Leon Blum's Program

for France Given

EON BLUM, leader of the Nationa Socialists and organizer of the "popular front" of leftists that won the recent French elections, will be practically the dictator of France when Premier Sarrout and his cabinet resign on June 2 and the new government takes office. Blum laid down this four-point foreign policy program which he said the nation would follow at least until the next election in 1940: 1. Adherence to the League of Na-

Consolidation of European peace.

3. Promotion of mutual assistance

4. Progressive disarmament. Speaking to the national Socialist council Blum said: "We must consolidate the country against Fascist attacks We must put the republican spirit ir all high administrations, and we will deprive the Fascists of all secret means of propaganda."

Ickes-Hopkins Feud Moves to Senate

CECRETARY ICKES' were easily defeated by the Harry Hopkins forces in the house fight as to whether the Public Works administration should share in the handling of next year's relief funds. But it was understood the feud would be revived in the senate under the leadership of Senator Hayden of Arizona, Democrat and a member of the appropriations committee.

The house majority voted according to the wishes of the administration on the relief bill, which is a $2,364,229,712 carrying $1,425,000,000

The most important amendment permitted to be added to the bill by the house leaders was one submitted by Representative William P. Three days later the airship started back to her new base at Frankfurt-on-Main. The dirigible was in the command of Capt. Ernst Lehmann, but he received far less attention here than did Dr. Hugo Eckener, the veteran skipper of Zeppelins. Eckener, in bad with the Nazis at home, was permitted to be aboard the ship as an "adviser." He and Captain Lehmann went to Washington together, while the ship was being groomed for the return flight, to call on President Roosevelt and other officials and return their greetings.

Senator Park Trammell

of Florida Is Dead

DARK TRAMMELL, veteran United A States senator from Florida and a staunch supporter of all New Deal measures, died in Washington of a cerebral hemorrhage which followed an attack of influenza. Though ill, he tried to remain on the senate floor long enough to vote for a proposal to include $12,000,000 in the War department appropriation bill for continuation of the Florida ship canal. This effort probably cost him his life. Thirty-five years ago Mr. Trammell, just out of college, was elected mayor of Lakeland, Fla. Later he served in both branches of the Florida legislature, as state attorney general, and as governor for four years. Never defeated in an election, he was named United States senator in November, 1916, two months before the expiration of his term as governor. At the time of his death he was chairman of the senate naval affairs committee.
