And unto one he had received two, he had also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them.

20 And to he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents saying Lord thou deliveredst unto me five talents; behold I have gained beside them five talents more; make these ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents; behold I have gained beside them two talents more; make these ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he that received the one talent came and said, Lord, I know that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou has not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed; and I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth; lo, there thou hast that is thine.

25 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not and gathered where I have not strewed;

26 Therefore thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

27 Take therefore the talent from him and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

According to press reports, the vast sum of gold in the U. S. Treasury is to be taken to Kentucky and stored in a hole in the ground. This gold secured by the Government by mandate and by purchase at exorbitant prices is hoarded for no expressed reason. Why this gold should not be used for the soldiers' bonus and other pressing needs of the government we are not advised.
