Curse of Progress

Tender Hat Wanted
A man walked reluctantly into a hat shop, says Ireland's Own, of Dublin.
"I've just lost a bet," he said, "and I want to buy a soft hat."
"This is the softest we have," said the assistant.
The customer gazed at it speculatively.
"What I want," he said wistfully, "is something a little more tender; I've got to eat it."
Strange
Wif—There's a strange hair on your coat lapel, you worm!
Hubby—Now, darling, that's a hair from our dog. It isn't a woman's hair, honestly.
Wif— I know. That's what's strange about it.
Sit Down
Teacher—Johnny, can you define nonsense?
Johnny— Yes, teacher— an elephant hanging over a cliff with his tail tied to a daisy.

Past Cruelty in Spain

Savage cruelty to one another is nothing new to Spain. In the 1880s' in one of the many Spanish civil wars of the last century, after a battle in the streets of Madrid when many of the captured rebels were killed as examples, Queen Isabel, not satisfied, sent word to her general to kill still more of the captured. Her general's reply is worthy of repetition: "Does the lady not understand," he said, "that if we shoot all the soldiers we catch, the blood will rise up to her own chamber and drown her?"
