PULLET LAYS THREE EGGS IN A DAY

Believe it or not, a five and one-half months old pullet laid three perfect eggs in one day, at Oklahoma City, Okla., January 23rd, for her surprised owner, E. C. Bailey. The pullet making the record is a Rhode Island Red and is kept in one of the "new fangled" poultry coops, called a hen battery. She laid her first egg some time during the day and then between 6 and 9 P. M. the same evening laid two more. These were the fourth, fifth, and sixth eggs she had ever laid.

This pullet is kept in a hen battery in a compartment to herself. Other pullets are in other compartments of this battery, but the battery is so constructed that there is no possibility of the eggs getting through from one compartment to another. Also the pullets on all sides of this one each laid an egg on the same day the pullet was making hersel! famous. The pullets receive nothing but Purina poultry feeds and witter.

KNOW

SPARAGUS is too good for A just a chance acquaintanceship. It is one of those foods that you like to know, and which like good books or good music, improves with acquaintance.

Your Asparagus

Know, then, that there are two varieties of canned asparagusthe white and the green. These are planted from the same seed, but they are picked differently. Green asparagus is green because the tips of the spears have been allowed to poke through the earth and see the sun for a while. White asparagus remains white because it is picked before being exposed to the sun.

From Giant to Tiny

About grades. Asparagus is graded according to size and it is packed both as spears and as tips. Spears are especially nice for cooked dishes and tips are often preferred for salads, sandwiches, etc. From giant to tiny-here are the grades: Giant contains eight to twelve spears to a No. 21/2 can; Colossal contains thirteen to sixteen; Mammoth contains seventeen to twenty-four; Large contains twenty-five to thirty-four; Medium contains thirty-five to forty-four; and Small contains forty-five to sixty. The grades of tips are the same, except that Mammoth is the largest and Tiny is the smallest.

Know these facts about asparagus, and if you are a careful buyer you can stock up with asparagus when it is on sale, and select the kinds and sizes most adapted to your own use.*

WEST NOTTINGHAM GETS RE-VENGE ON GOLDEY COLLEGE

By CECIL K. VAUGHAN

West Nottingham Academy got revenge on the Goldey College nine on the sixth of this month for a defeat registered earlier in the season by defeating the same diamond aggregation

7-6. Nottingham was the visitor. This Maroon victor was largely due to the fine work of Humphreys and themselves well in the field-the former emerged with nine strike outs to Nottingham permitted a lone tally third, and three in the fourth, thus netted them five runs.

The sixth inning was airtight. Then in the seventh Byrd ties the score on a single base slap by Respess, and Em-
