Let's see what the weatherman says.

Taking No Chances

Farmer Thomas gave a new hand a plateful of mushrooms for his supper. "Isn't anyone else having mushrooms for supper?" asked the hand, noticing that he was the only one eating them. "We like them for breakfast best," said the farmer. Next morning Thomas went to his new hand's room and asked him how he felt. "Fine," said the hand. Returning to the kitchen, and putting his head round the door, he shouted to his wife: "It's all right, Jane, they're not toadstools!"

No Time to Notice

Bystander—Did you get the number of that car that knocked you down, madam? Victim—No, but the hussy that was driving it wore a three-piece tweed suit, lined with Canton crepe and she had on a periwinkle hat trimmed with artificial cherries.—The Mutual Magazine.

Terms of Senators and Representatives

Representatives are elected for two years by the direct popular vote in November of even years. Each house is a new body, although many representatives are re-elected. Under the 20th Amendment to the Constitution congress meets each year, beginning January 3. Thus there is a new house in January of the odd-numbered years. This procedure differs from the Senate, in which the terms are so arranged that one-third of the senators are new every two years, making it a continuous body in that the terms are for six years.—Washington Post.

Week's Supply of Postum Free
Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

Love and Understanding
One whom I knew intimately and whose memory I revere, once in my hearing remarked that, "unless we love people we cannot understand them." This was a new light to me.—Rossetti.

Advise and Co-operate
A person should only give advice about matters in which he will co-operate.—Goethe.

He Who Does
Nothing is impossible to the man who can, will, and then does.
