ACROSS THE RHINE a new Germany moves under the spell-binding genius of Reichfuhrer Adolf Hitler, pictured here addressing a mass meeting at Karlsruhe, capital of Larden, Germany. (Acme)

SWIRLING in rhythmic grace, ballet girls of Columbia's Hollywood studio, go into their dance.

JAVANESE call her a S'rumpi dancer. Her face gets that frozen look through years of training. (S. C. Co., Ltd.)

SOON NOW, 4-H Clubbers will be busy judging local cattle like this Virginia group.

THOUSANDS CHEER as North Carolina's big parade swings down the street in Asheville's Rhododendron Festival. This year's pageantry of music, marching, beauty, dancing, and good times will be held June 15 to 19.
